A South African Kingdom Elizabeth A. Eldredge, 2002-06-06 The Basotho kingdom emerged and consolidated in the dramatic and dangerous environment of nineteenth century South Africa In this 2003 book Elizabeth Eldredge provides a rich description of local agriculture iron working and craft industries bringing out the resourceful responses of the Basotho to the challenges of drought and famine and explaining the dynamics of the competition for land During the colonial period regional economic integration increasingly influenced local production land use and internal politics and drew the Basotho into the regional migrant labour system Throughout these turbulent years the overriding interest of the Basotho was the pursuit of security Dr Eldredge analyzes the epic struggle which bound together rich and poor chiefs and commoners and men and women in a largely successful effort to sustain this fragile and innovative society in the face of political threats and environmental challenges

Inland Waters of Southern Africa: An Ecological Perspective B.R. Allanson, R.C. Hart, J.H. O'Keeffe, R.D. Robarts, 2012-12-06 Limnology the study of inland waters had its genesis in Europe about the turn of the century The studies of Forel on Lake Geneva were of seminal value at this time It prospered under the early guidance of Thienemann Naumann and Wesenberg Lund in Europe and soon transplanted of Birge and Juday in North America to name just a few early spirits Now limnology is a respectable scientific discipline taught at many universities and limnologists are recognized as important contributors to our understanding of how this fragile spaceship functions All this acknowledged it must also be acknowledged that limnology is not yet a globally comprehensive science To be sure much is known about globally applicable processes and the structural elements of aquatic ecosystems worldwide but limnological emphases interests and concerns remain essentially European and North American in balance Much is known about lakes and rivers in less than one fifth of the world's land area northern temperate regions rather little is known about inland waters elsewhere
