Thobani,2017-03-27 Previous studies have analysed Indian classical dance as an expression of Indian religious and nationalist culture examining the art form solely in the context of Indian history and culture In investigating performances of Indian classical dance in the UK it is possible to argue that classical Indian dance has become a key aspect of the mutual constitution of not only postcolonial Indian and South Asia diasporic identities but also of British multicultural and transnational identity This book explores what happens when national cultural production is reproduced outside the immediate social political and cultural context of its construction Peninsular Southeast Asia Army Library (U.S.),1972

Constructing a Security Community in Southeast Asia Amitav Acharya,2014-03-26 In this third edition of Constructing a Security Community in Southeast Asia Amitav Acharya offers a comprehensive and critical account of the evolution of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN norms and the viability of the ASEAN way of conflict management Building on the framework from the first edition which inspired the establishment of the ASEAN Political Security community this new edition has been extensively updated and revised based on new primary sources that are not publicly available Updates for this edition include Expanded and updated coverage of the South China Sea Conflict and how it affects regional order and tests ASEAN unity Analysis of new developments in the US role in the region including ASEAN s place and role in the US pivot rebalancing strategy and the evolution of the East Asian Community the newest summit level multilateral group Extensive analysis of the ASEAN Political Security community An examination of US China relations and China ASEAN relations Coverage of ASEAN s institutional development and the controversy over reform of the ASEAN Secretariat An updated outlook on ASEAN s future as a security community and the issue of ASEAN Centrality in the regional security architecture The new edition will continue to appeal to students and scholars of Asian security international relations theory and Southeast Asian studies as well as policymakers and the media Changing Identities of the Southeast Asian Chinese Since World War II Jennifer Cushman, Gungwu Wang, 1988-11-01 In June 1985 a symposium Changing Identities of the Southeast Asian Chinese since World War II was held at the Australian National University in Canberra This volume includes many of the papers from that symposium presented by ANU scholars and those from universities elsewhere in Australia North America and Southeast Asia Participants looked at the current thinking about the parameters of identity and shared their own research into the complex issues that overlapping categories of identity raise Identity was chosen as the focus of the symposium because perceptions of self whether by others or by the individual Chinese concerned appear to lie at the heart of the present day Chinese experience in Southeast Asia It is also evident that identity wears many guises and that we cannot talk about a single Chinese identity when identity can be determined by the different political social economic or religious circumstances an individual faces at any given time One of the distinctive characteristics of all the essays in this volume is that they are written from an historical perspective While the papers focus on how recent developments in Southeast Asian society have shaped Chinese identity they also discuss those changes in terms of the historical matrix from which they developed Because many of the essays in this volume combine an historical overview with more recent statistical data it should serve as a useful companion to the increasingly popular case studies in which much of the writing about the Chinese in Southeast Asia is now cast Grants and Awards for Fiscal Year...
