Social Movements Political Violence And The State A Comparative Analysis Of Italy And Germany:

Social Movements, Political Violence, and the State Donatella della Porta, 1995-09-29 This book presents empirical research on the nature and structure of political violence While most studies of social movements focus on single nation studies Donatella della Porta uses a comparative research design to analyze movements in two countries Italy and Germany from the 1960s to the 1990s Through extensive use of official documents and in depth interviews della Porta is able to explain the actors construction of external political reality and to build a theory on political violence that synthesizes the various interactions among political actors

Social Movements, Political Violence, and the State: A Comparative Analysis of Italy and Germany Donatella Della Porta (1956), 2006 This book presents empirical research on the nature and structure of political violence While most studies of social movements focus on single nations Donatella della Porta uses a comparative research design to analyse movements in two countries Italy and Germany from the 1960s to the 1990s

The Future of Social Movement Research Jacqueliën van Stekelenburg, Conny Roggeband, Bert Klandermans, 2013-07-01 Are the dynamics of contention changing This is the question confronted by the contributors of this volume among the most influential scholars in the field of social movements The answers arriving at a time of extraordinary worldwide turmoil not only provide a wide ranging and varied understanding of how social movements arise and persist but also engender unanswered questions pointing to new theoretical strands and fields of research The Future of Social Movement Research asks How are the dynamics of contention shaped by globalization By societies that are becoming increasingly more individualized and diverse By the spread of new communication technologies such as social media cell phones and the Internet Why do some movements survive while others dissipate Do local and global networks differ in nature The authors essays explore such questions with reference to changes in three domains of contention the demand of protest changes in grievances and identities the supply of protest changes in organizations and networks and how these changes affect the dynamics of mobilization In doing so they theorize and make empirically insightful how globalization individualization and virtualization create new grievances new venues for action new action forms and new structures of contention The resulting work brought together through engaging discussions and debates between the contributors is interdisciplinary and unusually broad in scope constituting the most comprehensive overview of the dynamics of social movements available today
