Sources Of Renewal The Fulfillment Of Vatican II:

Sources of Renewal Pope John Paul II, 1980 Vatican II and Phenomenology J.F. Kobler, 2012-12-06 The thesis of this essay may be stated quite briefly Vatican II is a demonstration model of the phenomenological method employed on an international scale It exemplifies the final developmental stage postulated by Husserl of an inter subjective phenomenology which would take its point of departure not from individual subjectivity but from transcendental intersubjectivity Vatican II accordingly offers a unique application of a universal transcendental philosophy in the field of religious reflection for the practical purposes of moral and socio cultural renewal Phenomenology as a distinctively European development is relatively unknown in America at least in its pure form Our contact with this style of intuitive reflection is usually filtered through psychology or sociology However Edmund Husserl The Father of Phenomenology was originally trained in mathematics and he entered the field of philosophy because he recognized that the theoretical foundations of modern science were disintegrating He foresaw that unless this situation were rectified modern men would eventually slip into an attitude of absolute scepticism relativism and pragmatism After the First World War he saw this theoretical problem mirrored more and more in the social turbulence of Europe and his thoughts turned to the need for a renewal at all levels of life In 1937 when Nazism was triumphant in Germany and Europe on the brink of World War II he wrote his last major work The Crisis of European Sciences and Transcendental Philosophy Ecce Educatrix Tua Danielle M. Peters, 2009-12 This book discusses the Apostolic Letter Novo millennio ineunte wherein John Paul II outlined the path the Church should adopt in the third millennium Peters highlights the Blessed Virgin Mary as educator from the teachings of John Paul II and Father Joseph Kentenich Source and Summit Joanne M. The Oxford Companion to Christian Thought Adrian Hastings, Alistair Mason, Hugh S. Pyper, 2000-12-21 Embracing the viewpoints of Catholic Protestant or Orthodox thinkers of conservatives liberals radicals and agnostics Christianity today is anything but monolithic or univocal In The Oxford Companion to Christian Thought general editor Adrian Hastings has tried to capture a sense of the great diversity of opinion that swirls about under the heading of Christian thought Indeed the 260 contributors who hail from twenty countries represent as wide a range of perspectives as possible Here is a comprehensive and authoritative though not dogmatic overview of the full spectrum of Christian thinking Within its 600 alphabetically arranged entries readers will find lengthy survey articles on the history of Christian thought on national and regional traditions and on various denominations from Anglican to Unitarian There is ample coverage of Eastern thought as well examining the Christian tradition in China Japan India and Africa The contributors examine major theological topics such as resurrection the Eucharist and grace as well as controversial issues such as homosexuality and abortion In addition short entries illuminate symbols such as water and wine and there are many profiles of leading theologians of non Christians who have deeply influenced Christian thinking including Aristotle and Plato and of literary figures such as Dante Milton and

Tolstoy Most articles end with a list of suggested readings and the book features a large number of cross references The Oxford Companion to Christian Thought is an indispensable guide to one of the central strands of Western culture An essential volume for all Christians it is a thoughtful gift for the holidays Sources of Renewal ,1979 Procreation and the Spousal Meaning of the Body Angel Perez-Lopez,2017-02-15 This book attempts to aid those who are serious about the study of Pope Saint John Paul II s theology of the body It is directed especially to those who teach it at both an academic and a parish level It offers them the necessary scholarly background to be able to faithfully present John Paul II s work understanding it with depth and in continuity with Saint Thomas Aquinas and the Second Vatican Council The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1984 An Introduction to Vatican II as an Ongoing Theological Event Matthew Levering,2017 Contemporary scholars often refer to the event of Vatican II but what kind of an event was it In this first book of the new CUA Press series Sacra Doctrina Matthew Levering leads his readers to see the Council as a theological event a period of confirming and continuing God s self revelation in Christ into a new historical era for the Church This is an introduction to Vatican II with a detailed summary of each of its four central documents the dogmatic constitutions followed by explanations of how to interpret them In contrast to other introductions which pay little attention to the theological soil in which the documents of Vatican II germinated Levering offers a reading of each conciliar Constitution in light of a key theological author from the era Ren Latourelle SJ for Dei Verbum persons and propositions Louis Bouyer CO for Sacrosanctum Concilium active participation Yves Congar OP for Lumen Gentium true and false reform and Henri de Lubac SJ for Gaudium et Spes nature and grace This theological event is ongoing Levering demonstrates by tracing in each chapter the theological debates that have stretched from the close of the council till the present and the difficulties the Church continues to encounter in encouraging an ever deeper participation in Jesus Christ on the part of all believers In this light the book s final chapter compares the historicist Massimo Faggioli and Christological Robert Imbelli interpretations of Vatican II arguing that historicism can undermine the Council s fundamental desire for a reform and renewal rooted in Christ The conclusion addresses the concerns about secularization and loss of faith raised after the Council by Henri de Lubac Joseph Ratzinger and Yves Congar arguing that contemporary Vatican II scholarship needs to take these concerns more seriously From Truth and truth Francis Etheredge,2016-04-26 The final book of this trilogy explores reason at work in the nature of faith cf Fides et Ratio 43 indeed although faith is of its nature different from reason faith cannot exist except through grace assisted reason Volume One briefly meditated on the metaphysics of meaning which entailed considering the intimate interrelationship of truth and existence In this volume however it becomes clear that there is an intrinsic complementarity in the very nature of created being a complementarity between the literal and spiritual sense of what exists Thus for example a seed is both what actually exists and at the same time it can adequately express the beginning of the supernatural life sown in the sacrament of Baptism This leads to an almost literary argument for there being a single cause of all creation in that there is an incredible coherence of meaning throughout the whole More specifically the book discusses various questions of a bioethical nature and more generally offers a radical investigation of the nature of man male and female for in a word the origin nature and action of the human person require constant reciprocal reflection Thus there are various essays on different aspects of man male and female ranging from a consideration of God expressing the mystery of the Blessed Trinity through our participation in His own Being to the transition from a Jewish to a Christian understanding of marriage to a marital spirituality Finally faith in action ranges from being open to life to pilgrimages as a family and the slow but real discovery that there is a radical nature to our salvation in Christ that even if natural truth leads inexorably to the trembling outreaches of reason there is nevertheless a gratuitous Revelation which comes to meet and develop the life of us all

Vatican II and Beyond Rosa Bruno-Jofré, Heidi MacDonald, Elizabeth M. Smyth, 2017-12-01 The year 2015 marked the fiftieth anniversary of the end of the Second Vatican Council which aimed to align the Church with the modern world Over the last five decades women religious have engaged with the council's reforms with unprecedented enthusiasm far exceeding the expectations of the Church Addressing how Canadian women religious envisioned and lived out the changes in religious life brought on by a pluralistic and secularizing world Vatican II and Beyond analyzes the national organization of female and male congregations the Canadian Religious Conference and the lives of two individual sisters visionary congregational leader Alice Trudeau and social justice activist Mary Alban This book focuses on the new transnational networks feminist concepts professionalization of religious life and complex political landscapes that emerged during this period of drastic transition as women religious sought to reconstruct identities redefine roles and signify vision and mission at both the personal and collective levels Following women religious as they encountered new meanings of faith in their congregations the Church and society at large Vatican II and Beyond demonstrates that the search for a renewed vision was not just a response to secularization but a way to be reborn as Catholic women Receptive Ecumenism and the Renewal of the Ecumenical

Movement Antonia Pizzey, 2019-05-15 Receptive Ecumenism is a ground breaking new ecumenical approach widely regarded as having the potential to revitalise the Ecumenical Movement But what is Receptive Ecumenism Why is it important In Receptive Ecumenism and the Renewal of the Ecumenical Movement Antonia Pizzey offers a comprehensive systematic analysis of Receptive Ecumenism While still emerging Receptive Ecumenism is highly promising because it prioritises the need for ecclesial conversion Pizzey explores the scope and complexity of Receptive Ecumenism providing much needed clarity on its aim key developmental influences and distinctiveness as well as its virtuous character and relationship with Spiritual Ecumenism The major implementations of Receptive Ecumenism to date are investigated along with its significance for the future of ecumenism especially regarding its engagement with contemporary challenges The 'One Thing' Is

Three Michael Gaitley, MIC, 2015-02-15 With humor and ease Fr Michael Gaitley MIC deftly unlocks the one thing the key to the Church's wisdom and the greatest mystery of the Catholic faith the Most Holy Trinity Far from being an academic read

The One Thing Is Three makes deep theology accessible to everyday Catholics Further it makes even what s familiar or forgotten new exciting and relevant

On Divine Revelation: The Teaching of the Catholic Faith Vol. One Fr. Reginald Garrigou-Lagrange, 2022-05-27 In On Divine Revelation one of Garrigou Lagrange s most significant works here available in English for the very first time he offers a classic treatment of this foundational topic It is an organized and thorough defense of both the rationality and supernaturality of divine revelation He presents a careful yet stimulating account of the scientific character of theology the nature of revelation itself mystery dogma the grace of faith the powers of human reason false interpretations thereof rationalism naturalism agnosticism and pantheism the motives of credibility and much more Though written a century ago On Divine Revelation will restore confidence in theology as a distinct and unified science and return focus to the fundamental questions of the doctrine of revelation It also serves as a salutary corrective to contemporary theology s anthropocentrism and concern with what is relative in revelation and religious experience by reorienting our theological attention to what is most certain central and sure in our knowledge of divine revelation the Triune God who has revealed his inner life and salvific will Readers will see the great splendor of the gift of divine revelation radiant with credibility before the gaze of reason and drawing our supernatural assent to the mysteries through the gift of faith As Fr Cajetan Cuddy O P observes On Divine Revelation is a stunning work of inestimable value No other subsequent work on this topic has come close to meeting it much less surpassing it

Berkouwer and Catholicism Eduardo Echeverria, 2013-04-28 Gerrit Cornelis Berkouwer 1903 1996 was a great master of dogmatic and ecumenical theology He was a Reformed Protestant thinker with roots in Dutch neo Calvinism a holder of the Chair in Dogmatics 1945 1974 at the Free University Amsterdam a position previously held by his two illustrious neo Calvinist predecessors Abraham Kuyper 1837 1920 and Herman Bavinck 1854 1921 Echeverria provides a much needed in depth analysis and critique of his theology particularly his evolving relationship with Catholicism in light of Vatican II His contention is that Berkouwer s careful and nuanced examination of Catholic theology as well as possible responses to his critiques offers important clues for the contemporary ecumenical project

Report on the Church Richard P. McBrien, 2014-04-15 Richard P McBrien remains a leading spokesman for the reform movement within the Catholic church a constituency that includes many of the fifty million Catholics in the United States In this vital and wide ranging collection spanning nearly thirty years of writing since Vatican II sparked changes in the Church McBrien speaks to the most controversial issues in the Roman Catholic church today issues of concern to millions of people Catholic and non Catholic alike authority the ordination of women marriage for the priesthood birth control abortion the legacy of Vatican II women in the church the church s role in society and politics ecumenism personalities and popes and the future of the church The post conciliar Church shows signs of vibrancy and malaise alike writes McBrien It is marked at the same time by uncertainty demoralization conflict and alienation on the one hand and by a remarkable liturgical ministerial and spiritual renewal on the other As Charles Dickens put it at the beginning of A Tale of

Two Cities it is for the Church the best of times and the worst of times Incisive and always candid McBrien addresses almost every major issue event need and dispute to have affected the Church in the last three decades In clear straightforward language Report on the Church presents a fascinating and provocative exploration of the modern Church and its effects on the world around it Preaching with Their Lives Margaret M. McGuinness, Jeffrey M. Burns, 2020-11-03 This volume tells the little known story of the Dominican Family priests sisters brothers contemplative nuns and lay people and integrates it into the history of the United States Starting after the Civil War the book takes a thematic approach through twelve essays examining Dominican contributions to the making of the modern United States by exploring parish ministry preaching health care education social and economic justice liturgical renewal and the arts missionary outreach and contemplative prayer ongoing internal formation and renewal and models of sanctity It charts the effects of the United States on Dominican life as well as the Dominican contribution to the larger U S history When the country was engulfed by wave after wave of immigrants and cities experienced unchecked growth Dominicans provided educational institutions community social and religious centers and health care and social services When epidemic disease hit various locales Dominicans responded with nursing care and spiritual sustenance As the United States became more complex and social inequities appeared Dominicans cried out for social and economic justice Amidst the ugliness and social dislocation of modern society Dominicans offered beauty through the liturgical arts the fine arts music drama and film all designed to enrich the culture Through it all the Dominicans cultivated their own identity as well undergoing regular self examination and renewal Humanae Vitae, a Generation Later Janet E Smith, 1991 Janet E Smith presents a comprehensive review of this issue from a philosophical and theological perspective Tracing the emergence of the debate from the mid 1960s and reviewing the documents from the Special Papal Commission established to advise Pope Paul VI Smith also examines the Catholic Church's position on marriage which provides context for its condemnation of contraception The Genius of John Paul II Richard A. Spinello, 2006-11-08 In this exciting new book renowned ethicist Richard Spinello offers the first comprehensive presentation of the late John Paul II's great moral vision Here admirers may read and understand the essential teachings of the pope in his own words as Spinello draws on his extensive research into John Paul II's writings and talks Subjects covered include reverence for life concern for the poor and suffering moral law conscience moral choice intrinsically evil acts freedom and goodness The purpose of this book is two fold it not only persuasively presents the late pope's vital teachings but also defends them against his critics This important new work preserves and promotes the extraordinary legacy of John Paul II by focusing on his championing of universal human dignity and objective moral truths
