Rumney, 2010-04-07 In The Geography of Southeast Asia Rumney discusses an area that has long been of interest to geographers and other academics As interest in Southeast Asia has grown particularly over the past forty years the volume and variety of scholarly publications on the varied geographical aspects of the region have also increased This collection is an attempt to identify organize and present as many of these works as possible The region as a whole and each individual country of the area are covered in individual chapters Each chapter is further systematically organized by topic including general works cultural social geography economic geography historical geography physical geography political geography and urban geography This book presents a myriad of sources such as atlases books chapters articles dissertations and theses are included as well as works written in English French German and other languages providing the reader with a thorough view of Southeast Asian geography

Southeast Asian Culture and Heritage in a Globalising World Ooi Giok Ling, Assoc Prof Rahil Ismail, Dr Brian J Shaw, 2012-11-28 Southeast Asia has in recent years become a crossroads of cultures with high levels of ethnic pluralism not only between countries sub regions and urban areas but also at the local levels of community and neighbourhood Illustrated by a series of international case studies this book demonstrates how the forces of post colonialism in their various manifestations are accelerating social change and creating new and imagined communities some of which are potentially disruptive and which may well threaten the longer term sustainability of the region Interdisciplinary in approach this book brings together geographers historians anthropologists architects education specialists planners and sociologists to make connections and new insights and to provide a truly comprehensive view of heritage culture and identity in this dynamic region

Southeast Asia Transformed Chia Lin Sien, 2003 Southeast Asia with a total population of 520 million remains a region characterized by fragmentation diversity and considerable internal conflict despite the unifying influence of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN formed some thirty five years ago In the new millennium it has lost the distinction of being one of the worlds faster growing group of economies since the 1997 financial crisis While it has benefited from the winds of globalization it has now to cope with the painful adjustments to problems that stem from the inadequacies of good governance and structural changes

The Changing Face of Management in South East Asia Chris Rowley, Saaidah Abdul-Rahman, 2007-12-19 South East Asia has undergone important economic social and political developments in the last decade The emergence of China as Asia s largest pool of cheap labour has resulted in remarkable changes in the volume of foreign direct investment it commands while the 1997 Asian Financial Crisis has undoubtedly influenced managerial practices in the majority of the countries in the region In response South East Asian governments and businesses have sought ways of attracting new investors while intensifying their efforts to retain existing industries This important new volume overviews the development of South East Asian management practices focusing on human resource management HRM as an indicator and measure of change Written by prominent scholars of the region the book focuses on reform in the human resource HR managerial domain documenting recent changes and assessing current practices from both macro and micro perspectives A consistent structure and content is used throughout with each chapter incorporating real life local organizational and manager case studies plus vignettes to give voice to practitioners and developments This is essential reading for anybody with an interest in management HR or the political social cultural and economic profiles of the countries of South East Asia Diversity for Development International Plant Genetic Resources Institute,1999 The Far East and Australasia 2003 Europa Publications,2002 A unique survey of each country in the region It includes an extensive collection of facts statistics analysis and directory information in one accessible volume Rethinking Environmental Management in the Pacific Rim Amrita Daniere,Lois.
