Snow Shadow:

Color and Light in Nature David K. Lynch, William Charles Livingston, 2001-06-11 We live in a world of optical marvels from the commonplace but beautiful rainbow to the rare and eerie superior mirage But how many of us really understand how a rainbow is formed why the setting sun is red and flattened or even why the sky at night is not absolutely black This beautiful and informative guide provides clear explanations to all naturally occurring optical phenomena seen with the naked eye including shadows halos water optics mirages and a host of other spectacles Separating myth from reality it outlines the basic principles involved and supports them with many figures and references A wealth of rare and spectacular photographs many in full color illustrate the phenomena throughout In this new edition of the highly acclaimed guide to seeing photographing and understanding nature's optical delights the authors have added over 50 new images and provided new material on experiments you can try yourself

Yuan, Yu Cao, Jianjun Zhu, 2025-03-07 Personality imagery deconstruction is an innovative theory in personality psychology grounded in Imagery Communication Psychology ICP This book offers a comprehensive exploration of the sources of personality imagery as well as the significance and methods of deconstructing it for practical applications Inspired by Chinese cultural philosophy this approach views personality as a system rather than a collection of separate traits Instead personality is deconstructed into distinct independent sub personalities each with its own motives behaviours and preferences Through ICP these sub personalities emerge in the conscious mind appearing as individual entities within a broader community of the self By consciously engaging with each sub personality individuals can encourage communication and harmony among them This process allows for the transformation of negative or stagnant sub personalities helping to restore vitality and clarity to the overall personality In essence personality imagery deconstruction enables personal growth by transforming the inner dynamics of one's mental life Monthly Weather Review, 1915 Skiing, 1984-12

Snowshoe Country Thomas M. Wickman, 2018-09-20 Snowshoe Country is an environmental and cultural history of winter in the colonial Northeast closely examining indigenous and settler knowledge of snow ice and life in the cold Indigenous communities in this region were more knowledgeable about the cold than European newcomers from temperate climates and English settlers were especially slow to adapt To keep surviving the winter year after year and decade after decade English colonists relied on Native assistance borrowed indigenous winter knowledge and followed seasonal diplomatic protocols to ensure stable relations with tribal leaders Thomas M Wickman explores how fluctuations in winter weather and the halting exchange of winter knowledge both inhibited and facilitated English colonialism from the 1620s to the early 1700s As their winter survival strategies improved due to skills and technologies appropriated from Natives colonial leaders were able to impose a new political ecology in the greater Northeast projecting year round authority over indigenous lands

Religion as Brand Razieh Mahdiah,2024-11-25 Religion as Brand An Analogy to Reconceptualize Religion delves into the complex relationship between religions and brands Through a process of abstraction the book creates an analogy to compare religion with brand which clarifies the similar functionalities of both within society and explores the complexities in this comparison beyond mere semiotic aspects Through this innovative lens it unveils the common mechanisms of both phenomena and unveils fundamental incentives and needs in human being nature that are evoked and fulfilled by these two social institutions Across four diverse case studies the book examines this analogy in real world contexts and demonstrates how this approach can generate hypotheses These cases explore diverse scenarios including ISIS and Al Qaeda as sub brands of Islam the dynamic of Islam and Judaism as brands in the Israeli Palestinian conflict Ashura ceremonies as a campaign for Shi'i Islam and the narrativity of Evangelicalism as a sub brand of Christianity This thought provoking exploration generates new hypotheses and challenges preconceived notions of both religion and brand

Surfaces and Essences Douglas R Hofstadter,Emmanuel Sander,2013-04-23 Analogy is the core of all thinking This is the simple but unorthodox premise that Pulitzer Prize winning author Douglas Hofstadter and French psychologist Emmanuel Sander defend in their new work Hofstadter has been grappling with the mysteries of human thought for over thirty years Now with his trademark wit and special talent for making complex ideas vivid he has partnered with Sander to put forth a highly novel perspective on cognition We are constantly faced with a swirling and intermingling multitude of ill defined situations Our brain s job is to try to make sense of this unpredictable swarming chaos of stimuli How does it do so The ceaseless hail of input triggers analogies galore helping us to pinpoint the essence of what is going on Often this means the spontaneous evocation of words sometimes idioms sometimes the triggering of nameless long buried memories Why did two year old Camille proudly exclaim I undressed the banana Why do people who hear a story often blurt out Exactly the same thing happened to me when it was a completely different event How do we recognize an aggressive driver from a split second glance in our rearview mirror What in a friend s remark triggers the offhand reply That s just sour grapes What did Albert Einstein see that made him suspect that light consists of particles when a century of research had driven the final nail in the coffin of that long dead idea The answer to all these questions of course is analogy making the meat and potatoes the heart and soul the fuel and fire the gist and the crux the lifeblood and the wellsprings of thought Analogy making far from happening at rare intervals occurs at all moments defining thinking from top to toe from the tiniest and most fleeting thoughts to the most creative scientific insights Like G Escher Bach before it Surfaces and Essences will profoundly enrich our understanding of our own minds By plunging the reader into an extraordinary variety of colorful situations involving language thought and memory by revealing bit by bit the constantly churning cognitive mechanisms normally completely hidden from view and by discovering in them one central invariant core the incessant unconscious quest for strong analogical links to past experiences this book puts forth a radical and deeply surprising new vision of the act of thinking Apollo-Soyuz Test Project Lyndon B. for non specialists Green Planet helps general readers realize that if we are to rescue the Earth from environmental disaster we must protect wild plants Beginning with an overview of how human civilization has altered the face of the Earth particularly by the destruction of forests the book details the startling consequences of these actions Rice provides compelling reasons for government officials economic leaders and the public to support efforts to save threatened and endangered plants Global campaigns to solve environmental problems with plants such as the development of green roofs and the Green Belt Movement a women s organization in Kenya that empowers communities worldwide to protect the environment show readers that efforts to save wild plants can be successful and beneficial to the economic well being of nations Through current scientific evidence readers see that plants are vital to the ecological health of our planet and understand what can be done to lead to a better and greener future Benefits of plants Help modulate greenhouse gases Produce almost all oxygen in the air Create cool shade that reduces energy costs Prevent floods droughts and soil erosion Produce all of the food in the world Create and preserve soil Create natural habitats Heal the landscape after natural and human disasters Scribner's Magazine ... ,1908 Aerial Photography and Image Interpretation David P.
