Souvenirs Michael Hitchcock, Ken Teague, 2019-09-16 This title was first published in 2000 Souvenirs broadly conceived are generally thought to be the material counterpart of travels events relationships and memories of all kinds The material items classed as souvenirs discussed in this text have memorial functions usually connected with the owner s travels But not all of the items are souvenirs of tourism they are also souvenirs of other past phenomena such as political events suffragettes colonial history India former artistic pre eminence Awaji Ningyo puppetry or former ways of life South American ceramic archaisms The authors do not necessarily focus on material souvenirs in their memorial function as prompters of memory They also use their case studies as starting points for the discussion of many interesting contemporary phenomena such as cottage industries for economic development in Mexico and Ainu as devices to invigorate or maintain artistic practices as emblems of cultural conformity Surrealists or as symbolic weapons in national and international political arguments A key focus of many of the chapters is the question of meaning what is the meaning of any particular souvenir or collection and for whom does it bear that meaning

Transformative Travel in a Mobile World Garth Lean, 2015-12-23 This book presents the re theorisation of travel and transformation It explores the factors that influence the behaviours of a traveller how these become entwined in experiences and how travel experiences continue on a traveller s return It uses the notion of transformation to redevelop the temporal and spatial boundaries of physical travel develop a model for unpacking transformation and to look at new methods in the exploration of travel research

Nature Fancywork Andrea Kolasinski Marcinkus, 2008 Information Technology & Tourism , 2000 Souvenirs Michael Hitchcock, Ken Teague, University of North London, 2000 Souvenirs are integral to the material culture of identity and memory and are subject to reinterpretation and re evaluation This book examines the production consumption and perception of souvenirs addresses contemporary business and developmental themes and explores the resurgence of handcrafted products in the context of the information super highway The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2002 Indianapolis Monthly , 2001-12

Indianapolis Monthly is the Circle City s essential chronicle and guide an indispensable authority on what s new and what s news Through coverage of politics crime dining style business sports and arts and entertainment each issue offers compelling narrative stories and lively urbane coverage of Indy s cultural landscape Acadiensis , 2002 Souvenirs Michael

Hitchcock, Ken Teague, 2019-03-06 This title was first published in 2000 Souvenirs broadly conceived are generally thought to be the material counterpart of travels events relationships and memories of all kinds The material items classed as souvenirs discussed in this text have memorial functions usually connected with the owner s travels But not all of the items are souvenirs of tourism they are also souvenirs of other past phenomena such as political events suffragettes colonial history India former artistic pre eminence Awaji Ningyo puppetry or former ways of life South American ceramic archaisms The authors do not necessarily focus on material souvenirs in their memorial function as prompters of memory They also use their case studies as starting points for the discussion of many interesting contemporary phenomena such as cottage industries for economic development in Mexico and Ainu as devices to invigorate or maintain artistic practices as emblems of cultural conformity Surrealists or as symbolic weapons in national and international political arguments A key focus of many of the chapters is the question of meaning what is the meaning of any particular souvenir or collection and for whom does it bear that meaning

Tourism Art and Souvenirs David Hume, 2013-10-01 This book examines the relationship between art and tourism through the study of the material culture of tourism tourist art and souvenirs It thoroughly examines how to categorise the material culture of tourism within the discourses of contemporary art and cultural anthropology and demonstrates that tourist art is a unique expression of place and genuine artistic style The first investigation to consider the activity of souvenirs from both indigenous and settler tourist sites it brings a unique addition to the existing dated research in the area Working initially from Graburn's definition of tourist art as the art of one culture made specifically for the consumption of another Tourism Art and Souvenirs sheds light on important aspects of the souvenir that have not been widely discussed The most recent research is used to consider how the souvenir is designed and consumed consumer expectations and influence on the character of the souvenir how the souvenir maker is consumed by the tradition of heritage and how products become successful as souvenirs The title also investigates the language involved in the representation of place and the recording of experience through the souvenir developing a method that expresses the descriptive data of individual souvenir artefacts graphically so the patterns of language may be analysed Enhancing the understanding of material culture in tourism and therefore adding to future tourism development this volume will be of interest to upper level students researchers and academics in tourism culture heritage and sustainability

Tourism and Souvenirs Jenny Cave, Lee Jolliffe, Tom Baum, 2013-07-04 Souvenirs are part of global and local travel and tourism in all corners of the world This book portrays souvenirs as expressions of culture and as triggers of cultural change The volume provides critique and theorisation of souvenirs of places people and experiences in the context of lives lived at the margins of society politics tourism flows and urbanisation Case studies in sustainable tourism illustrate dynamic ways that consumers and suppliers use souvenirs to respond to resist and re interpret global and local influences upon cultures across informal hybrid and formal economies
