Sourcebook On Land Law 3 E:

Sourcebook on Land Law S. H. Goo, 2002      Searching the Law, 3d Edition Frank Bae, Edward Bander, Francis Doyle, Joel Fishman, Paul Richert, 2021-12-13      A New Land Law Peter Sparkes, 2003-08-05

Peter Sparkes path breaking text on land law has been rewritten with two aims in mind to incorporate the seismic changes introduced by the Land Registration Act 2002 along with commonholds the explosion of human rights jurisprudence and the unremitting advance of judicial exposition and to accommodate the author's developing thinking on the structural aspects of the subject The book opens with a series of shorter chapters each exploring a fundamental building block registration houses flats and commonholds land ownership and its transactional powers social controls balanced by human rights to property fragmentation by time the doctrine of estates divisions of ownership and proprietary rights In terms of substantive chapters the book opens with discussion of the new transfer system paper based transfer alongside the evolution towards electronic conveyancing and the consequent changes to the proof of registered titles and to the registration curtain The new approach to adverse possession against registered titles has called for extended discussion as has the authoritative elucidation of the concept of adverse possession in Pye In terms of proprietary interests the fundamentals are seen as rights to transfer beneficial interests under trusts which are overreachable burdens which are endurable leases money charges such as mortgages which are redeemable and the obligations enforceable within the neighbour principle easements covenants and positive covenants being treated as a semi coherent whole An attempt has been made to assist students by moving some of the more arcane learning later into the book or into separate chapters where these matters might be more readily ignored by a candidate concerned primarily to prepare for an examination A massive amount of research and scholarship has gone into the book with impressive citation of cases articles and case notes and of other text books This newcomer on the scene is a considerable addition to the ranks of serious text books on land law and the author is to be congratulated The New Law Journal The scope of this work is ambitious it is a bold attempt to take the study of land law forward much more than a basic land law text book it would be a pleasure to be able to teach a course requiring students to cover the substance or the bulk of it whether in one or more modules a difficult blend of background and history massive referencing discussion of statute and case law all wrapped up in a text that is not too difficult to absorb The Law Teacher A most interesting and ground breaking book Michael Cardwell University of Leeds At last a brilliant land law book I think the approach is marvellous and will strongly recommend it to my students Keith Gompertz University of Central England takes a more modern approach to the area I am very impressed with the style layout and format It will be a good teaching tool and I am looking forward to using it Alison Dunn Newcastle Law School not baffling in the way land law texts tend to be Helen Taylor University of Teesside Excellent Professor Edward Burn City University

Source Book in Bioethics Albert R. Jonsen, Robert M. Veatch, LeRoy Walters, 1999-09-07 Government agencies and commissions courts and legislatures have during the past several decades produced reports rendered decisions and passed laws that have both defined the fundamental issues in the field of bioethics and established ways of managing them in our society Providing a history of these key bioethical decisions this Source Book in Bioethics is the first and only comprehensive collection of the critical public documents in biomedical ethics including many hard to find or out of print materials Covering the period from 1947 to 1995 this volume brings together core legislative documents court briefs and reports by professional organizations public bodies and governments around the world Sections on human experimentation care of the terminally ill genetics human reproduction and emerging areas in bioethics include such pivotal works as The Nuremberg Code The Tuskegee Report and In the Matter of Baby M as well less readily available documents as The Declaration of Inuyama the Council for International Organizations of Medical Sciences statement on genetic engineering and The Warnock Committee Report on reproductive technologies from the United Kingdom Three eminent scholars in the field provide brief introductions to each document explaining the significance of these classic sources This historical volume will be a standard text for courses in bioethics health policy and death and dying and a primary reference for anyone interested in this increasingly relevant field Land Law Louise Tee,2013-01-10 This book analyses the key debates and policy issues within the area of land law The chapters cover proprietary and non proprietary rights registration easements leases co ownership and trusts mortgages and land law and human rights It is essential reading for students and practitioner alike Modern Studies in Property Law - Volume 9 Heather Conway,Robin Hickey,2017-07-27 This book contains a collection of peer reviewed papers presented at the Eleventh Biennial Modern Studies in Property Law Conference held at Queen s University Belfast in April 2016 It is the ninth volume to be published under the name of the Conference The Conference and its published proceedings have become an established forum for property lawyers from around the world to showcase current research in the discipline This collection reflects the diversity and contemporary relevance of modern research in property law Following a foreword from the keynote speaker at the Conference Queen s alumnus Lord Kerr of Tonaghmore the chapters address a range of issues from the nature of land law and property rights through claims to the home and digital assets to the growing debate on the nature of public property Collectively the chapters demonstrate the vibrancy and importance of property law in dealing with modern concerns across the common law world Land Law Ben McFarlane,Nicholas Hopkins,Sarah Nield,2015 An authoritative course text designed to provide a standalone resource for students It contains a blend of carefully selected key cases legislation and academic debate linked by substantial author commentary Whitaker's Cumulative Book List ,1983 Consumer Sourcebook Matthew Miskelly,2006 Consumer Sourcebook provides a comprehensive digest of accessible resources and advisory information for the American consumer This new edition identifies and describes some 23 000 programs and services available to the general public at little or no cost These services are provided by federal state county and local governments and their agencies as well as by organizations and associations Consumer affairs and customer services departments for corporations are also listed as well as related publications multimedia products general tips and recommendations for consumers The master index is arranged alphabetically by name and by subject term      The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2006      Water Rights Reform Bryan Randolph Bruns,Claudia Ringler,Ruth Suseela Meinzen-Dick,2005-01-01 Rights to water are increasingly crucial and increasingly contested across the globe Urbanization industrialization environmental degradation agricultural intensification rising per capita water use increasing population and other social political and economic transformations contribute to growing scarcity and demand for better management of water resources In responding to these challenges the world can draw on a rich heritage of institutions for regulating rights to water and resolving disputes and a diversity of institutional arrangements that demonstrate great ingenuity in designing solutions to fit the conditions and priorities of various river basins However policy discussion in water management has often been impoverished by narrow polarization around a few idealized models of centrally integrated management or water commoditization even though these comprise only a small and very incomplete subset of the institutional options available for effective management The authors in this book expand the range of reflection and analysis of water rights reforms offering insights aimed especially at those seeking practical pathways to improve equity efficiency and sustainability in access to water      Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1973      Making and Unmaking Intellectual Property Mario Biagioli,Peter Jaszi,Martha Woodmansee,2015-07-31 Rules regulating access to knowledge are no longer the exclusive province of lawyers and policymakers and instead command the attention of anthropologists economists literary theorists political scientists artists historians and cultural critics This burgeoning interdisciplinary interest in intellectual property has also expanded beyond the conventional categories of patent copyright and trademark to encompass a diverse array of topics ranging from traditional knowledge to international trade Though recognition of the central role played by knowledge economies has increased there is a special urgency associated with present day inquiries into where rights to information come from how they are justified and the ways in which they are deployed Making and Unmaking Intellectual Property edited by Mario Biagioli Peter Jaszi and Martha Woodmansee presents a range of diverse and even conflicting contemporary perspectives on intellectual property rights and the contested sources of authority associated with them Examining fundamental concepts and challenging conventional narratives including those centered around authorship invention and the public domain this book provides a rich introduction to an important intersection of law culture and material production      Finance Law Stephen Connelly,2025-06-16 For the student who wishes to understand law as it is practised in a modern financial context Finance Law offers the only up to date university level textbook which explains legal principles as they are applied in today's advanced financial transactions Essential for any student or researcher seeking an introduction to this complex and fast moving world this text is based on the author's extensive teaching experience in finance law covers the modern form of credit facilities agreements security
