Sitar And Sarod In The 18th And 19th Centuries:

Sitar and Sarod in the 18th and 19th Centuries Allyn Miner, 2018-02-01 The music of north India has attained its world renown largely through its most prominent stringed instruments the sitar and the sarod This work bring together material from written oral and pictorial sources to trace the early history of the instruments their innovators and their music

Tellings and Texts Francesca Orsini, Katherine Butler Schofield, 2015-10-05 Examining materials from early modern and contemporary North India and Pakistan Tellings and Texts brings together seventeen first rate papers on the relations between written and oral texts their performance and the musical traditions these performances have entailed The contributions from some of the best scholars in the field cover a wide range of literary genres and social and cultural contexts across the region The texts and practices are contextualized in relation to the broader social and political background in which they emerged showing how religious affiliations caste dynamics and political concerns played a role in shaping social identities as well as aesthetic sensibilities By doing so this book sheds light into theoretical issues of more general significance such as textual versus oral norms the features of oral performance and improvisation the role of the text in performance the aesthetics and social dimension of performance the significance of space in performance history and important considerations on repertoires of story telling The book also contains links to audio files of some of the works discussed in the text Tellings and Texts is essential reading for anyone with an interest in South Asian culture and more generally in the theory and practice of oral literature performance and story telling

Semiosis in Hindustani Music José Luiz Martinez, 2001-01-01 For thousands of years music in India has been considered a signifying art Indian music creates and represents meanings of all kinds some of which extend outwardly to the cosmos while others arise inwardly in the refined feelings which a musical connoisseur experiences when listening to it In this book the author explores signification in Hindustani classical music along a two fold path Martineq first constructs a theory of musical semiotics based on the sign theories of Charles Sanders Peirce He then applies his theory to the analysis of various types of Hindustani music and how they generate significations The author engages such fundamental issues as sound quality raga tala and form while advancing his unique interpretations of well known semiotic phenomena like iconicity metalanguage indexicality symbolism Martinez s study also provides deep insight into semiotic issues of musical perception performance scholarship and composition An specially innovative and extensive section of the book analyzes representations in Hindustani music in terms of the Indian aesthetic theory of rasa The evolution of the rasa system as applied to musical structures is traced historically and analyzed semiotically In the light of Martinez s theories Hindustani music reveals itself to be both a delightfully sensuous and highly sophisticated system of acoustic representations
