Social Work Practices Karen Healy, 2000-01-28 Karen Healy profoundly challenges in the context of the postmodernity of late capitalism many of the assumptions upon which the critical tradition in social work has been founded This is a book which interrogates not only the emancipatory metanarratives of left perspectives from her position within the left but also questions many of the received ideas about her professional power and identity and about the kinds of social work practices necessary in order to continue to pursue welfare as an emancipatory project under transformed ideological and material circumstances This is a most significant contribution to the debates which confront social work worldwide at the present time Peter Leonard McGill University Canada

Contemporary Feminisms in Social Work Practice Sarah Wendt, Nicole Moulding, 2016-01-29 Contemporary Feminisms in Social Work Practice explores feminism as core to social work knowledge practice and ethics It demonstrates how gender neutral perspectives and practices obscure gender discourses and power relations It also shows feminist social work practice can transform areas of social work not specifically concerned with gender through its emphasis on relationships and power Within and outside feminism there is a growing assumption that equality has been won and is readily available to all women However women continue to dominate the ranks of the poor in developed and developing countries around the world male perpetrated violence against women and children has not reduced women outnumber men by up to three to one in the diagnosis of common mental health problems and women continue to be severely underrepresented in every realm of power decision making and wealth This worrying context draws attention to the ways gender relations structure most of the problems faced by the women men and children in the day to day worlds in which social work operates Drawing together key contemporary thinking about feminism and its place in social work this international collection looks at both core curriculum areas taught in social work programs and a wide range of practice fields that involve key challenges and opportunities for future feminist social work This book is suitable for all social work students and academics It examines the nuanced nature of power relationships in the everyday and areas such as working with cross cultural communities mental health interpersonal violence and abuse homelessness child protection ageing disability and sexuality importance of the social and pressure towards solely evidence based knowledge In addition to casting light on areas that have been in the shadows of the mainstream narrative the contributions to this book will raise new questions contributing to continuing discussions between and within each discipline This book was originally published as a special issue of Nordic Social Work Research
