Victorian Science and Literature, Part II vol 6 Gowan Dawson, Bernard Lightman, Claire Brock, Marwa Elshakry, Sujit Sivasundaram, Ralph O'Connor, Roger Luckhurst, Justin Sausman, 2024-10-28 This eight volume reset edition in two parts collects rare primary sources on Victorian science literature and culture The sources cover both scientific writing that has an aesthetic component what might be called the literature of science and more overtly literary texts that deal with scientific matters

Marxist Historiographies Q. Edward Wang, Georg G. Iggers, 2015-07-16 Marxist Historiographies is the first book to examine the ebb and flow of Marxist historiography from a global and cross cultural perspective Since the eighteenth century few schools of historical thought have exerted a more lasting impact than Marxism and this impact extends far beyond the Western world within which it is most commonly analysed Edited by two highly respected authors in the field this book deals with the effect of Marxism on historical writings not only in parts of Europe where it originated but also in countries and regions in Africa Asia North and South America and the Middle East Rather than presenting the chapters geographically it is structured with respect to how Marxist influence was shown in the works of historians in a particular area This title takes a dual approach to the subject some chapters are national in scope addressing the Marxist impact on historical practices within a country whereas others deal with the varied expressions of Marxist historiography throughout a wider region Taking a truly global perspective on this topic Marxist Historiographies demonstrates clearly the breadth and depth of Marxism s influence in historical writing throughout the world and is essential reading for all students of historiography

Shovel Ready Bernard K. Means, 2013-01-25 Beginning in March 1933 with the excavation of the Marksville mound site in Louisiana and throughout the next decade ordinary citizens labored in New Deal jobs programs and participated in archaeological excavations across the United States Under the auspices of work relief programs people were provided the opportunity to explore and document American Indian villages and mounds important historic places and homes associated with events and people critical to the foundation of the country

Marriage in Human Society Manis Kumar Raha, 2023-01-01 Marriage as an institution was introduced among the human beings possible thousands of years ago Human being possible started with promiscuity and then moved to the structured forms of marriages It took no doubt many many years From one form of marriage is human being diversified marriage form into several During last couple of century or more several changes have taken place in marriage pattern forms methods ceremonies etc Still during recent decades only some anthropologists and other social scientists have showed much interest to study marriage These Three Volumes deals with marriage in different parts of the world and its different forms and types in great details But much emphasis has been given on different multiple marriages particularly polyandry its sub types and regions of origin and development of polyandry as practiced in different countries including India Emphasis has also been given on the question of determination and allocation of paternity and decline of polyandry and some other multiple marriages In this study special stress has been given on some of the marriage that is sexuality reproductively and paternity Also provide very good idea about different aspects of marriage and its types and forms The publisher and author of this book will be extremely happy if the reader considers this book as an important contribution to anthropology and other social sciences These volumes are useful for all those who are interested in Sociology Tribal Studies Anthropology and other Social Sciences Africa ,1928 Includes Proceedings of the Executive council and List of members also section Review of books African Theology Emmanuel Martey,2009-11-01 Two major strands of theology have developed in Africa inculturation and liberation each in response to different needs Emmanuel Martey s African Theology provides a clear scholarly examination of these two basic approaches solidly based on Martey s understanding of contemporary theology and his firsthand knowledge of Africa Martey first examines the historical background of each of these theological developments especially relating to cultural and political movements enveloping the continent in the 1970s In sub Saharan Africa struggles for independence from colonizers have resulted in inculturation theology The defining aspect of this theology is that it pushes its roots firmly in African culture and traditions In South Africa on the other hand Black Africans struggling against the oppressive systems of apartheid have turned to liberation theology Martey shows how the real hope for African theology lies in the dialectical encounter between these two approaches and in their potential for convergence The two foci of liberation and inculturation Martey says are not contradictory but complement each other African Theology concludes by challenging African theologians to weld together the praxis of inculturation with that of liberation in order to achieve an integrative vision for the continent Africana Journal ,1976
