

with very young American sailors in ill-fitting civilian clothes (rented from locker-houses in San Diego, nearby) being urged and shamed into partaking of this ritual communion — it can hardly be called anything else — by their beer-drinking mates and San Diego undergraduates of both sexes, by the dozens, cheering them on at tables circling the stage on which the girl stripteasers stand offering themselves, one by one, opening and closing their knees (between, er, communicants) with all the subtle invitation of Baja California octopussy, or purple-passion squid. The color-line is also drawn, as in many churches, Negro sailors not being allowed to partake.

To prevent anyone from missing any of the action, the proprietor or master-of-ceremonies also stands by, with the band (mainly on Saturday nights), with two hand-flashlights, to light up the central operating area. A real Hollywood production, you might say. The time I was there — for scientific and folkloristic purposes exclusively, you understand — an eighteen-year-old coed in the balcony offered to strip and put on the same act for tips, and buy the joint a spotlight with the proceeds. Doubtless one of those Berkeley car-washers. Damn snobs.

Even without the standard admixture of narcotic drugs, to help recalcitrant chicks make their first orgy scene, usually at the “mild” trio level of let’s-you-and-her-both-go-to-bed-with-me, the polymorphous-perverse sexual aspirations of the Fake Revolt, or Sexual Revolution, are the most direct expression of its shipwrecked human affectlessness. The real purpose of orgy scenes such as the sailors’ virile initiation ceremony, or rite de passage just described, is to give group support to scared sexual beginners and failures: the gang-bang ethic. The girls who partake are apparently floating off on the matching and opposite dream: that of the big earth-mother queen-bee, being “serviced” sexually by all these faceless studs — the interchangeable or replaceable men. To her this is not gang-rape: they are her harem. What is being exploited here is mutual sex hatred, and vying for position. According to Hell’s Angel leader Frank Reynolds, in Evergreen (June 1967) page 24, public cunnilingus with an Angel Mama nymphomaniac — during menstruation — is the supreme Red Wing Patch or fish-queen ordeal of the Hell’s Angels motorcycle gang: “It is considered the nastier she is, the more class is showed by the member who goes down on her in front of everyone.” Though even closer to immemorial matriarchal rituals, the avowed intention here is to be brave and bad. The final such ordeal — auto-castration — is perhaps yet to come.
