Directorate-General Information, Communication, Culture, 1990 Audiovisual and Broadcasting Policy in the European Community Richard Collins, 1993 Limits to Liberalization Patricia M. Goff, 2011-02-23 The so called culture industries film television and radio broadcasting periodical and book publishing video and sound recording are noteworthy exceptions to the rhetorical commitment of Western countries to free trade as a major goal These exceptions threatened to derail such high profile negotiations as NAFTA and its predecessor the Canada US Free Trade Agreement as well as the Uruguay Round of the GATT Conventional wisdom did not foresee trouble from this source because these established industries are not commercial national champions nor are they particularly large providers of jobs As Patricia M Goff shows the standard trade literature considers the monetary value but doesn't recognize the symbolic importance of cultural production In Limits to Liberalization she traces the interplay between the commercial and the cultural Governments that want to expand free trade may simultaneously resist liberalization in the culture industries and elsewhere including agriculture and health care Goff traces the rationale for cultural protectionism in the trade policies of Canada France and the European Union The result is a larger understanding of the forces that shape international trade agreements and a book that speaks to current theoretical concerns about national identity as it plays out in politics and international relations The European Community Policy in the Audiovisual Field European Commission, 1990 Euro-Visions Mariana Liz, 2016-09-22 Examines the meaning of Europe in contemporary art house and popular films from across the continent The European Community Policy in the Audiovisual Field, 1990 The Directory of EU Information Sources, 1995 The European Community as a Publisher, 1995 Sports law and policy in the European Union Richard Parrish, 2013-07-19 Adopting a distinctive legal and political analysis this book argues that the EU is receptive to the sports sectors claims for special treatment before the law The book investigates the birth of EU sports law and policy by examining significant court decisions the possibility of exempting sport from EU law sport and the EU treaty and more An electronic edition of this book is freely available under a Creative Commons CC BY NC ND licence journal of common market studies, 1996
