The Essential Internet Anthony L. LaBruzza,1997 Brainstorms Joseph H. Horacek,1998 Neurophysiologic disorders that impair normal learning as well as social and emotional development afflict at least 5 8 percent of the school aged children in this country Significant symptoms often persist into adulthood and many people struggle for a lifetime never understanding what continues to hamper their functioning Brainstorms examines questions surrounding the possible neurobiological underpinnings of the emotionally hyperactive and hyperreactive components of ADHD and related disorders These pre psychological substrata may for example be fundamental to what we think of as temperament Here is where the regulation of selective attention and the filtration of noise reside along with the neurosystems behind energy sleep wakefulness and emotional intensity The firecracker temperament often associated with certain subtypes of ADHD is quick to heat up and just as quick to cool down Episodes of dyscontrol involving anger or any other strong emotion can present the most challenging aspects of managing ADHD in people of all ages on the other hand what takes shape in one person as a handicap may be a welcome burst of creativity and inspired vision in others such as Mozart Edison Hemingway Exploration of the many paradoxes of these brainstorms is the business of Dr Horacek s very different very necessary book Mental Health Issues and the Media Gary Morris,2006-09-27 This book provides students and professionals in nursing and allied professions in psychiatry psychology and other related disciplines with a theoretically grounded introduction to the ways in which our attitudes are shaped by the media Fundamentals of an Integrated Model of Psychotherapy Héctor Fernández Alvarez,2001 Therapists are increasingly using a variety of techniques in their clinical practice From memory recovery to relaxation training from cognitive restructuring to empathic reflection today s interventions are based less on the theoretical preconceptions of the therapist and more on the problems and desires of the patient With these changes as a backdrop internationally renowned cognitive psychologist Hector Fernandez Alvarez presents an integrated model of therapy Theoretically sound and clinically rich this volume offers a way of tailoring each clinical encounter to the needs of the particular patient from the mildly distressed anxiety disordered the severely suffering borderline This book is an invaluable guide to students and experienced therapists alike Resources for Nursing Research Cynthia Clamp,Stephen Gough,Lucy Land,2005-01-11 The 4th edition of this extensive text is an outstanding resource prepared by nurses and a librarian for nurses In a structured and helpful style it presents thousands of items from the literature published papers reports books and electronic resources as a clear accessible and most of all useful collection The efforts to signpost and lead the reader to the sought for information are effective and well conceived and the How to use this book section is remarkably simple the book should be found in every nursing and health library every research institute and centre and close to many career researchers desks RCN Research This latest edition of Resources for Nursing Research provides a comprehensive bibliography of sources on nursing research and includes references for books journal papers and Internet resources Designed to act as a signpost to available literature in the area this Fourth Edition covers the disciplines of nursing health care and the social sciences Entries are concise informative and accessible and are arranged under three main sections Sources of Literature covers the process of literature searching including using libraries and other tools for accessing literature Methods of Inquiry includes an introduction to research how to conceptualize and design nursing and health research measurement and data collection and the interpretation and presentation of data The Background to Research in Nursing encompasses the development of nursing research the profession s responsibilities the role of government funding research roles and careers and education for research Fully revised and updated the Fourth Edition includes just under 3000 entries of which 90% are new It has extensive coverage of US UK literature and other international resources This new edition will be an essential guide for all those with an interest in nursing research including students teachers librarians practitioners and researchers Building a Neuropsychology Practice Marvin H. Podd, Donald P. Seelig, 1998 Addresses the pragmatics of respecialization for clinical psychologists including where to get referrals the transferability of clinical training and how to undertake neuropsychological evaluations and interventions demonstrated by presentation of actual case material Psychoanalysis in the Technoculture Era Alessandra Lemma, Luigi Caparrotta, 2013-07-18 Alessandra Lemma Winner of the Levy Goldfarb Award for Child Psychoanalysis By now the internet and other forms of virtual communication have been in place for at least twenty years However surprisingly little has been written about the use of new technologies in the psychoanalytical literature As such Psychoanalysis in the Technoculture Era is a timely exposition on the subject of both virtual and analytic space Bringing together the work of several psychoanalysts the Editors Alessandra Lemma and Luigi Caparrotta illustrate how new technologies have become an integral part of our everyday lives and how they have silently and subtly permeated the psychoanalytic setting The contributors explore how new technologies have affected psychoanalytic practice and discuss the advantages and disadvantages of its use Psychoanalysis in the Technoculture Era unravels some of the meanings of virtual world terms and opens this field to greater scrutiny stimulating and promoting discussion about new technologies in psychoanalytic practice This book will be of interest to the psychoanalytic community including psychotherapy professionals psychoanalysts post graduate graduate and undergraduate students The Social Worker's Internet Handbook Gary B. Grant, Linda May Grobman, 1998 A guide for social workers who want to use the Internet to enhance their practice The authors review about 350 Web sites and cover topics such as connecting to the Internet choosing a service provider using mailing lists and newsgroups surfing the WWW networking with colleagues advocating onli Winning Cooperation from Your Child! Kenneth Wenning, 1999-09-01 Winning Cooperation from Your Child provides parents and therapists with a comprehensive home based behavioral recovery program for oppositional defiant and aggressive children In response to the national epidemic of defiant and aggressive behavior Kenneth Wenning offers a range of specific techniques to promote cooperative behavior in children This unique book can be used either as a self help resource for parents or to support a collaboration between a parent and a therapist toward a common goal a child's rapid behavioral recovery These methods will enable parents to help defiant children develop psychological armor and behavioral and emotional control when provoked teased or frustrated as well as prevent parents from overreacting or underreacting to the child's disobedience The aim is to nurture in the child the capacity for accurate self reflection a prerequisite for taking responsibility for his or her own actions
