Masaryk,2021-10-29 Thomas G Masaryk was founding and first president of the State of Czechoslovakia He was also a dissident charter member of the theoretical vanguard that established modern sociology in the nineteenth century Many social scientists are aware of Masaryk s political role but do not know about his significant contributions to sociology With the publication of this book Imber and Woolfolk hope to restore Masaryk to his rightful place in history as a founding sociological theorist This compilation of some of Masaryk s major writings reveals the intertwining of politics and social theory that is characteristic of his thinking Chapters in Constructive Sociological Theory include The Development of the Modern Suicide Tendency Essence and Method of Sociology The Epistemological Problem of Russian Philosophy The Religious Question and Modern Philosophy The Class Structure of Society Central Problems of Marxist Policy and Democracy versus Theocracy Constructive Sociological Theory also presents these writings together in English for the first time Alan Woolfolk s substantial introduction extensively discusses Masaryk s biographical background academic life political career religious views and interpretations of Marx and Comte among other subjects This landmark volume will be an essential addition to the libraries of political theorists sociologists philosophers and theologians The Internet and Social Change Carla G. Economy and Society The Closed and the Open Questions a b J rgen G Backhaus and Wolfgang Drechsler a University of Erfurt Germany b Tallinn University of Technology Estonia Nietzsche s impact and influence anywhere in and on our civilization was and is immense This has by now been widely recognized in almost all areas even in the hard sciences see Babich 1999 but Nietzsche is still completely understudied in the field of economics This is all the more surprising because in influence paths both serious e g Joseph A Schumpeter and popular ones e g Ayn Rand seem obvious and because in some of his works especially Das Menschliche 1878 1886 a focus on economics is hard to miss It would thus be only likely that he had some sort of significant influence there yet one can find hardly any references in the Nietzsche or economics literature on what kind of influence that might have been or still is To remedy this situation the idea to plan an exploratory conference on Nietzsche and Economics arose Because of the difficult and indeed unusual topic we found it necessary to even start with a pre conference where the issues questions sources and possible approaches would be discussed This pre conference took place in Heilbronn in the framework of the Heilbronn Symposia on Economics and the Social Sciences in June 2000

Social Institutions and the Politics of Recognition Tony Burns, 2020-08-19 The first of three volumes this definitive study explores the politics of social institutions from the time of the ancient Greeks to the Reformation in the sixteenth century Tony Burns focuses on those civil society institutions occupying the intermediate social space which exists between the family or household on the one hand and what Hegel refers to as the strictly political state on the other. Arguing that the internal affairs of social institutions are a legitimate concern for students of politics, he focuses on the notion of authority together with that of an individual's station and its duties. Burns discusses the work of such key thinkers as Plato, Aristotle, Cicero, Seneca, Epictetus, Marcus Aurelius, St. Paul, St. Augustine, St. Thomas Aquinas, Marsilius of Padua, Nicholas of Cusa, Jean Bodin, Charles Loyseau, John Calvin, Martin Luther, and Gerrard Winstanley. He considers what they have said about the relationship that exists between superiors in positions of authority and their subordinates within hierarchical social institutions. Sociology of Religion Joachim Wach, 2019-03-20 This book first published in 1947 presents the then new subject of sociology of religion in systematic and historical theology and in the science of religion in political theory and the social sciences in philosophy and psychology in philology and anthropology. Its intention is to bridge the gulf between the study of religion and the social sciences, an exercise that draws strongly upon cultural anthropology. Criminology Theory Frank Williams III, Marilyn McShane, 2015-03-02 This highly acclaimed criminology text presents an up to date review of rational choice theories including deterrence, shaming and routine activities. It also incorporates current examples of deterrence research regarding domestic violence, drunk driving and capital punishment and features thought provoking discussion of the relativity of crime. The authors explore the crime problem, its context and causes of crime. The organization of the text reflects the fact that the etiology of crime must be at the heart of criminology. It examines contemporary efforts to redefine crime by focusing on family violence, hate crimes, white collar misconduct with violent consequences and other forms of human behavior often neglected by criminologists. Extensive discussion of evolving laws is included and while the prevalence of the scientific method in the field of criminology is highlighted, the impact of ideology on explanations of crime is the cornerstone of the book.
