Liberation Sociology Joe R. Feagin, Hernan Vera, Kimberly Ducey, 2015-11-17 Many people of all ages today continue to be attracted to sociology and other social sciences because of their promise to contribute to better political social and moral understandings of themselves and their social worlds and often because they hope it will help them to build a better society In a world of new movements and deepening economic inequality following the Great Recession this new edition is vital It features dozens of new examples from the latest research with an emphasis on the next generation of liberation sociologists The authors expand on the previous edition with the inclusion of sections on decolonisation paradigms in criminology critical speciesism and studies of environmental racism and environmental privilege There is an expanded focus on participatory action research and increased coverage of international liberation social scientists Work by psychologists anthropologists theologians historians and others who have developed a liberation orientation for their disciplines is also updated and expanded Beyond Sociology's Tower of Babel Bernard S. Phillips, 2001 To look outside the discipline of sociology is to find little credibility given to the field as science Bernard Phillips argues that we are learning to see ever more clearly the contradiction between scientific standards and what in fact has been achieved by sociology Instead of knowledge based on the full range of our findings we have separate pieces of knowledge located within the diverse areas of the discipline and fads and fashions in the ideas and terms we use with relatively little cumulative development This has led many to question whether any scientific method can be applied to human behavior If the arguments and alternative interpretations in this book on the problematic nature of sociology's use of scientific method prove to be credible and fruitful then the implications are profound For example the conclusions drawn for every single social science study that has ever been conducted would be open to reinterpretation because they fail to take into account systematically the enormous complexity involved within any given instance of human behavior Our present approach assumes implicitly that the pieces of the human jigsaw puzzle can at some point be put together so as to yield a coherent picture Yet as Phillips shows if each piece is itself deficient then no coherent picture emerges when we attempt to put the pieces together Refusing to take the current fragmentation of sociology as inevitable Phillips offers a clear vision through a series of heuristic web images of how sociologists might achieve the cumulative development and credibility that are the hallmarks of any science His research draws heavily on the works of classical and contemporary theorists philosophers and historians of science as well as on postmodernist critiques and responses to postmodernism This reconstruction will be useful for courses in method in the study of the classical tradition of sociology Bernard Phillips was introduced to sociology at Columbia University by C Wright Mills A former professor of sociology at Boston University cofounder of the ASA Section on Sociological Practice and founder of the Sociological Imagination Group his publications emphasize methodology and theory History of Structuralism: The

Theology for a Liberating Church Alfred T. Hennelly, 1989 Freedom is a fundamental Christian theological category as much a challenge to construct a new way of seeing oneself and others as it is an announcement of what Christ has already done for us in his death and resurrection Liberation theology is most simply the effort to spell out what such freedom means for Christians in the twentieth and twenty first centuries This book has as its principle premise the conviction that if we are to construct a North American liberation theology we must begin listening to and understanding Latin American theology not so much as a model to be slavishly followed but as a challenge to our own cultural political and even religious assumptions The focus thus is not so much on the theoretical meaning of Christian freedom but on its practice and more exactly its praxis that is to say the dialectic between theory and practice After focusing on the creation and development of liberating theological methods and sources and above all the revitalization and renewal of structures that will contribute to the development of a liberated and liberating church Fr Hennelly ends with an analysis of the most recent and the most important vatican document on liberation theology The Instruction of Christian Freedom and Liberation which he sees as an acknowledgement by the universal church that the theme of liberation is central to the meaning of Christian theology

Psychology of Liberation Maritza Montero, Christopher C. Sonn, 2009-04-28 Since the mid 1980s the psychology of liberation movement has been a catalyst for collective and individual change in communities throughout Latin America and beyond and recent political developments are making its powerful transformative ideas more relevant than ever before Psychology of Liberation Theory and Applications updates the activist frameworks developed by Ignacio Martin Baro and Paulo Freire with compelling stories from the frontlines of conflict in the developing and developed worlds as social science and psychological practice are allied with struggles for peace justice and equality In these chapters liberation is presented as both an ongoing process and a core dimension of wellbeing entailing the reconstruction of social identity and the transformation of all parties involved both oppressed and oppressors It also expands the social consciousness of professionals bringing more profound meaning to practice and enhancing related areas such as peace psychology as shown in articles such as these Philippines the role of liberation movements in the transition to democracy Venezuela liberation psychology as a therapeutic intervention with street youth South Africa the movement for representational knowledge Muslim world religion the state and the gendering of human rights Ireland linking personal and political development Australia addressing issues of racism identity and immigration Colombia building cultures of peace from the devastation of war Psychology of Liberation demonstrates the commitment to overcome social injustices and oppression The book is a critical resource for social and community psychologists as well as policy analysts It can also be used as a text for graduate courses in psychology sociology social work and community studies Social Justice and Social Work Michael J. Austin, 2013-03-26 Edited by a leader in the field this book presents and ties social justice to the core values of social work across the curriculum It presents the history and philosophy that supports social justice and ties it to ethical concepts which help students understand social justice as a core social work value

The Emergence of Liberation Theology Christian Smith, 1991-08-27 Liberation theology is a school of Roman Catholic thought which teaches that a primary duty of the church must be to promote social and economic justice In this book Christian Smith explains how and why the liberation theology movement emerged and succeeded when and where it did

Anti-Americanism Paul Hollander, In its domestic manifestations anti Americanism may be equated with alienation or an embittered radical social criticism Abroad it may take the form of nationalism anti capitalism and protest against modernity This volume examines the phenomenon within American society and aboard especially among intellectuals

A Rumor of Angels Peter L. Berger, 1970-01-06 Written by one of the most revered sociologists of the of the 20th century A Rumor of Angels gives readers a unique insight into the complicated relationship between religion and society It is undeniable that religion has had a profound effect on civilization Readers will learn just how religion and society affect one another and how that relationship has changed in modern times with the secularization of mainstream society Questioning modern morality Peter Berger offers one of the most thought provoking books on religion in the 20th century Praise for Peter Berger A book of great practical wisdom by authors who have profound insight into the intellectual dynamics governing contemporary life Dallas Willard author of Knowing Christ Today

Introduction to the Old Testament Anthony R. Ceresko, 2001-01-01 Applying Norman Gottwald s thesis on Israel s origins Cereski argues that Israel was formed through a process of social revolution inspired by the memory of runaway slaves and their worship of a God whose cult mandated radical social equality and justice

Anarchism and Animal Liberation Anthony J. Nocella II, Richard J. White, Erika Cudworth, 2015-07-20 Building upon anarchist critiques of racism sexism ableism and classism this collection of new essays melds anarchism with animal advocacy in arguing that speciesism is an ideological and social norm rooted in hierarchy and inequality Rising from the anarchist influenced Occupy Movement this book brings together international scholars and activists who challenge us all to look more critically into the causes of speciesism and to take a broader view of peace social justice and the nature of oppression Animal advocates have long argued that speciesism will end if the humanity adopts a vegan ethic This concept is developed into the argument that the vegan ethic has the most promise if it is also anti capitalist and against all forms of domination

Liberating Service Learning and the Rest of Higher Education Civic Engagement Randy Stoecker, 2016-05-23 This book questions the prioritization and theoretical philosophical underpinnings of the core concepts of service learning 1 learning 2 service 3 community and 4 change By liberating service learning the author suggests reversing the prioritization of the concepts starting with change then community then service and then learning In doing so the author clarifies the benefits and purpose of this work arguing that it will create greater pedagogical and community impact This book challenges and hopefully will change our thinking about higher education community engagement

The Political Theory of Liberation Theology John R. Pottenger, 1989-09-14 This is the first in depth look at the political theoretical structure of liberation theology Pottenger shows how liberation theologians writing from the perspective of the poor and oppressed denounce modernity and especially capitalism for having caused poverty and military dictatorships He evaluates the liberation theologians methodological approach to political theory and the crucial role of Marxism He also analyzes liberation theologians assessment of Latin American political economy and their moral arguments for political activism in response to these assessments Pottenger addresses the general question of to what extent liberation theology has achieved its ultimate objective of a just society of the convergence of traditional social values and modern political science

Liberation and Technology Sheikheldin, Gussai H.,2018-02-27 The most fundamental difference between developing and developed societies is technology in a broad yet specific sense so states the author of this important study Liberation and Technology Development possibilities in pursuing technological autonomy The ways in which technology is developed institutionalized animated and celebrated form the core of development human economic environmental etc and ultimately civilization itself But techno spheres are not only technical They are also social political and ideological For societies and countries that have long been kept from realizing their own prosperity and dignity development is also liberation The main treatise of this book is that each developing society ought to seek to achieve technological autonomy in its quest for positive transformations and prosperity for its people Technological autonomy is about attaining a high level of self determination in planning and managing technological affairs Attaining endogenous capacity to guide and execute decisions on production and innovation creating and transferring key technological products and services steering relevant foreign and local investment as well as trade setting own priorities of development free from external manipulation are goals that must be central to such planning efforts With evidence and argument and in plain language this book suggests a novel way of thinking about development through envisioning and building better techno social systems For these reasons this book is a welcome addition to the body of ideas informing practitioners and theorists in the field of development political leaders economists sociologists engineers technologists scientists scholars planners and activists who are involved in relevant development processes and liberation struggles

Socio-Poiesis: A Theory on Liberation and Suffering Seyed Javad Miri,2025-11-27 Socio Poiesis is a neologism coined to integrate and intersect theory and practice across several branches of the humanities including social sciences psychoanalysis practical wisdom Eastern philosophies ethics household management and political philosophy In this theory there is a significant point of convergence with the ideas of thinkers like Erich Fromm Adam Schaff Adam Blaner Jacob Moreno Robin George Collingwood and others

Bureaucratic Culture and Escalating World Problems Bernard S Phillips,J. David Knottnerus,2015-12-03 On the fiftieth anniversary of the publication of The Sociological Imagination by C Wright Mills the bureaucratic ethos that he described continues to define our world more than ever before In Bureaucratic Culture and Escalating World Problems eleven contributors systematically continue and develop Mills broad vision of the scientific method They analyse escalating bureaucratic barriers that prevent us from solving our many pressing social environmental and economic problems Invisible Crisis of Contemporary Society Bernard S Phillips, Louis C. Johnston, 2015-12-03 Is there a growing gap in today's world between cultural aspirations and their fulfillment a gap that is increasing social problems of all kinds If so what forces are producing that gap How can these forces be changed To answer these questions Phillips and Johnston employ a very broad approach to the scientific method drawing evidence from a wide variety of data and sources including sociologists psychologists political scientists historians philosophers educators psychiatrists and novelists They find substantial evidence for a widening gap suggesting an invisible crisis throughout contemporary society They also find substantial evidence that a simplistic and static metaphysical stance or worldview is largely responsible for that gap and that an alternative worldview can work to close that gap
