South Africa An Annotated Bibliography With Analytical Introductions:

South Africa Newell Maynard Stultz, 1989 South Africa as Apartheid Ends Newell Maynard Stultz,1993 Historical Dictionary of South Africa Christopher Saunders, Peter Limb, 2020-12-15 As the most influential and powerful country on the entire continent of Africa an understanding of South Africa's past and its present trends is crucial in appreciating where South Africans are going to and from where they have come South Africa changed dramatically in 1994 when apartheid was dismantled and it became a democratic state Since 2000 when the previous edition appeared further big changes occurred with the rise of new political leaders and of a new black middle class There were also serious problems in governance in public health and the economy but with a remarkable popular resilience too This third edition of Historical Dictionary of South Africa contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 600 cross referenced entries on important personalities as well as aspects of the country's politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Information Sources of Political Science Stephen W. Green, Douglas J. Ernest, 2005-07-15 A thoroughly South Africa revised and updated new edition of the world's leading comprehensive bibliography of American and international politics The eagerly anticipated new edition of the widely acclaimed Information Sources of Political Science is the most comprehensive English language political bibliography available offering the surest way for students and researchers to get straight to the information they need Like no other volume it provides a fully rounded view of the field both in the United States and internationally including relevant works in history economics sociology and education Its 2 500 entries cover a wide variety of source types indexing and abstracting services major bibliographical tools encyclopedias dictionaries handbooks directories statistical compilations and more In addition this edition is the first to feature substantial coverage of electronic resources both databases and Internet sites Each source receives its own annotation with entries grouped in categories to bring together like works for easy comparison This work is a cornerstone reference for academic and public libraries Special Bibliography Series United States Air Force Academy. Library, 1997 Special Bibliography Series .1957 Africa and U.S. National Interests Frances K. Scott, 1997 Africa, Asia, and South America Since 1800 A. J. H. Latham, 1995 A reference for graduate and undergraduate students presenting the bibliographic details and sometimes describing and evaluating the content of over 5 000 books in English most published since 1945 and many quite recently but also some earlier works of enduring importance A section of works on all three continents is followed by sections on each which first consider the continent as a whole then each country usually by chronological periods and topics such as economics politics and society Indexed only by author and editor but the table of contents is detailed enough to provide adequate access Distributed in the US by St Martin's Press Annotation copyright Book News Inc Portland Or American Reference Books Annual Juneal M. Chenoweth, 1995-04-15 With more than 1600 descriptive and evaluative entries ARBA continues its 26 year tradition as a comprehensive review source for reference works published or distributed in the US ARBA 95 encompasses the subject spectrum covering such broad areas as general reference history education economics and business and science and technology Of special note in this edition is increased coverage of CD ROM products More than 350 reviewers provide reviews that cover strengths and weaknesses of the reference works Reference Services Review Bibliographie Mensuelle United Nations Library (Geneva, Switzerland),1991 Bibliographie Internationale de South Africa Newell M. Stultz,1993 Guides to Library Collection Development John Science Politique .1992 Thomas Gillespie, Ralph J. Folcarelli, 1994-08-15 Intended to enhance collection development in school public and college libraries this volume lists and annotates approximately 1 500 significant bibliographies published from 1985 through 1993 with some earlier but still useful publications Annotations indicate scope of the work size often the number of entries kinds of material included purpose arrangement nature of entries indexes special features and a recommendation Author title and subject indexes provide easy access to the entries With its deep and comprehensive coverage this work will help not only in the process of selecting and acquiring materials for the library but also in the process of identification of items for reference readers advisory interlibrary loan and collection evaluation Kosovo Julie Mertus, 1999-08-09 Explores the foundations of conflict in Kosovo charging that the international community s failure to support the Albanians in their initial passive resistance to Serbian repression led to violence Africana Library Collections, University of California, Berkeley Towards Africa-oriented Risk Analysis Models Korwa Gombe Adar, Richard O. Iroanya, F. O. C. Phyllis Bischof, 1993 Nwonwu, 2008 Risk analysis studies on Africa conducted by a number of international organisations have addressed a number of complex and interlocking socioeconomic and political issues largely painting a bleak picture of the continent These reports have been used by the Western countries as benchmarks for the flow of donor funds often with disastrous consequences The failure of the Structural Adjustment Programmes SAPs introduced by the Bretton Woods institutions in the 1970s and 1980s serve as a good example Taking cognisance of these interpretations the case studies in this volume have employed appropriate methodological conceptual and theoretical approaches with the objective of reaching balanced assessments on the underlying principles of risk and threat in Africa The authors take a more holistic view clearly defining the concept of risk and its corollaries and going beyond the somewhat limited view of those organisations which apply largely Eurocentric values to their assessments The Analytic Hierarchy Process Bruce L. Golden, Edward A. Wasil, Patrick T. Harker, 2012-12-06 Management science is a di scipl ine dedicated to the development of techniques that enable decision makers to cope with the increasing complexity of our world The early burst of excitement which was spawned by the development and successful applications of linear programming to problems in both the public and private sectors has challenged researchers to develop even more sophisticated methods to deal with the complex nature of decision making Sophistication however does not always trans 1 ate into more complex mathematics Professor Thomas L Saaty was working for the U S Defense Department and for the U S Department of State in the late 1960s and early 1970s In these positions Professor Saaty was exposed to some of the most complex decisions facing the world arms control the Middle East problem and the development of a transport system for a Third World country While having made major contributions to numerous areas of mathematics and the theory of operations research he soon realized that one did not need complex mathematics to come to grips with these decision problems just the right mathematics Thus Professor Saaty set out to develop a mathematically based technique for analyzing complex situations which was sophisticated in its simplicity This technique became known as the Analytic Hierarchy Process AHP and has become very successful in helping decision makers to structure and analyze a wide range of problems
