The Face of Jesus. Or, Thoughts for the Mature Concerning the Nature of the Word of God William Horatio Clarke, 2024-02-28 Reprint of the original first published in 1883 The ^AChanging Face of Christianity Lamin Sanneh, Joel A. Carpenter, 2005-03-10 Over the past century Christianity's place and role in the world have changed dramatically In 1900 80 percent of the world's Christians lived in Europe and North America Today more than 60 percent of the world's Christians live outside of that region This change calls for a reexamination of the way the story of Christianity is told the methodological tools for its analysis and its modes of expression Perhaps most significant is the role of Africa as the new Christian heartland The questions and answers about

Christianity and its contemporary mission now being developed in the African churches will have enormous influence in the years to come This volume offers nine new essays addressing this sea change and its importance for the future of Christianity Some contributions consider the development of non Western forms of Christianity others look at the impact of these new Christianities in the West The authors cover a wide range of topics from the integration of witchcraft and Christianity in Nigeria and the peacemaking role of churches in Mozambique to the American Baptist reception of Asian Christianity The Changing Face of Christianity shows the striking cultural differences between the new world Christianity and its western counterpart But with so many new immigrants in Europe and North America the faith's fault lines are not purely geographical The new Christianity now thrives in American and European settings and northerners need to know this faith better At stake is their ability to be good neighbors and perhaps to be good Christian citizens of the world

The Spirit Renews the Face of the Earth Amos Yong, 2009-04-01 This collection of essays was first presented at the 37th annual meeting of the Society for Pentecostal Studies held jointly with the Wesleyan Theological Society at Duke University in March 2008 under the conference theme Signs Sighs and Significance Pentecostal and Wesleyan Explorations of Science and Creation Along with a companion volume of Wesleyan essays published also by Pickwick Publications the twelve chapters here represent both Pentecostal reflections responses to the science religion discussion and Pentecostal contributions to the ongoing exchange by biblical studies specialists historians and theologians among those trained in other disciplines Together the essayists model an actual dialogue in which Pentecostal scholarly reflection is impacted by science religion discourses on the one hand while Pentecostals reach deep into their own tradition to explore how their pre understandings and commitments might enable them to speak with their own voice into pre existing conversations on the other hand This volume thus represents one of the first hopefully the first of many in which Pentecostals register their perspectives on a major issue of our time In a world dominated by science and at a time when theologies of creation that encourage and require care for creation and the environment are proliferating The Spirit Renews the Face of the Earth provides a set of Pentecostal perspectives on these important matters
