The Sovereign Self Von F. Broembsen, 1999-04 Dr von Broembsen adduces clinical material to illustrate the violation of the self caused by unenfranchised self experiences as seen from the perspective of the individual patient and also in terms of relational dynamics of family life say in which instrumental status may be conferred upon a child In an unusually erudite exposition informed by her clinical work Dr von Broembsen addresses the therapeutic challenge of reorganizing experience in quest of the authenticity she defines as crucial to sovereignty

Twentieth-Century Western Philosophy of Religion 1900-2000 Eugene Thomas Long, 2012-12-06 In the fall of 1994 Hendrik Jan van Leusen an acquisitions editor from Kluwer Academic Publishers visited me in my home to discuss a proposal for a handbook in the philosophy of religion He reported that he had been talking about this with philosophers of religion at several universities and that the response to the idea had been quite favorable I suggested that given the different approaches to the philosophy of religion it might be good for him to meet with philosophers representing different philosophical traditions at an upcoming meeting of the Eastern Division of the American Philosophical Association Jude Dougherty Joseph Kockelmans Robert Neville William Rowe and Merold Westphal kindly agreed to attend that meeting They made many substantial and helpful suggestions and a summary of the discussions was sent to van Leusen Some months later he wrote to inquire whether I might consider editing the series and writing the first volume which was to provide a historical map of twentieth century western philosophy of religion Although I could imagine myself editing the series I was initially reluctant to undertake the task of writing a volume that would take me across the lines of many different philosophical traditions By coincidence I had been asked some months earlier to contribute an essay on the philosophy of religion for a conference being held at the Catholic University of America on the general topic One Hundred Years of Philosophy

Paul Ricoeur Richard Kearney, 2012-08-16 Paul Ricoeur's work is of seminal importance to the development of hermeneutics phenomenology and ideology critique in the human sciences This major volume assembles leading scholars to address and explain the significance of this extraordinary body of work Opening with three key essays from Ricoeur himself the book offers a fascinating tour of his work ranging across topics such as the hermeneutics of action narrative force the other and deconstruction while discussing his work in the context of such contemporary figures as including Heidegger Lacan Levinas Arendt and Gadamer Paul Ricoeur is also published as Volume 21 Issue 5 6 of Philosophy and Social Criticism Democracy and Its Others Jeffrey H. Epstein, 2016-02-25 Today's unprecedented levels of human migration present urgent challenges to traditional conceptualizations of national identity nation state sovereignty and democratic citizenship Foreigners are commonly viewed as outsiders whose inclusion within or exclusion from the people of the democratic state rests upon whether they benefit or threaten the unity of the nation Against this instrumentalization of the foreigner this book traces the historical development of the concepts of sovereignty and foreignness through the thought of philosophers such as Plato Locke Hobbes Rousseau Derrida and Benhabib in order to show that foreignness is a structural feature of sovereignty that cannot be purged or assimilated Understood in this light foreignness allows for new forms of democratic political unity to be imagined that reject local practices which deprive individuals of political membership solely on the basis of national citizenship This cosmopolitan model for citizenship provides a novel conceptual framework that simultaneously upholds the legal importance of democratic citizenship for political justice while ceaselessly contesting the exclusionary logic of the nation state that reserves democratic rights for members of the nation alone American Political Thought Ken Kersch, 2021-02-02 How do Americans think about foundational political questions Covering the full span of U S history American Political Thought An Invitation offers a lively yet sophisticated overview of the nature and dynamics of American Political Thought for students and general readers alike Award winning scholar Ken Kersch's engaging introduction situates the key debates in their historical political and cultural context He introduces the touchstone frameworks and ideas that are both deeply ingrained and yet have been actively remade in a country that has spent 250 years of shifting circumstances battling over their real world implications Covering thinkers ranging from Jefferson to Rawls Du Bois to Audre Lorde he examines the ambiguities of the purportedly consensus American principles of liberty equality and democracy as well as addressing questions ranging from What are the foundations of a legitimate political order and What is the appropriate role of government to What are the appropriate terms of full civic membership and beyond Politically balanced and inclusive American Political Thought introduces the contested terrain concerning these core political questions as they were raised over the course of the USA's often dramatic history Being and the Between William Desmond, 1995-03-30 As Plato told us long ago the human being is neither a god nor a beast but someone in between Philosophy too is in between How do we philosophize in between What is the being of the between This book answers the question in the most comprehensive terms possible It offers an original understanding of metaphysical thinking and the fundamental senses of being namely the univocal equivocal dialectical and metaxological senses Part I of

Being and the Between focuses on the nature of metaphysics the question of being in terms of the above fourfold sense Part II develops a metaphysics of being as between relative to our basic perplexities concerning origin creation things intelligibilities selves communities being true being good The book calls for a generous hermeneutical rethinking of the philosophical tradition Major figures and positions are reinterpreted Desmond addresses the issue common since Hegel endemic since Heidegger concerning the end of metaphysics Granting a proper understanding of the between Desmond believes that we need a resurrection of metaphysics where the old perplexities ever new stand before us again Jean Bethke Elshtain Debra Erickson, Michael Le Chevallier, 2018-04-30 Jean Bethke Elshtain 1941 2013 was a noted ethicist political philosopher and public intellectual Her four decades of scholarship defy easy categorization she wrote both seminal works of theory and occasional pieces for the popular press and she was variously viewed as radical and conservative feminist and traditionalist anti war and pro interventionist Jean Bethke Elshtain Politics Ethics and Society is the first attempt to evaluate Elshtain s entire published body of work and to give shape to a wide ranging scholarly career with an eye to her work s ongoing relevance This collection of essays brings together scholars and public intellectuals from across the spectrum of disciplines in which Elshtain wrote The volume is organized around four themes which identify the central concerns that shaped Elshtain s thought 1 the nature of politics 2 politics and religion 3 international relations and just war and 4 the end s of political life The essays have been chosen not only for the expertise of each contributor as it bears on Elshtain s work but also for their interpretive and analytic scope This volume introduces readers to the work of a key contemporary thinker using Elshtain s writing as a lens through which to reflect on central political and scholarly debates of the last few decades Jean Bethke Elshtain will be of great interest to specialists researching Elshtain and to scholars of multiple disciplines particularly political theory international relations and religion Contributors Debra Erickson Sulai Michael Le Chevallier Robin W Lovin William A Galston Arlene W Saxonhouse Don Browning Peter Berkowitz Nancy J Hirschmann Michael Kessler Lisa Sowle Cahill Nigel Biggar Gilbert Meilaender Eric Gregory Daniel Philpott Marc LiVecche Nicholas Rengger John D Carlson Chris Brown Michael Walzer James Turner Johnson Erik Owens Francis Fukuyama Carl Gershman and Patrick J Deneen Faith Finding Meaning Byron L Sherwin, 2009-11-09 Popular books on various aspects of Jewish life and thought are published in substantial numbers Yet there are few if any that offer a comprehensive accessible scholarly presentation of Jewish theology Byron Sherwin fills this gap by demonstrating that Jewish theological thinking can be understood as a response to visceral existential issues and argues that human meaning and fulfillment can be discovered in the application of an authentic Jewish way of thinking and living Balancing the Secrets of Private Disclosures Sandra Petronio, 1999-12 Examines the issues of disclosure privacy secrecy to further understanding of how people balance their public private needs Of interest to scholars researchers in interpersonal comm personal relationships social psych related areas Autonomy and Identity Ros Hague, 2011-04-06 Autonomy and Identity are key concepts in both political and feminist thought and have played central roles in both fields Although there has been much academic work on both concepts there has arguably been little that has addressed the connections between autonomy and identity Autonomy and Identity seeks to draw innovative links between these concepts in order to develop a new understanding which sees autonomy as a process by which we change and develop our identity It draws on thinkers from the canon of political thought such as G W F Hegel Mary Wollstonecraft J S Mill and Simone de Beauvoir and features illustrative examples drawn from a wide range of contemporary issues including pornography domestic violence and women s citizenship Hague argues that identity is best understood as changing multiple and something we need to take control of ourselves In order to support this version of identity there needs to be a concept of autonomy which emphasises self direction to control our identity Providing valuable insight into the complexities of thinking about linking autonomy to identity this book will be of interest to students and scholars of political science gender studies contemporary political thought and the history of political thought

Democracy, Minorities and International Law Steven Wheatley, 2005-12-22 Examines the regulation of cultural conflicts from the perspective of international law Sovereignty, Knowledge, Law Panu Minkkinen, 2009-05-22 Sovereignty Knowledge Law investigates the notion of sovereignty from three different but related perspectives as a legal question in relation to the sovereign state as a political question in relation to sovereign power and as a metaphysical question in relation to sovereign self knowledge The varied and interchangeable uses of legal sovereignty political sovereignty and metaphysical sovereignty in contemporary debates have resulted in a situation where the word sovereignty itself has become something of a non concept Panu Minkkinen shows here how these three perspectives have informed one another by addressing their shared relationship to law and to the autocephalous function of sovereignty that is the attempt to provide a single source and foundation for law power and self knowledge Through an effort to domesticate the intrinsically heterocephalous nature of power the juridical and jurisprudential aim has been to confine power within the closed vertical hierarchy of traditional legal thinking Sovereignty Knowledge Law thus elaborates this heterocephaly proposing new understandings of sovereignty as well as of law and of legal scholarship On the Apocalyptic and Human Agency Kirsi Stjerna, Deanna A.

Thompson, 2014-10-21 There is little doubt about the fundamental importance of both Augustine of Hippo and Martin Luther for western theology and anthropology Both continue to invite critical debate on a host of issues that persist in their contemporary relevance such as questions about human identity and destiny This engaging volume brings together a group of scholars pursuing new directions in Lutheran and Augustinian scholarship on these issues The first section on Luther and the Apocalyptic highlights L A Community of One Martin A. Danahay, 1993-01-01 Complementing recent feminist studies of female self representation this book examines the dynamics of masculine self representation in nineteenth century British literature Arguing that the category autobiography was a product of nineteenth century individualism the author analyzes the dependence of the nineteenth century masculine subject on autonomy or self naming as the prerequisite for the composition of a life history The masculine autobiographer achieves this autonomy by using a feminized other as a metaphorical mirror for the self The feminized other in these texts represents the social cost of masculine autobiography Authors from Wordsworth to Arnold including Samuel Taylor Coleridge Thomas De Quincey John Ruskin Alfred Tennyson Robert Louis Stevenson John Stuart Mill and Edmund Gosse use female lovers and family members as symbols for the community with which they feel they have lost contact In the theoretical introduction the author argues that these texts actually privilege the autonomous self over the images of community they ostensibly value creating in the process a self enclosed and self referential community of one Subjectivity in the Twenty-First Century Romin W. Tafarodi,2013-09-23

What is it like to be a person today To think feel and act as an individual in a time of accelerated social cultural technological and political change This question is inspired by the double meaning of subjectivity as both the first personness of consciousness being a subject of experience and the conditioning of that consciousness within society being subject to power authority or influence The contributors to this volume explore the perils and promise of the self in today s world Their shared aim is to describe where we stand and what is at stake as we move ahead in the twenty first century They do so by interrogating the historical moment as a predicament of the subject Their shared focus is on subjectivity as a dialectic of self and other or individual and society and how the defining tensions of subjectivity are reflected in contemporary forms of individualism identity autonomy social connection and political consciousness The New Politics of Conflict Resolution Morgan Brigg,2008-11-02 This book shows that the conflict resolution field often denies difference even as it attempts to implement a progressive and responsive politics Innovative theoretical analysis suggests ways of responding anew across difference and beyond dominant ways of thinking about political community and conflict Either Kierkegaard/or Nietzsche Tom P. S. Angier,2006 This book expounds the view that Kierkegaard both anticipated and critiqued Nietzsche s central arguments in moral philosophy exposing the weaknesses of what were to become the core Nietzschean positions Angier argues that despite the perceived stylist Humble Apologetics John G. Stackhouse Jr.,2002-11-14 Is it still possible in an age of religious and cultural pluralism to engage in Christian apologetics How can one urge one s faith on others when such a gesture is typically regarded with suspicion if not outright resentment In Humble Apologetics John G Stackhouse brings his wide experience as a historian philosopher journalist and theologian to these important questions and offers surprising and reassuring answers Stackhouse begins by acknowledging the real impediments to Christian testimony in North America today and to other faiths in modern societies around the world He shows how pluralism postmodernism skepticism and a host of other factors create a cultural milieu resistant to the Christian message And he shows how the arrogance or dogmatism of apologists themselves can alienate rather than attract potential converts Indeed Stackhouse argues that the crucial experience of conversion cannot be compelled all the apologist can do is lead another to the point where an actual encounter with Jesus can take place Finally he shows how displaying an attitude of humility instead of merely trying to win religious arguments will help believers offer their neighbors the gift of Christ's love Drawing on the author's personal experience and written with an engaging directness and an unassuming nature Humble Apologetics provides sound guidance on how to share Christian faith in a postmodern world
