Passing the Federal Budget

The President sends Congress a budget message with estimates, spending priorities, & plan for taxes.

The House and Senate pass budget resolutions that outline spending & taxes for next 5 years.

The House and Senate pass bills authorizing spending, which must meet spending limits.

The President can either sign the budget bill into law or veto it.

If vetoed, Congress can override the bill or override.

Four years ago, our fathers dedicated this country to the proposition that all men are created equal.

The civil war was a test to see if a democracy will survive. We are dedicating this cemetery to those who died for their country.

The Gettysburg Address

But, in a larger sense, we can not dedicate this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it, far above our poor power to add or detract. The world will little note, nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here. It is for the living, rather, that we are dedicated to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced. It is for them that we are here today. Their great task, standing before us -- that to that measure of devotion -- that from these honored dead we take increased loyalty to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion. That the nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom -- and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth.
