Contributed articles Resources in Education ,1968 Ecologies of Urbanism in India Anne M. Rademacher,K. Sivaramakrishnan,2013-03-01 Essays follow rapidly proliferating and resource intensive Indian urbanism in everyday environments Case studies on nature conservation in cities urban housing and slum development waste management urban planning and contestations over the quality of air water and sanitation in Delhi and Mumbai illuminate urban ecology per spectives throughout the twentieth century The collection highlights how struggles over the environment and one s quality of life in urban centers are increasingly framed in terms of their future place in a landscape of global sustainability The text brings historical particularity and ethnographic nuance to questions of urban ecology and offers novel insight into theoretical and practical debates on urbanism and sustainability Health and Sexuality Education in Schools Steven Ridini,1998-10-28 Recently there has been much debate over the adoption implementation and maintenance of comprehensive health and sexuality education programs in Massachusetts public schools Advocates of school based comprehensive health education programs often use a public health approach to substantiate their position They cite national and statewide statistics about adolescent sexual activity and unsafe sexual practice as a basis for providing students with the facts and the skills to make decisions to prevent pregnancy and the transmission of sexually transmitted diseases Opponents often speak about the parents role in educating their sons and daughters and object to public school instruction that regards homosexuality and safe sex as acceptable choices In the literature many models of community organization focus on the decision making structure within the community rather than on the process of social change Therefore we often know who makes community decisions without knowing much about how and why these decisions are made In this study the process of social change is explored by conducting comparative case studies of two Massachusetts communities Pirate Modernity Ravi Sundaram,2009-07-30 Focusing on the culture of piracy in the Indian capital this book looks at what has happened to the city in the wake of the dissemination of the new media and the ways in which it has and will affect urban cultures in an age of globalization Crimes of Violence Marvin Eugene Wolfgang,1967 Submitted to the President s Commission on Law Enforcement and Administration of Justice The Geography of the Third World Michael Pacione,2012-08-06 First published in 1988 this reissue presents a comprehensive overview of contemporary developments and research into the geography of the Third World at a time when economies and societies there were changing at a much more rapid rate than their counterparts in the developing world It covers the topic both systematically and by region showing how the unique background of each region affects developments there The City in Time and Space Aidan Southall,1998 This ambitious book treats urbanisation and urbanism all over the world and from the earliest times to the present Aidan Southall a pioneer in the study of African cities discusses the urban centres of ancient Sumeria Greece and Rome as well as medieval European cities Chinese Japanese Islamic and Indic cities colonial cities and the great metropolises of the twentieth century Drawing on this historical and comparative perspective he offers a fresh analysis of world urbanisation in the contemporary period of globalisation The study emphasises the enduring paradox of the city which juxtaposes splendid cultural productions with the poverty and deprivation of the majority

Urban Dynamics in Black Africa William John Hanna, Judith Hanna, Judith Lynne Hanna, 2009-01-01 Urban Dynamics in Black Africa presents a succession of worlds where we can study the development and the crystallization of major social change The authors trace the development of former villages towns and colonial outposts into major cities within the international community Open air markets continue their trading beside modern department stores as individual Africans create contemporary lives from old and new William J and Judith L Hanna in this unique work introduce new data and the methods of dependency theory class and gender analysis they offer connections between Africa's internal dynamics its legacy of imperialism and the international political and economic arena At the same time the book provides a model for studying the evolution of political institutions Urban Dynamics in Black Africa illustrates how social classes modify and are modified by existing cultural forms The book examines Africa in its independence by contrasting development and dependency role adaptability and conflict in a powerful conceptual matrix Detailing the urban conditions that exist throughout Africa as well as their costs and benefits this work shows how contemporary political conflict in urban Africa is based upon both ethnic and non ethnic ties and how these ethnic and non ethnic ties serve as the bases of a system of political integration unique to poly ethnic communities As a synthesis of the relevant available knowledge on African towns and town dwellers this book is concerned primarily with the effects of external intervention and socioeconomic modernization upon the birth and development of Africa's new towns and the rapid expansion of its old ones It considers the impact of migration and town life upon Africans William J Hanna is professor of urban studies and planning at the University of Maryland His research interests include international development social planning and community planning He is the author of numerous journal articles Judith L Hanna is senior research scholar in the departments of dance and anthropology at the University of Maryland She is the author of numerous journal articles and books on the subject of dance
