Oscan in Southern Italy and Sicily Katherine McDonald,2015-10-01 In pre Roman Italy and Sicily dozens of languages and writing systems competed and interacted and bilingualism was the norm Using frameworks from epigraphy archaeology and the sociolinguistics of language contact this book explores the relationship between Greek and Oscan two of the most widely spoken languages in the south of the peninsula Dr McDonald undertakes a new analysis of the entire corpus of South Oscan texts written in Lucania Bruttium and Messana including dedications curse tablets laws funerary texts and graffiti She demonstrates that genre and domain are critical to understanding where and when Greek was used within Oscan speaking communities and how ancient bilinguals exploited the social meaning of their languages in their writing This book also offers a cutting edge example of how to build the fullest possible picture of bilingualism in fragmentary languages across the ancient world A Handbook for Travellers in Southern Italy ... However his much greater aspiration is that others will equally enjoy the story of Montenero as a metaphor of their own ancestral village or town regardless of country or even see the village as a microcosm of the world where the forces of history and culture forge the character of people
