Social Interaction Candace Clark, Howard Robboy, 1992-03-15 These 38 articles teach students sociology from a social interactionist point of view Included are both classic documents and recent sociological debates and issues Social

The Production of Reality Jodi O'Brien, 2006 This social psychology reader contains readings from popular literature as well as from peer reviewed journals and framing essays written by the editors All articles have been chosen with their readability and appropriateness for an undergraduate audience Understanding Comparative Politics Mehran Kamrava, 2002-11-01 Comparative politics has undergone significant theoretical changes in recent decades Particularly since the 1980s a new generation of scholars have revamped and rejuvenated the study of the subject Mehran Kamrava examines current and past approaches to the study of comparative politics and proposes a new framework for analysis This is achieved through a comparative examination of state and social institutions the interactions that occur between them and the political cultures within which they operate The book also offers a concise and detailed synthesis of existing comparative frameworks that up to now at least have encountered analytical shortcomings on their own Although analytically different in its arguments and emphasis from the current Mainstream genre of literature on comparative politics the present study is a logical outgrowth of the scholarly works of the last decade or so It will be essential reading for all students of comparative politics Contemporary Readings in Sociology Kathleen Odell Korgen, 2008-02-29 This reader was developed to be used in numerous courses taught in sociology It is appropriate for an introductory course as well as a social problems or special topics course The readings have been selected from numerous well respected sociology journals and they have been edited to make them more user friendly for the undergraduate student This reader allows undergraduate students to read about the major topics in sociology in the words of the original authors The reader includes a topic guide to help the instructor better integrate the material into their course and well crafted section openers place each article in context for the student This series of readings has been vetted by an Advisory Board of sociology instructors to ensure quality Discourse and Knowledge Teun A. van Dijk, 2014-07-17 Both discourse and knowledge are fundamental concepts but they are often treated separately The first book to adopt a multidisciplinary approach to studying the relationship between these concepts Discourse and Knowledge introduces the new field of epistemic discourse analysis and uses a wide range of examples to illustrate the theory The Production of Reality Jodi A. O'Brien, Peter Kollock, 2001-02-20 In today's schools administrators must have an active plan for creating and maintaining a healthy safe environment for students and staff This book will help administrators create such a plan for their school and the loose leaf notebook format allows the reader to add their own ideas Society & Culture , Theoretical Sociology Seth Abrutyn, Kevin McCaffree, 2021-03-30 Since Durkheim's influential work a century ago sociological theory has been among the most integrative and useful tools for social scientists across many disciplines Sociological theory has nevertheless due to its usefulness expanded so very broadly that some wonder whether the concept of general theory or even the attempt to link middle range theories is still of any use This book a collection of top theorists reflecting on the present and future of the craft addresses this most important question Taking their lead from Jonathan Turner s important recent work and drawing on their own broad experience Seth Abrutyn and Kevin McCaffree have organized the chapters in this book from the general integrative and review focused bookend chapters to more specific chapters on innovations in theory construction at the micro meso and macro levels Moreover the book s microsociological content on interpersonal violence solidarity identity and emotion coheres with chapters in mesosociological dynamics on class education and networks which in turn integrate with the chapters on inequality justice morality and cultural evolution found in the section on macrosociology The distinguished contributors share a distinct commitment to the development innovation and relevance of general sociological theory This volume is an invaluable sourcebook for advanced students and social science faculty interested in understanding how sociological theory s past and present are informing its future The Production of Reality Jodi O'Brien,1997 Institutions in Modern Society Jeffrey E. Nash,James M. Calonico,1993 To find more information about Rowman Littlefield titles please visit us at www rowmanlittlefield com Handbook of Research on Teaching Literacy Through the Communicative and Visual Arts James Flood,Shirley Brice Heath,Diane Lapp,2011 The Handbook of Research on Teaching Literacy Through the Communicative and Visual Arts a comprehensive overview of research on this topic extends conceptualizations of literacy to include all of the communicative arts reading writing speaking listening viewing and the visual arts of drama dance film art video and computer technology Readings from Emile Durkheim Prof Kenneth Thompson,2012-10-12 Emile Durkheim is regarded as a founding father of sociology and is studied in all basic sociology courses This handy textbook is a key collection of translations from Durkheim s major works

Sociology David Popenoe,1991 Includes bibliographical references and index It's in the Cards Lloyd Klein,1999-12-30 This is the first comprehensive account of the development of consumer credit Consumer credit is a vital force driving the development of our economic system Rather than look at consumer credit solely as an economic phenomenon Klein examines the social impact of the consumer credit industry within the framework of economic and cultural change His analysis offers a concise examination of the industry from the perspective of marketing the creating of material and experiential products and the product distribution mechanisms The discussion of changes within the bankruptcy structure accounts for the creation of overzealous consumer spending and the implementation of controls over individual consumer credit This will be of interest to scholars or students concentrating in economic sociology stratification and cultural studies Reconfiguring Relations in the Empty Nest Magdalena Żadkowska,Marta Skowrońska,Christophe Giraud,Filip Schmidt,2024-02-20 This edited volume traverses the spectrum of experiences that take place after children leave the family home and parents find themselves in the empty nest stage of life Rather than focusing on measuring the intensity of empty nest syndrome or asking whether parents marital satisfaction increases or decreases in this phase the authors present rich qualitative data from across Poland and France to show that there is great variation in how families experience the empty nest developing both a study on intimacy and love and on family solidarity Throughout the book themes of mixed emotions nuanced attitudes contradictions and dissonance are explored while shedding light on supporting actors of the empty nest transition such as family pets and material objects

The Routledge International Handbook of Interactionism Dirk vom Lehn, Natalia Ruiz-Junco, Will Gibson, 2021-05-26 The Routledge International Handbook of Interactionism demonstrates the promise and diversity of the interactionist perspective in social science today providing students and practitioners with an overview of the impressive developments in interactionist theory methods and research Thematically organized it explores the history of interactionism and the contemporary state of the field considering the ways in which scholars approach topics that are central to interactionism As such it presents discussions of self identity gender and sexuality race emotions social organization media and the internet and social problems With attention to new developments in methods and methodologies including digital ethnography visual methods and research ethics the authors also engage with new areas of investigation that have emerged in light of current societal developments such as policing and police violence interactionism beyond binaries and social media Providing a comprehensive overview of the current state and possible future of interactionist research it will appeal to interactionist scholars as well as to established sociologists and students of sociology who have an interest in latest developments in interactionism
