Soundless Sahara:

The Soundless Sahara Ronald Victor Courtenay Bodley, 1968 Death in the Sahara Michael Asher, 2008-05-17 Desert explorer Michael Asher investigates the most disastrous exploration mission in the history of the Sahara In 1880 the French government ordered a surveying expedition for a railway that would bring the fabulous wealth of Timbuktu in French Sudan to Paris This trek should have heralded a new era of French prosperity Instead it was a deadly fiasco Under armed in hostile territory and foolishly employing the enemy as guides the one hundred men of the expedition were ambushed and stranded without camels or supplies in the deserts of southern Algeria Many were killed outright and for four months the survivors were menaced by the Tuareg the lords of the desert robbed starved and tricked into eating poisoned fruit To escape the men hid in the wastelands of the Sahara with little hope of finding food or water They were finally forced to eat their own dead or worse the merely weak Only a dozen malnourished men lived to tell their tale The story of their 1 000 mile journey is one of the most astonishing narratives of survival ever recorded With a superb grip of narrative and uncanny ability to evoke battle scenes The Guardian Michael Asher has written an amazing true story that is as dramatic as it is frightening Skyhorse Publishing as well as our Arcade imprint are proud to publish a broad range of books for readers interested in history books about World War II the Third Reich Hitler and his henchmen the JFK assassination conspiracies the American Civil War the American Revolution gladiators Vikings ancient Rome medieval times the old West and much more While not every title we publish becomes a New York Times bestseller or a national bestseller we are committed to books on subjects that are sometimes overlooked and to authors whose work might not otherwise find a home The Sword and the Cross Fergus Fleming, 2007-12-01 A searing story of France's attempt to colonize the vast Sahara desert and of two unforgettable men who dedicated their lives to the effort Rob Mitchell The Boston Herald Whether writing of the Alps the high seas or the North Pole Fergus Fleming has won acclaim as one of today's most vivid and engaging historians of adventure and exploration The Sword and the Cross takes us to the Sahara at the end of the nineteenth century when France had designs on a hostile wilderness dominated by deadly Tuareg nomads Two fanatical adventurers Charles de Foucauld and Henri Laperrine rose to the cause of their country's national honor Abandoning his decadent lifestyle as a sensualist and womanizer Foucauld founded a monastic order so severe that during his lifetime it never had a membership of more than one Yet he remained a committed imperialist and from his remote hermitage continued to assist the military The stern career soldier Laperrine meanwhile founded a camel corps whose exploits became legendary During World War I the Sahara's fragile peace crumbled In the desert mountains Foucauld paid a tragic price for his role as imperial pawn Laperrine by then recalled to the Western Front returned to avenge his friend Fleming captures the hopelessness of the French efforts to conquer the Saharan expanse Provides a vital lesson about the limits of power Zachary Karabell Los Angeles Times The Cosmopolitan, 1904
