Marxism and Phenomenology Bryan Smyth, Richard Westerman, 2021-10-25 Marxism and Phenomenology The Dialectical Horizons of Critique edited by Bryan Smyth and Richard Westerman offers new perspectives on the possibility of a philosophical outlook that combines Marxism and phenomenology in the critique of capitalism Although Marxism's focus on impersonal social structures and phenomenology's concern with lived experience can make these traditions appear conceptually incompatible the potential critical force of a theoretical reconciliation inspired several attempts in the twentieth century to articulate a phenomenological Marxism Updating and extending this approach the contributors to this volume identify and develop new and previously overlooked connections between the traditions offering new perspectives on Marx Husserl and Heidegger exploring themes such as alienation reification and ecology and examining the intersection of Marxism and phenomenology in figures such as Michel Henry Walter Benjamin and Frantz Fanon These glimpses of a productive reconciliation of the respective strengths of phenomenology and Marxism offer promising possibilities for illuminating and resolving the increasingly intense social crises of capitalism in the twenty-first century

Video Games between Postcolonialism and Postcommunism Andrei Nae, 2025-12-14 Although in recent years there has been a growing interest in the racial politics of video games the wider context of colonialism is yet to benefit from the same level of academic consideration Moreover when colonialism is tackled directly the approach is limited to a Global North Global South or West East binary that does not do justice to the multiple forms of coloniality that have existed around the world This volume sets out to fill the existing gap in scholarship on colonialism in video games by featuring a collection of essays that together provide insight into the complex ramifications of coloniality and its multiple intersecting power structures not only in video games of the Global North Global South or West East divides but also in regions traditionally overlooked by postcolonial theory One such region that this volume focuses on is Eastern Europe and its postcommunist contexts that intersect with coloniality in video games produced inside or outside the region Through its methodological diversity and non-provincial understanding of colonial power relations the present volume will offer scholars and students of game studies and area studies a rich perspective on video games entanglement with colonial legacies

The Road to Disillusion: From Critical Marxism to Post-communism in Eastern Europe Raymond C. Taras, 2015-02-24 The history of reform movements in postwar Eastern Europe is ultimately ironic inasmuch as the reformers' successes and defeats alike served to discredit and demoralize the regimes they sought to redeem The essays in this volume examine the historic and present-day role of the internal critics who whatever their intentions used Marxism as critique to demolish Marxism as ideocracy but did not succeed in replacing it Included here are essays by James P. Scanlan on the USSR Ferenc Feher on Hungary Leslie Holmes on the German Democratic Republic Raymond Taras on Poland James Satterwhite on Czechoslovakia Vladimir Tismaneanu on Romania Mark Baskin on Bulgaria and Oskar Gruenwald on Yugoslavia In concert the contributors
