The background of the cover is a vibrant, textured painting depicting a group of students in a classroom. In the center, a young woman with dark hair, wearing a red cardigan over a yellow shirt, holds a blue book and looks directly at the viewer with a focused expression. To her left, a student in a blue shirt is partially visible, also holding a book. To her right, a student in a purple shirt is looking down at a book. Other students are visible in the background, some wearing blue headbands, creating a sense of a busy, collaborative learning environment. The painting style is expressive, with visible brushstrokes and a rich color palette.

Sociology James M. Henslin, 2012 Down to Earth Approach Adapted from Henslin's best-selling comprehensive text Core Concepts provides in-depth coverage of ten high-priority topics that are the foundation of many introductory sociology courses. This unique paperback offers a concise and economical format without sacrificing depth of coverage. Unlike a brief or essentials text, the ten chapters that make up Core Concepts are not edited down from a longer book. Instead, they provide full coverage of those topics that instructors emphasize the most in a one-semester or one-term introductory sociology course. Like Henslin's other texts, it features the author's familiar down-to-earth approach and personal writing style that highlight the sociology of everyday life. With wit, personal reflection, and illuminating examples, Henslin shares with readers a passion for sociology unmatched by any other introductory text.
