Religious Thought Laurence Jay Silberstein,1989-01-01 Psychoanalysis as a Spiritual Discipline Paul Marcus,2021-04-27 The great existential psychiatrist Ludwig Binswanger famously pointed out to Freud that therapeutic failure could only be understood as the result of something which could be called a deficiency of spirit Binswanger was surprised when Freud agreed asserting Yes spirit is everything However spirit and the spiritual realm have largely been dropped from mainstream psychoanalytic theory and practice This book seeks to help revitalize a culturally aging psychoanalysis that is in conceptual and clinical disarray in the marketplace of ideas and is viewed as a theory in crisis no longer regarded as the primary therapy for those who are suffering The author argues that psychoanalysis and psychoanalytic psychotherapy can be reinvigorated as a discipline if it is animated by the powerfully evocative spiritual moral and ethical insights of two dialogical personalist religious philosophers Martin Buber a Jew and Gabriel Marcel a Catholic who both initiated a Copernican revolution in human thought In chapters that focus on love work faith suffering and clinical practice Paul Marcus shows how the spiritual optic of Buber and Marcel can help revive and refresh psychoanalysis and bring it back into the light by communicating its inherent vitality power and relevance to the mental health community and to those who seek psychoanalytic treatment Books in Print ,1977 Homo Temporalis Nitzan Itzhak Lebovic,2025-01-15

Homo Temporalis focuses on the importance of temporal concepts for four German Jewish thinkers who profoundly shaped twentieth century intellectual history Martin Buber Walter Benjamin Hannah Arendt and Paul Celan By analyzing the concept of time Nitzan Lebovic explores Buber s stress on the temporality of the dialogue between I and Thou Benjamin s now time and dialectics in standstill Arendt s understanding of democracy as natality or a permanent revolution and the breathturn

Modernity Nicos Mouzelis, 2021-07-01 In Modernity Religious and Ethical Perspectives Nicos Mouzelis examines the three unique structural features of modern societies inclusion of the whole population into the nation state top down differentiation of institutional spheres and the expansion of individualization from the top to the base of the social pyramid The author shows how the above features relate to present day religious phenomena such as secularisation desecularization the new religious movements and the forms of present day spiritualities He examines the extent to which secularisation and rationalization led to the disenchantment of the world Later however one observes a reaction to the established hierarchically organized churches and to the adherence mainly of young people to less structured religious groups to religious syncretism and to individual seekers who tried to find their own God From this perspective one can argue that we have a partial re enchantment of the world American Book Publishing Record ,1988
