Soviet Russia ,1920 The Soviet Military E.S. Williams, C.N. Donnelly, J.E. Moore, 1987-06-18 Inside the Soviet Army Today ,1990 The Military History of the Soviet Union F. Kagan, R. Higham, 2016-04-30 The Military History of the Soviet Union and The Military History of Tsarist Russia treat Russian military history from the rise of the Muscovite state to the present even peeking briefly into the future The two volumes will cover Russia's land forces extensively but will also cover the development of the Russian Navy and the creation and development of the Russian Air Force parts of the Russian military machine which are frequently neglected in general writings The historical analysis will address the development and function of the Russian military whether in peace or in war as well as the impact of war and changes in the military upon Russian society and politics USSR Information Bulletin ,1952 The Withdrawal of Soviet Troops from East Central Europe Christoph Meißner, Jörg Morré, 2021-10-11 The withdrawal of Soviet troops is a so far largely unresearched process of international political and military reorganization after 1989-90 which was accompanied by political economic social and geopolitical factors that had different effects in different nations The anthology contains national studies that examine the withdrawal from a scientific perspective But it also analyses the international conditions that led to the geopolitical reorganization and reduction of weapons In addition to the country studies the reforms and the collapse of the Soviet empire are examined from a military political perspective in order to make the conditions for returning home understandable Finally the legacy of the retreat is also considered in the light of current policies and the current threats to the countries of East Central Europe from the increasing aggression in this geopolitical space Professional Journal of the United States Army ,1990 The Soviet Union as Reported by Former Soviet Citizens Report ,1951 Red Army in Romania Constantin Hlihor, 2022-07-01 The Red Army in Romania is the first comprehensive study of the Soviet occupation of Romanian territory in 1940-1941 and its occupation of the country at the end of World War II which lasted until Soviet troops withdrew from the country in 1958 Based on previously unavailable archival sources it sheds light on the occupation policies of the Red Army and Soviet policy in Eastern Europe generally at the end of World War II The authors both well known historians discuss the geopolitical and historical conditions that allowed the Red Army to occupy Romania They analyze the consequences of the occupation on the country particularly on political life as it led to the establishment of a Communist regime in Romania The Red Army in Romania is a valuable book for students and researchers alike Constantin Hlihor is a professor of history at the University of Bucharest and a researcher at the Center for Euro Atlantic Studies and at the Academy for Military Studies in Bucharest Ioan Scurtu is a professor of history at the University of Bucharest and former

The Soviet Army's High Commands in War and Peace, 1941-1992

Richard W. Harrison, 2022-07-28 The first full treatment of the unique phenomenon of High Commands in the Soviet Army during World War II and the Cold War The war on the Eastern Front during 1941-45 was an immense struggle running from the Barents Sea to the Caucasus Mountains The vast distances involved forced the Soviet political military leadership to resort to new organizational expedients in order to control operations along the extended front These were the high commands of the directions which were responsible for two or more fronts army groups and along maritime axes one or more fleets In all five high commands were created along the northwestern western southwestern and North Caucasus strategic directions during 1941-42 However the highly unfavorable strategic situation during the first year of the war as well as interference in day to day operations by Stalin severely limited the high commands effectiveness As a consequence the high commands were abolished in mid 1942 and replaced by the more flexible system of supreme command representatives at the front A High Command of Soviet Forces in the Far East was established in 1945 and oversaw the Red Army's highly effective campaign against Japanese forces in Manchuria The Far Eastern High Command was briefly resurrected in 1947 as a response to the tense situation along the Korean peninsula and the ongoing civil war in China but was abolished in 1953 soon after Stalin's death Growing tensions with China brought about the recreation of the Far Eastern High Command in 1979 followed a few years later by the appearance of new high commands in Europe and South Asia However these new high commands did not long survive the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1991 and were abolished a year later The book relies almost exclusively on Soviet and post communist archival and other sources and is the first unclassified treatment of this subject in any country East or West Air University Quarterly Review, 1948 Air University Periodical Index, 1958
