 My thought is me that is why I cannot stop I exist because I think and I can't stop myself from thinking Jean Paul Sartre Nausea Writing the Mind Representing Consciousness from Proust to Darrieussecq explores the works of seven ground breaking thinkers and novelists of recent history to compare and contrast the varying representations of the conscious and the unconscious mind Grounding his study in the writings of philosophers like Jean Paul Sartre and Marcel Proust Simon Kemp explores the non literary influences of science faith and philosophy as presented in their works demonstrates how writers learn from and sometimes deviate from preceding generations and how they agree or disagree with their peers Kemp s elegant study also charts the rise and wane of Freudian influence on literature through the twentieth century and the emergence of cognitive and neo Darwinian ideas at the dawn of the twenty first In the work of these seven writers we discover radically different understandings of how consciousness and the unconscious mind are constituted which are the most salient characteristics of mental life and even what it is that defines a mind at all News Notes of California

 Almost all of us know French literature even if we don't know French because it is probably the second largest and certainly the most translated into English And even if we don't read we would have seen film and television versions think Count of Monte Cristo and even a musical rendition Les Mis So this is a particularly interesting volume in the literature series since it covers French literature from the earliest times to the present It is also a particularly rich literature espousing every genre from poetry to novel to biography to drama and adopting every style including realism and surrealism and expressing the views of all classes and political stands with recently strong feminist and gay strains Obviously the core dictionary section includes among its panoply of often substantial and detailed entries hundreds of authors dozens of significant works the various styles mentioned above and many others events that have impacted literature such as the Dreyfus Affair and the Algerian War and literary prizes The chronology manages to cover about 1 200 years of literary output And the introduction sets it all out neatly from one historical and literary period to the next The bibliography broken down by period and author directs us to further reading in both French and English Les Livres de L'année ,1927 The New International
