The Eternal Pity Reflections On Dying:

The Eternal Pity Richard John Neuhaus, 2019 Drawing upon a vast range of human experience and reflection The Eternal Pity Reflections on Dying demonstrates how people try to cope with the inevitability of death Different cultures informed by religious beliefs and sometimes desperate hope teach people to respond to their own death and the deaths of others in modes as various as defiance stoic resignation and unbridled grief In addition to examples from literature poetry and religious texts Father Richard John Neuhaus provides an intensely personal account of his encounter with death through emergency cancer surgery and reflects on how that encounter has changed the way he lives While many writers have deplored the denial of death in our culture The Eternal Pity shows how themes of death and dying are nevertheless perennial and pervasive Society may be viewed as a disorganized march of multitudes waving little banners of meaning before the threat of nonbeing that is death Some selections in this book depict people utterly surprised by their mortality others highlight how the whole of one's life can be a preparation for what used to be called a good death For some life is a relentless effort to hold death at bay for others death is although not welcomed reflectively anticipated Nothing so universally defines the human condition as the fact that we shall die The Eternal Pity helps us to understand how the prospect of death compels decisions about how we might live

Making Sense of Dying and Death Andrew Fagan, 2004 Health illness and disease are topics well suited to interdisciplinary inquiry This book brings together scholars from around the world who share an interest in and a commitment to bridging the traditional boundaries of inquiry We hope that this book begins new conversations that will situate health in broader socio cultural contexts and establish connections between health illness and disease and other socio political issues This book is the outcome of the first global conference on Making Sense of Health

Illness and Disease held at St Catherine s College Oxford in June 2002 The selected papers pursue a range of topics from the cultural significance of narratives of health illness and disease to healing practices in contemporary society as well as patients illness experiences

Who Will Be Saved? Bishop William H. Willimon,2010-09-01 What does it mean to say that salvation is God s business and God s alone Who will be saved is almost always a question about them and rarely about us Thinking itself wrapped securely in the everlasting arms the church has spent much of its history speculating on whether God will allow anyone else to join the party But if we truly believe that salvation is God s business and God s alone then perhaps we should stop asking Who will be saved and ask instead How is God calling me to participate in the redemption of the world Rejecting the idea that God chooses some and not others drawing on his Wesleyan heritage and deepening his longstanding theological conversation with Karl Barth Willimon reflects as a pastor and a theologian on God s intention that all would someday return from the far country into the loving embrace of the One who created them

Mysticism and Witness in Koinonia Maria Clara Bingemer,2023-11-10 Testimony until the end in a radical donation of life and blood can be communitarian and not only individual That is the case for the two communities of Trappists and Jesuits so different in their form and so close in their radicality One is contemplative the other active one is in Africa the other in Latin America Both are religious Catholic orders Nevertheless the cause of their violent death is secular For one there is love and dialogue with otherness other cultures other religions other beliefs For the other there is justice for those who are the victims of iniquitous economic and political systems the poor Assuming secular causes into their religious consecration and commitment those communities teach today to the plural society we live in how to be open to otherness to difference and to the various vulnerabilities that clamor for justice They also teach to the churches a new radical way to live the gospel not with a unique institutional point of view but with an unlimited openness to all hungers and thirsts of the world Their martyrdom is a liturgy celebrated publicly instigating reflection and action

Where Do Broken Hearts Go? W. Ross Hastings,2016-06-28 Grounded in the narrative of the loss of his own wife Ross Hastings seeks to provide insight into the universal human condition of loss and grief and speaks comfort All kinds of losses produce grief loss of jobs homes friendships health losses through divorce and loss through death of parents children and spouses and we are often unprepared for it Applicable to all who go through loss this book will also offer skills for pastors pastors in training and friends seeking to offer comfort to grieving people It will weave together first order theological as well as integrated psychological insights that relate to loss and grieving interspersed with personal stories The ultimately redemptive nature of grief is highlighted with sensitivity to the grieving process It offers comfort for the grieving found in fresh awareness of the orientation and action of the triune God who is for us who invites us to participate in his life and love and gathers up our grief and in Christ suffers with us It beckons us towards spiritual attentiveness permission for emotional honesty normalization of the grief process practices that enable coping and redemptive transformation in the present and hope grounded in future resurrection reality

Richard John

Neuhaus Randy Boyagoda, 2015-02-10 A brilliant biography of one of the intellectual mavericks of 20th Century Catholicism Richard John Neuhaus 1936 2009 was one of the most influential figures in American public life from the Civil Rights era to the War on Terror His writing activism and connections to people of power in religion politics and culture secured a place for himself and his ideas at the center of recent American history William F Buckley Jr and John Kenneth Galbraith are comparable willing controversialists and prodigious writers adept at cultivating or castigating the powerful while advancing lively arguments for the virtues and vices of the ongoing American experiment But unlike Buckley and Galbraith who have always been identified with singular political positions on the right and left respectively Neuhaus life and ideas placed him at the vanguard of events and debates across the political and cultural spectrum For instance alongside Abraham Heschel and Daniel Berrigan Neuhaus co founded Clergy Concerned About Vietnam in 1965 Forty years later Neuhaus was the subject of a New York Review of Books article by Garry Wills which cast him as a Rasputin of the far right exerting dangerous influence in both the Vatican and the Bush White House This book looks to examine Neuhaus s multi faceted life and reveal to the public what made him tick and why

Echoes from Calvary Richard Young, 2005 This book collects some 60 printed meditations along with on two disks the complete musical performance and an analysis of how Haydn s work embodies the emotion of Christ s passion

Dreams, Doubt, and Dread Zachary Thomas Settle, Taylor Worley, 2016-08-24 Films are modern spiritual phenomena They function as such in at least three profound ways world projection thought experiments and catharsis i e as dreams doubt and dread Understanding film in this way allows for a theological account of the experience that speaks to the religious possibilities of film that far extend the portrayal of religious themes or content Dreams Doubt and Dread The Spiritual in Film aims to address films as spiritual experiences This collection of short essays and dialogues examines films phenomenologically through the experience of the viewer as an agent having been acted upon in the functioning of the film itself Authors were invited to take one of the main themes and creatively consider how film in their experiences has provided opportunities for new modes of thinking Contributors will then engaged one another in a dialogue about the similarities and differences in their descriptions of film as spiritual phenomena The intended aim of this text is to shift contemporary theological film engagement away from a simple mode of analysis in which theological concepts are simply read into the film itself and begin to let films speak for themselves as profoundly spiritual experiences

Life, God, and Other Small Topics Eric Metaxas, 2011-10-13 This book is for the seeker in all of us the collector of wisdom and the person who asks What if from the author of Bonhoeffer Miracles and Martin Luther The Greek philosopher Socrates famously said that the unexamined life is not worth living Using this as a starting point Eric Metaxas created a forum encouraging successful professionals to actively think about life s bigger questions Thus Socrates in the City was born First presented to standing room only crowds in New York City and written by luminaries such as Dr Francis Collins Sir John Polkinghorne and Os Guinness these original essays grapple with extraordinary topics from Making Sense out of Suffering to Belief in God in an Age of Science No question is too big in fact the bigger the better because nowhere is it written that finding the answers to life's biggest questions shouldn't be exciting and even perhaps fun
