[With] General index, January 1831-October 1844 Edward Robinson,1848 Merleau-Ponty in Contemporary Context Douglas Low,2017-09-08 This volume presents the work of Maurice Merleau Ponty a great philosopher and social theorist of mid twentieth century as a viable alternative to both modernism and postmodernism Douglas Low argues that Merleau Ponty s philosophy offers explanations and solves problems that other philosophies grapple with but do not resolve given their respective theoretical presuppositions and assumptions Low brings the work of Merleau Ponty into critical contact with important thinkers including Sartre Heidegger Derrida and Marx He highlights Merleau Ponty s connection to the early Hegel especially with regard to the criticism of modernism s representational consciousness and its subsequent skepticism with regard to our being in the world Merleau Ponty made a concerted effort to solve the problems that come about due to a wide variety of Western dualisms body and mind perception and conception self and other etc He frequently does so by demonstrating the connection between these disparate terms the connection of perception with affect and interest fact with value and a broadened view of science with moral and philosophical judgment Merleau Ponty s unique contribution is his focus on the lived through perceiving body and its relationship to abstract thought and language In his detailed analysis of the work of Merleau Ponty Low brings attention to a twentieth century master capable of altering the landscape of modern and social philosophy in the twenty first century

The Order of Sounds Francois J. Bonnet,2016-04-01 This study of the subtlety complexity and variety of modes of hearing maps out a sonorous archipelago a heterogeneous set of shifting sonic territories shaped by the vicissitudes of desire and discourse Profoundly intimate yet immediately giving onto distant spaces both an organ of fear and an echo chamber of anticipated pleasures an uncontrollable flow subject to unconscious selection and augmentation the subtlety complexity and variety of modes of hearing has meant that sound has rarely received the same philosophical attention as the visual In The Order of Sounds Fran ois J Bonnet makes a compelling case for the irreducible heterogeneity of sound navigating between the physical models constructed by psychophysics and refined through recording technologies and the synthetic production of what is heard From primitive vigilance and sonic mythologies to digital sampling and sound installations he examines the ways in which we make sound speak to us in an analysis of listening as a plurivocal phenomenon drawing on Foucault Deleuze and Guattari Barthes Nancy Adorno and de Certeau and experimental pioneers such as Tesla Bell and Raudive Stringent critiques of the soundscape and reduced listening demonstrate that univocal ontologies of sound are always partial and politicized for listening is always a selective fetishism a hallucination of sound filtered by desire and convention territorialized by discourse and its authorities Bonnet proposes neither a disciplined listening that targets sound itself nor an ocean of sound in which we might lose ourselves but instead maps out a sonorous archipelago a heterogeneous set of shifting sonic territories shaped and aggregated by the vicissitudes of desire and discourse

The Review of Reviews William Thomas Stead,1892 Sound Design is the New Score Danijela Kulezic-Wilson,2020 The practice of blurring the line between score and sound design has transformed contemporary film soundscape by challenging not only the long established hierarchical relationships between dialogue music and sound effects but also the modes of perception shaped by classical soundtrack practices The methods of this new trend rely on the language of contemporary popular and art music producing soundtracks in which it is difficult to tell the difference between score and ambient sound where pieces of electroacoustic music are merged with diegetic sound sound effects are absorbed into the score or treated as music and diegetic sound is treated as musique concr ète In Sound Design is the New Score Kulezic Wilson explores theoretical aesthetic and sensuous dimensions of this new trend providing a multifaceted portrait of a practice which recognizes the interconnectedness of all soundtrack elements and emphasizes their inherent musicality The aesthetic concerns of this practice are illuminated through the concept of the aesthetics of reticence which rejects classical narrative and scoring conventions and uses integrated soundtrack strategies to create the space for mystery in art and for individuality in the cinematic experience The book s emphasis on sensuous and musical aspects of this practice informed by the feminist discourse on the erotics of art challenges popular notions about sensory cinema demonstrating that the sensuousness of film form and its soundscapes is more sophisticated than simply being the result of excessive sensory stimulation facilitated by the use of digital technology or the intensified aesthetics it inspires The discussion is supported by a wide range of case studies from American Independent Asian Australian and European cinemas including films by Shane Carruth Claire Denis Hou Hsiao Hsien Harmony Korine David Mich èd Gus Van Sant and Peter Strickland Sound Waves ,1928
