South Africa In Transition New Theoretical Perspectives:

South Africa in Transition Aletta J. Norval, David Howarth, 2016-07-27 South Africa in Transition utilises new theoretical perspectives to describe and explain central dimensions of the democratic transition in South Africa during the late 1980s and early 1990s covering changes in the politics of gender and education the political discourses of the ANC NP and the white right constructions of identity in South Africa s black townships and rural areas the role of political violence in the transition and accounts of the democratization process itself

South Africa in Transition David R. Howarth, Aletta J. Norval, 2003

The Legacies of Law Jens Meierhenrich, 2008-10-13 Focusing on South Africa during the period 1650 2000 this book examines the role of law in making democracy work in changing societies The Legacies of Law sheds light on the neglected relationship between path dependence and the law Meierhenrich argues that legal norms and institutions even illiberal ones have an important and hitherto undertheorized structuring effect on democratic outcomes Under certain conditions law appears to reduce uncertainty in democratization by invoking common cultural backgrounds and experiences In instances where interacting adversaries share qua law reasonably convergent mental models transitions from authoritarian rule are shown to be less intractable Meierhenrich s historical analysis of the evolution of law and its effects in South Africa during the period 1650 2000 compared with a short study of Chile from 1830 1990 shows how and when legal norms and institutions serve as historical causes to both liberal and illiberal rule

Issues and Methods in Comparative Politics Todd Landman, 2002-01-04 Why do we compare nations How do we compare nations What are the big issues in comparative politics Issues and Methods in Comparative Politics provides students with the answers to these fundamental questions It is an accessible and user friendly text which explores the strategies of comparative research in political science This book has been designed to make a complex subject easy and accessible to students Features of this textbook include briefing boxes located throughout which explain key concepts and ideas suggestions for further reading at the end of each chapter a glossary of terms

South Africa, Past, Present and Future Tony Binns, Alan Lester, Etienne Nel, 2014-09-25 This is the first book to combine a discussion of post apartheid development initiatives with an extended historical analysis of South Africa s dynamic race class gender and ethnic identities Bringing together the research of an historical geographer and two development geographers the book enables us to locate the post apartheid transition in a broad historical and spatial perspective Within this perspective the limitations as well as the achievements of South Africa s current transformation are highlighted

Disabling Globalization Gillian Patricia Hart, 2002 An unequivocally excellent work of scholarship that makes significant theoretical and empirical contributions to the understanding of globalization and the working of contemporary neo liberal capitalism Hart is especially innovative in placing the study of Taiwanese industrialists in South Africa in relation to both the agrarian history of Taiwan and China and the way that Taiwanese overseas firms have operated in places other than South Africa It is a very rare combination of talents and knowledge that makes such a study possible James Ferguson author of Expectations of Modernity Political Memory and the Aesthetics of Care Mihaela Mihai, 2022-01-11 With this nuanced and interdisciplinary work political theorist Mihaela Mihai tackles several interrelated questions How do societies remember histories of systemic violence Who is excluded from such histories cast of characters And what are the political costs of selective remembering in the present Building on insights from political theory social epistemology and feminist and critical race theory Mihai argues that a double erasure often structures hegemonic narratives of complex violence of widespread heterogeneous complicity and of impure resistances not easily subsumed to exceptionalist heroic models In dialogue with care ethicists and philosophers of art she then suggests that such narrative reductionism can be disrupted aesthetically through practices of mnemonic care that is through the hermeneutical labor that critical artists deliver thematically and formally within communities space of meaning Empirically the book examines both consecrated and marginalized artists who tackled the memory of Vichy France communist Romania and apartheid South Africa Despite their specificities these contexts present us with an opportunity to analyze similar mnemonic dynamics and to recognize the political impact of dissenting artistic production Crossing disciplinary boundaries the book intervenes in debates over collective responsibility historical injustice and the aesthetics of violence within political theory memory studies social epistemology and transitional justice

hitman and even what it is like to operate as a hitman or woman Since 1994 South Africa has seen a worrying increase in the commercialisation of murder and has been rocked by several high profile contract killings Drawing on his research of over a thousand incidents of hired assassinations from 2000 to 2016 Shaw reveals how these murders are used to exert a mafia type control over the country's legal and illegal economic activity Contracted assassinations and the organised criminal activity behind them contain sinister linkages with the underworld most visibly in relation to disputes over tenders and access to government resources State security actors increasingly mediate relations between the under and upper worlds with serious implications for the long term success of the post apartheid democratic project States of Imagination Thomas Blom Hansen, Finn Stepputat, 2001-12-12 Theoretically sophisticated ethnographies of different aspects of various governments showing the importance of such work to anthropology and to the study of states in general Lost Communities, Living Memories Sean Field, 2001 Between 1913 and 1989 some four million South Africans were forcibly removed from their homes to enforce residential segregation along racial lines This study records and interprets the memories of some of the Capetonians who were relocated as a result of the infamous Group Areas Act Former residents of Windermere Tramway Road in Sea Point District Six Lower Claremont and Simon's Town narrate their experiences Nordic Voices, 2009-01-01 This volume represents the work of sixteen authors who all work at different universities and other academic institutions in the Nordic countries It provides insight into the diversity of research being conducted in the northernmost parts of Europe Although it would be incorrect to assert that research in this far away part of Europe represents something drastically different than that done in other parts of the world it would be equally incorrect to maintain that being at the outskirts on the cusp or on the periphery _ whichever way one wishes to describe the position of the Nordic countries in relation to the rest of the world does not influence the ways in which educational processes phenomena and their consequences are viewed These sixteen Nordic Voices discuss with readers different issues regarding teaching and researching Comparative and International Education in the Nordic countries The editors began their collaboration in 2006 working together to revitalize the Nordic Comparative and International Education Society NOCIES was officially re established in May 2008 Halla B Holmarsdottir who is from Iceland lives and works in Norway where she is Associate Professor in Multicultural and International Education at Oslo University College Mina O Dowd whose father is from the USA and mother is Norwegian lives and works in Sweden Nordic Voices Teaching and Researching Comparative and International Education in the Nordic Countries is a result of the collaboration that began over three years ago French Beans and Food Scares Susanne Freidberg, 2004-10-21 Explores the cultural economies of two non traditional commodity trades between Africa and Europe one anglophone the other francophone in order to show not only why they differ but also how both have felt the fall out of the wealthy world's food scares Critical Reflections on the Language of Neoliberalism in Education Spyros Themelis, 2020-12-29 Recognizing the dominance of neoliberal forces in education this volume offers a range of critical
