Social Relations And The Life Course:

Social Relations and the Life Course G. Allan, G. Jones, 2016-01-28 This collection of essays represents some of the most important recent research into changing patterns of family household and community life It brings together some of the leading sociologists in the field to explore how these informal social relationships change over time and the life course It will be essential reading on courses concerned with the family and youth sociology Social Networks and the Life Course

Duane F. Alwin, Diane H. Felmlee, Derek A. Kreager, 2018-03-06 This volume engages the interface between the development of human lives and social relational networks It focuses on the integration of two subfields of sociology social science the life course and social networks Research practitioners studying social networks typically focus on social structure or social organization ignoring the complex lives of the people in those networks At the same time life course researchers tend to focus on individual lives without necessarily studying the contexts of social relationships in which lives are embedded and linked to one another through social networks These patterns are changing and this book creates an audience of researchers who will better integrate the two subfields It covers the role of social networks across the life span from childhood and adolescence to midlife through old age Interpersonal Relations Across the Life Course Timothy J Owens, J. Jill

Suitor, 2007-09-05 This volume number 12 is subtitled Interpersonal Relations across the Life Course It is inspired by the increased awareness in recent years of the way in which structural and psychosocial dimensions of the life course shape interpersonal relations Interest in this issue has included both the maintenance of long term relationships that may span many phases of the life course and the development of relationships that are specific to particular phases The volume is a combination of invited and author initiated papers all anonymously peer reviewed that seeks to present a cohesive source of information on the multiform nature and influences of interpersonal relations from a variety of perspectives theoretical frames and substantive areas Contributions reflect Macro micro linkages and interpersonal relations i e age structures social institutions and race ethnicity Parenting across the life course Parent adult child relations and transitions Transitions in non kin relationships Social relationships and well being Aging and the Life Course Deborah Lowry, 2022-01-10 Aging part II explores the experiences and conditions of aging especially in particular groups and part III presents current research on older adults engagement in work family social networks and sex Finally Part IV addresses themes of aging and social change
