extraordinary fluency in this evaluative work in Mumbai where people from all walks of life are remarkably astute at navigating and assessing political signs and representations endlessly discussing and debating possible meanings of the city's dense material semiotic ecologies whether words or images cash or crowds flyers or flowers In Mumbai Bjorkman argues the evaluative criterion of representation is not whether something is sign or substance or even whether people are deemed to utter truths or falsehoods Rather what matters is whether and how a performance activates and actuates the social relations and political subjectivities that it professes to display Drama of Democracy highlights Mumbaiers' communicative fluency and theatrical acumen to offer a conceptual toolbox through which contemporary political churnings around the globe might be understood
