CHAPTER XI THE VALUES OF DEVELOPMENT Everything which we have considered so far was lying before us finished and completed when we evaluated it It was something entirely given which was valuable in its existence in its connection in its unity in its beauty But that which is to be valuable for its development s sake gains the value just in its transition from the given to the not given It is not being but becoming Experience alone is not sufficient there the deed is needed As soon as the deed is performed the development completed we have again only something which is finished and as such it can again claim only the value of connection no longer the special value of development Such becoming may go on in the outer world in the fellow world and in the inner world and the inner forming may be absolutely valuable even where the deed is done without any conscious evaluation On the other hand the valuable deed may subordinate itself to a conscious purpose it then becomes an achievement Such purposive intentional realization of values meant to us civilization Hence the values of achievement are values of civilization the values of development are immediate values of life Both belong intimately together Civilization carries on in the values of achievement what is enclosed in the values of development in naive experience Thus they are related to each other like the values of existence and of connection or the values of unity and of beauty The values of achievement Which civilization upbuilds are those of industry of law and of morality We must study them carefully later but our next step must be to inquire into those life values when is the becoming which does not aim to be a real achievement yet absolutely The Eternal Values William Ralph Inge, 1933 The Five Eternal Values Christopher Alan
Anderson, 2012-09-18 A listing and explanation of the eternal values which permeate our lives and when brought to consciousness anchor successful thought and action Eternal Values in Religion James Bissett Pratt, 1950 New York Magazine , 1991-11-04 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Humanics The Humanicsonomics Munayem Mayenin, 2019-05-07 Humanics The Humanicsonomics calls the world and world humanity towards rising for a state of humanity where all humans are at liberty and in equality under the law in natural justice where one is in and for all and all is in and for one and the entire humanity has grown into a real one humanity physiology that is constructed by each and every human soul making a cell in that physiology in which each one is as infinitely valuable necessary and vital as all others and in which all exist as one for all and all for one Religious Values
