Sourcebook For Teachers On Writing:

The Writing Teacher's Sourcebook Edward P. J. Corbett, Nancy Myers, Gary Tate, 2000 Now in its fourth edition this widely acclaimed sourcebook remains one of the most up to date and inclusive works on teaching writing today In this edition the editors have added twelve new essays and deleted several from the previous edition making the content as timely as possible Emphasizing the importance of adapting good pedagogy to multiple environments and audiences this unique collection features some of the most intellectually exciting and pedagogically sound articles in the field The Writing Teacher's Sourcebook 4 e is the definitive resource for beginning and experienced teachers alike The Writing Teacher's Sourcebook Gary Tate, 1994 Revised and updated this guide to the teaching of composition includes a new section of sources listing journals books and other bibliographic resources A Sourcebook for Basic Writing Teachers Theresa Research Writing Revisited Pavel Zemliansky, Wendy Bishop, 2004 The time has come to brush the dust off Enos, 1987 research writing pedagogy and reimagine it into the twenty first century classroom with fresh approaches that breathe life Teaching Writing as a Process Thomas N. into both the papers themselves and the instruction that supports them Kluwin, Kate Tobin, Gallaudet Research Institute (Washington, D.C.), 1989 Those who Do, Can Robert L. Root, Michael Steinberg, 1996 A writing instructor's handbook emphasizing the pedagogical necessity for teachers to practice their craft in conjunction with teaching it Based on a series of workshops held in Traverse Bay Michigan the volume features exercises and examples to prompt the creative writing process wiring the experiences to classroom application and suggesting practical approaches to subject matter content grammar and integrating media into the writing instruction mix Lacks an index Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR The Allyn & Bacon Sourcebook for College Writing Teachers James C. McDonald, 2000 Designed for college writing teachers who are faced with teaching composition for the first time or re examining their teaching goals and methods The Allyn Bacon Sourcebook for College Writing Teachers is a collection of writings on important theories and pedagogies in composition studies The selections discuss a range of theories and approaches to teaching writing and present readers with a number of options for instruction rather than a single way to teach Written by some of today s foremost scholars and teachers the articles range from discussing how to integrate critical thinking and reading into writing instruction to methods for responding to and evaluating student writing to dealing with grammar and editing For those who teach writing Writing, Teaching, Learning Richard Layton Graves, 1999 More than a sourcebook Writing Teaching Learning is a celebration of the writing teaching process reflecting the best writing about the teaching of writing published within the last ten years Feeling Our Way Wendy Bishop, Deborah Coxwell Teague, 2004-03 This provocative and sometimes humorous collection of essays written by college writing teachers for college writing teachers explores seldom discussed issues to help TAs develop confidence in overcoming classroom challenges Teachers both seasoned and new to the profession create a dialogue by sharing their rich and varied experiences and responses to classroom and department situations Each Part presents 4 to 7 short essays by Adjuncts and TAs focusing on their experiences and lessons learned At the end of each Part more experienced teachers respond to the ideas generated in the preceding essays and add their own advice concerns and solutions Part 1 Approaching the Classroomcenters on entering a new writing program and succeeding as a foreign born writing teacher Part 2 Inside Outfocuses on gaining confidence as a teacher and managing sexual politics and power struggles in the classroom Part 3 Beyond the Classroomhelps readers question the teaching profession and offers advice on surviving department politics An Appendix provides a useful listing of composition texts that offer further helpful advice A Sourcebook for Responding to Student Writing Richard Straub, 1999 A Sourcebook for Responding to Student Writing is a resource for writing teachers It provides a range of teacher comments on a sampling of college student papers and an anthology of key statements on theory and practice of responding to student writing Specifically the book presents twenty five sets of responses made on a sampling of five student papers including expressive explanatory evaluative and argumentative writing comments by a variety of teachers both well recognized composition scholars who have contributed to the research on teacher response and college English teachers whose primary area of study is outside composition two additional essays without accompanying teacher comments for further practice a detailed bibliography on teacher response a collection of noted articles on reading evaluating and responding to student writing Free of analysis and apparatus the book may be used by teachers in their own ways according to their own assumptions predilections and goals to develop better ways of responding to student writing From cover The Harcourt Brace Sourcebook for Teachers of Writing Patricia Roberts, 1997-12-01 Disability and the Teaching of Writing Cynthia Lewiecki-Wilson, Brenda Jo Brueggemann, 2007-03-23 Disability and the Teaching of Writing brings together both ground breaking new work and important foundational texts at the intersection of disability and composition studies With practical suggestions for applying concepts to the classroom this sourcebook helps instructors understand the issues involved in not only teaching students with disabilities but in teaching with and about disability as well The Writing Center Director's Resource Book Christina Murphy, Byron Stay, 2012-11-12 The Writing Center Director's Resource Book has been developed to serve as a guide to writing center professionals in carrying out their various roles duties and responsibilities It is a resource for those whose jobs not only encompass a wide range of tasks but also require a broad knowledge of multiple issues The volume provides information on the most significant areas of writing center work that writing center professionals both new and seasoned are likely to encounter It is structured for use in diverse institutional settings providing both current knowledge as well as case studies of specific settings that represent the types of challenges and possible outcomes writing center professionals may experience This blend of theory with actual practice provides a multi dimensional view of writing center work In the end this book serves not only as a resource but also as a guide to future directions for the writing center which will continue to evolve in response to a myriad of new challenges that will lie ahead Teaching Reading and Writing
