Thomas Griffiths

South Africa 1948 1994:

Switzerland and South Africa 1948-1994 Georg Kreis, 2007 While other states imposed economic sanctions on the apartheid regime of South Africa Swiss authorities long adhered to the position that South Africa is a state like any other Swiss big business corporations saw an attractive trade partner in South Africa in part they also profited from the boycotts of others Additionally some political forces sympathised openly with the regime in Pretoria Encouraged by the debate concerning Swiss policy and activity during the Second World War in 1997 the order was given to initiate a historical study of Swiss behaviour towards the apartheid regime Thus this report commissioned by the Swiss parliament and the Federal Council and passed over to the Swiss National Science Foundation for execution came into being It unites the results of ten different research projects The report identifies the most important players involved in fashioning relations with South Africa it explains the legal situation in which these persons acted and it describes the thought processes that led to the actions The longest chapter deals with the attitudes and the areas of activity in the economic sector Here the trade with loans gold diamonds and war materials is paramount Other chapters are concerned with questions that are not primarily economic in nature such as political declarations the illusion of being in the role of a mediator contacts in sports and culture and after 1986 the beginning of support for the black majority

Apartheid, 1948-1994 Saul Dubow, 2014-05-23 This new study offers a fresh interpretation of apartheid South Africa Emerging out of the author's long standing interests in the history of racial segregation and drawing on a great deal of new scholarship archival collections and personal memoirs he situates apartheid in global as well as local contexts The overall conception of Apartheid 1948 1994 is to integrate studies of resistance with the analysis of power paying attention to the importance of ideas institutions and culture Saul Dubow refamiliarises and defamiliarise apartheid so as to approach South Africa's white supremacist past from unlikely perspectives He asks not only why apartheid was defeated but how it survived so long He neither presumes the rise of apartheid nor its demise This synoptic reinterpretation is designed to introduce students to apartheid and to generate new questions for experts in the field

The History of Education Under Apartheid, 1948-1994 Peter Kallaway, 2002 South Africa 1948-1994 Rosemary Mulholland, 1997-08-28 This book focuses on the struggle for political and social freedom by the black majority in South Africa The book begins with an account of the origins of racism segregation and republicanism before 1948 It then concentrates on the history of South Africa following the establishment of the apartheid regime Topics include apartheid in practice the emergence of protest movements the Sharpeville massacre the pressures for change and the end of apartheid culminating in Nelson Mandela's appointment as president This highly illustrated text is based around lead questions and activities provides essential knowledge through background briefings encourages analysis of the issues through investigations contains review sections to aid clarity and allow students opportunities for revision

Heydenrych,2022-04-18 South Africa s democracy faces increasing challenges from within whether from protest bad governance or general public dissatisfaction South Africa s Democracy at the Crossroads explores the question what are the challenges to future democratization in South Africa Foreign Political Engagement D. Geldenhuys,2016-07-27 The 1990s have witnessed several major external initiatives to reshape the domestic political arrangements of countries Because these have been collective foreign ventures usually with the active collaboration of the target countries the term intervention is ill suited Instead Deon Geldenhuys introduces the notion of foreign political engagement to describe international attempts at remaking countries in the image of the West South Africa Kenya Somalia Russia Cambodia El Salvador and Haiti serve as case studies to demonstrate this important theoretical rethinking of international relations today Rough Diamonds Hendrik Snyders,2025-08-22 Starting in the late 19th century South African baseball has established a fascinating and multi layered history Initially established by a small group of dedicated pioneers the sport benefited from the contributions of a diverse and multi national group of enthusiasts and opponents including sailors cricketers missionaries activists businessmen and bureaucrats Established at a time of social and political segregation the South African game eventually developed into a system of legislated racism under apartheid Through its willing participation in official race based events the sport was stripped of its innocence and South Africa was formally expelled from the world game only to be readmitted in 1992 following the country s slow transition to democracy This book presents the history of South African baseball from its inception to its liberation from apartheid Based on extensive archival research this is the first integrated history of South African baseball s eventful past Taking Care of the Future Oliver Pattenden,2018-03-06 Taking Care of the Future examines the moral dimensions and transformative capacities of education and humanitarianism through an intimate portrayal of learners volunteers donors and educators at a special needs school in South Africa and a partnering UK based charity Drawing on his professional experience of inclusive education in London Oliver Pattenden investigates how systems of schooling regularly exclude and mishandle marginalized populations particularly exploring how street kids and poverty afflicted young South Africans experience these dynamics as they attempt to fashion their futures By unpacking the ethical terrains of fundraising voluntourism Christian benevolence human rights colonial legacies and the post apartheid transition Pattenden analyzes how political economic and social aspects of intervention materialize to transform the lives of all those involved ,

Comparing Peace Processes Alpaslan Özerdem,Roger Mac Ginty,2019-03-18 This book offers a comparative survey of 18 contemporary peace processes conducted by leading international scholars There is no standard model of peace processes and all will vary according to the context type of conflict timing national and global economic climate and factors like natural disasters Therefore making comparisons between peace processes is difficult but it is beneficial indeed imperative and is the principal motivation behind this volume What works in one context may not work in another but it can be modified and adapted to fit another context The book is structured to maximise comparison between processes and the case studies chosen are topical and span the major regions of the world The concluding chapter systematically compares the case studies around 11 variables that cover the conflict context peace process procedures the responsiveness of the peace process to demands and levels of participation and inclusion Each peace process is then given a numeric score according to each of these variables and the book thereby reaches judgements on whether each case can be termed a success or a failure This book will be essential reading for students of peace studies conflict resolution war and conflict studies security studies and IR

Law and Religion, An Overview Silvio Ferrari, 2017-07-05 The focus of this volume is on the historical and geographical elements of law and religion The first part delineates and analyzes the relation between church and state from the Gregorian Revolution to the human rights era and gives a sense of the evolution of the church and state relationship whilst the second part explores law and religion issues around the world The volume redresses the tendency towards a western centric approach in the discipline by including essays from regional experts which present local approaches to law and religion in Asia Africa and South America The collection is unique in that it brings together wide ranging case studies and out of print papers and is an important resource for established and new scholars in the field Language Conflict and Language Rights

William D. Davies, Stanley Dubinsky, 2018-08-09 An overview of language rights issues and language conflicts with detailed examination of many cases past and present around the world The Man Who Killed Apartheid: The Life of Dimitri

Tsafendas Harris Dousemetzis, 2024-03-04 On 6 September 1966 inside the House of Assembly in Cape Town Dimitri Tsafendas stabbed to death Hendrik Verwoerd South Africa's Prime Minister and so called architect of apartheid Tsafendas was immediately arrested and before he had even been questioned by the authorities they declared him a madman without any political motive for the killing In the Cape Supreme Court Tsafendas was found unfit to stand trial on the grounds that he suffered from schizophrenia and that he had no political motive for killing Verwoerd Tsafendas spent the next 28 years in custody making him the longest serving detainee in South African history For most of his incarnation he was subjected to cruel and inhumane treatment by the prison authorities From 2009 to 2018 Harris Dousemetzis extensively researched the assassination of Verwoerd and the life of Tsafendas For this research he travelled to South Africa Mozambique Greece France and Turkey and interviewed about 150 people who either knew Tsafendas or Verwoerd or were involved with the case of the assassination He discovered about 12 000 pages of documents on the case most of them previously unpublished in archival collections in South Africa Portugal and the UK Dousemetzis collaborated with prominent South African jurists psychiatrists and psychologists and concluded his research by writing the Report to the Minister of Justice in the Matter of Dr Verwoerd's Assassination The report conclusively proved that Tsafendas had assassinated Verwoerd for political reasons and that the apartheid authorities had orchestrated a massive operation to declare him insane and apolitical This groundbreaking report and this book corrected the historical record regarding Verwoerd's assassination and Tsafendas The Man Who Killed Apartheid based on Dousemetzis's groundbreaking research chronicles in detail Tsafendas's life and conclusively demonstrates that he was a perfectly sane and deeply political person with a long history of political activism At the same time the book exposes the lie at the heart of apartheid s posture on the assassination of Hendrik Verwoerd and provides a rare picture of how the racist regime operated and what it was like to live and die under apartheid Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress,2006 Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress. Cataloging Policy and Support Office,2006 America's Foreign Policy Toolkit: Key Institutions and Processes Charles A. Stevenson,2013 How is foreign policy in the United States really crafted In America s Foreign Policy Toolkit Charles A Stevenson identifies what the key foreign policy tools are which are best for which tasks and what factors constrain or push how they re used bringing fresh insight into the challenges facing national security decisionmakers Engagingly written with examples drawn from behind the scenes Stevenson brings depth and dimension to the institutions and processes of foreign policy This brief text looks first at the historical context and then in turn at the tools available to the president and congress and to the shared budgetary tools The following section surveys each of the diplomatic economic military intelligence homeland security and international institutions instruments The book concludes by considering the limitations of the U S toolkit Each chapter ends with a case study that connects the theory of the toolkit with the realities of decisionmaking Religion and Law in South Africa Charles Maimela,2019-05-15 Derived from the renowned multi volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this convenient resource provides systematic information on how South Africa deals with the role religion plays or can play in society the legal status of religious communities and institutions and the legal interaction among religion culture education and media After a general introduction describing the social and historical background the book goes on to explain the legal framework in which religion is approached Coverage proceeds from the principle of religious freedom through the rights and contractual obligations of religious communities international transnational and regional law effects and the legal parameters affecting the influence of religion in politics and public life Also covered are legal positions on religion in such specific fields as church financing labour and employment and matrimonial and family law A clear and comprehensive overview of relevant legislation and legal doctrine make the book an invaluable reference source and very useful guide Succinct and practical this book will prove to be of great value to practitioners in the myriad instances where a law related religious interest arises in South Africa Academics and researchers will appreciate its value as a thorough but concise treatment of the legal aspects of diversity and multiculturalism in which religion plays such an important part Global white nationalism Daniel Geary,Camilla Schofield,Jennifer Sutton,2020-09-15 This book offers the first transnational history of white nationalism in Britain the US and the formerly British colonies of Rhodesia South Africa and Australia from the post World War II period to the present It situates contemporary white nationalism in the Anglosphere within the context of major global events since 1945 White nationalism it argues became more global in reaction to the forces of decolonisation civil rights mass migration and the rise of international institutions In this period assumptions of white supremacy that had been widely held by whites throughout the world were challenged and reformulated as western elites professed a commitment to colour blind ideals The decline in legitimacy of overtly racist political expression produced international alliances among white supremacists and new claims of populist legitimation

The Experience of Economic Redistribution Clarence Tshitereke, 2006-10-09 This book provides an analysis of the country's political economy in transition It documents the history of the gold mining industry's involvement in shaping the political landscape of South Africa and shows the degree to which the political transition was induced to put in place a new mode of regulation for capital accumulation In the process the victims of apartheid have now become victims of democracy's neo liberalism as the government is constrained from being developmental interventionist and redistributive

Peace Agreements and Human Rights Christine Bell, 2003 This work examines human rights provisions in peace agreements and through them the role of human rights protection in peace processes
