SO, Where Did We Go Wrong? David Henry Patton,2024-03-07 So Where Did We Go Wrong is titled as such because in the last sixty years I have witnessed the very values that many have grown up with and have tried to follow being abandoned in exchange for the pursuit of earthly possessions Just as disheartening walking over and ignoring the little people that might get in the way The same can be said of the rest of society Since it seems too many have left the church and have sacrificed their integrity wishing to live only for the moment Anyway this book and the others that follow are my attempt to get them to right their wrongs and return to the desired pathway that will lead them Homeward

Notes From Nethers Sandra Lee Eugster, 2007-10-01 This memoir of being raised on a commune in the late 1960s and early 1970s is a fascinating evenhanded view of counterculture life Booklist Sandra Eugster's idealistic headstrong mother created a commune in rural Virginia that came to be known as Nethers and it was here that Sandra spent much of her childhood This unique honest memoir strives to accurately depict communal living in all its complexities An array of colorful characters drifted into the commune and the author writes sensitively about being a child in the midst of all this With many moments of warmth and humor as well as loss and chaos her narrative is also an important piece of American cultural history and the history of efforts to create a utopian society which never seem to turn out exactly as planned How can an endeavor founded on love and community traumatize a child Sandra Eugster s fascinating account of her mother s radical plan to remove her children from an ordinary suburban childhood to found a commune is a riveting evocative documentary of a time and a place and its effect on a life Jacquelyn Mitchard 1 New York Times bestselling author of The Good Son A remarkable memoir Her story is compelling incisive and above all candid and understanding Stanley I Kutler author of The Wars of Watergate
