Bruce Ellis Benson, Norman Wirzba, 2015-09-01 What is the proper relationship between human beings and the more than human world This philosophical question which underlies vast environmental crises forces us to investigate the tension between our extraordinary powers which seem to set us apart from nature even above it and our thoroughgoing ordinariness as revealed by the evolutionary history we share with all life The contributors to this volume ask us to consider whether the anxiety of unheimlichkeit which in one form or another absorbed so much of twentieth century philosophy might reveal not our homelessness in the cosmos but a need for a fundamental belongingness and implacement in it The Spirit Renews the Face of the Earth

Amos Yong, 2009-04-01 This collection of essays was first presented at the 37th annual meeting of the Society for Pentecostal Studies held jointly with the Wesleyan Theological Society at Duke University in March 2008 under the conference theme Signs Sighs and Significance Pentecostal and Wesleyan Explorations of Science and Creation Along with a companion volume of Wesleyan essays published also by Pickwick Publications the twelve chapters here represent both Pentecostal reflections responses to the science religion discussion and Pentecostal contributions to the ongoing exchange by biblical studies specialists historians and theologians among those trained in other disciplines Together the essayists model an actual dialogue in which Pentecostal scholarly reflection is impacted by science religion discourses on the one hand while Pentecostals reach deep into their own tradition to explore how their pre understandings and commitments might enable them to speak with their own voice into pre existing conversations on the other hand This volume thus represents one of the first hopefully the first of many in which Pentecostals register their perspectives on a major issue of our time In a world dominated by science and at a time when theologies of creation that encourage and require care for creation and the environment are proliferating The Spirit Renews the Face of the Earth provides a set of Pentecostal perspectives on these important matters

Christ, Creation and the Cosmic Goal of Redemption J.J. Johnson Leese, 2018-05-17 J J Johnson Leese discusses how the apostle Paul's writing on Christ's relationship to creation read alongside the interpretations of Irenaeus of Lyon provide a meaningful contribution to contemporary debates on the interrelationship between religion and nature Leese draws upon the integration of three related scholarly trends the increased importance placed on biblical creation themes the emergence of ecotheology and the history of reception while focusing on the Pauline corpus and readings of Paul by Irenaeus thus uncovering a robust creation and ecotheological theology Irenaeus approach provides the possibility for Paul to contribute to ecotheology by way of a theological vision where the whole of reality in relationship to Christ and creation and by extension to soteriology and ecclesiology are central components of Paul's theology

Faith in the Face of Tyranny Torbjörn Johansson, 2023-08-29 In 1933 a group of theological students in Berlin asked Dietrich Bonhoeffer and Hermann Sasse to work together with other theologians to come up with a confession that could be used to challenge nazi ideology and its inroads into the church bodies of Germany through the so called German Christians who wanted to reshape Christianity into a worship of German ethnicity The result was the August Bethel Confession named after the town in which Sasse and Bonhoeffer worked together Unfortunately church bureaucrats got a hold of it and watered it down and then it was forgotten for the Barmen Declaration what was much more heavily influenced by Reformed theology and concerns and failed to even take up the question of what place Jews had in the church This was a huge disappointment to both Bonhoeffer and Sasse who are largely regarded as two of the greatest Lutheran theologians of that era In Faith in the Face of Tyranny Torbjörn Johansson takes a look at the work that both these men brought to the forgotten Bethel Confession to show just what a confessional response to national socialism and racism looks like Today there are often calls for new confessions and declarations addressing different political ideologies and issues and well as cultural movements This book shows what such a confession should look like and why as well as what considerations should be taken into account when looking at such a project

Creation and Contemplation Julien Decharneux, 2023-06-06 In Creation and Contemplation Julien Decharneux explores the connections between the cosmology of the Qur'an and various cosmological traditions of Late Antiquity with a focus on Syriac Christianity. The first part of the book studies how in exhorting its audience to contemplate the world the Qur'an carries on a tradition of natural contemplation that had developed throughout Late Antiquity in the Christian world. In this regard the analysis suggests particularly striking connections with the mystical and ascetic literature of the Church of the East which was in effervescence at the time of the emergence of Islam. The second part argues that the Qur'anic cosmological discourse is built so as to serve the overarching theological message of the text namely God's absolute unity. Despite the allusive and sometimes obscure way in which the Qur'an talks about the world's coming into being and its maintenance in existence the text betrays its authors acquaintance with cosmological debates of Late Antiquity. In studying the Qur'an through the prism of Late Antiquity this book contributes to our understanding of the emergence of Islam and its relationship with other religious traditions of the time. Winner of the 2022 Marie Antoinette Van Huele Prize and the 2023 Richard Kreglinger Prize both Faculty of Philosophy and Social Sciences Free University of Brussels
