South African Jewish Voices:

South African Jewish Voices Robert Kalechofsky, Roberta Kalechofsky, 1982 Echad 2 The Kasrils Affair Joel B. Pollak, 2009 The inside story of a prominent Jewish politician outside Israel vehemently attacking the Israeli government and its policies publicly and self consciously as a Jew Jewish Serials of the World Robert Singerman, 2000-11-30 Jewish journalism history is a growing field of active research as evidenced by the growing number of new serials devoted to it Given the geographic extent of the Jewish diaspora the Jewish press offers valuable primary source materials for any historical study of the Jewish people The social and intellectual history of the Jews in modern times can similarly be advanced by an examination of the Jewish press of the world This volume the first supplement to Jewish Serials of the World A Research Bibliography continues and extends the bibliographic coverage to include 3 000 new entries The new volume s classified arrangement enhanced by author and subject indexes provide up to date coverage of all pertinent research including theses and dissertations on Jewish press and journalism history throughout the world in all languages This new bibliography is indispensable for libraries supporting academic programs in Jewish Studies and journalism as well as area studies Singerman s coverage of the studies and research about the Jewish press is broadly defined his scope is worldwide and all pertinent languages are treated The 3 000 entries are verified and bibliographically complete and special efforts have been made to analyze hidden sections on the Jewish press buried within larger more expansive studies of related topics The entries are organized into regional subcategories Together with the foundation volume over 6 000 entries are provided making this an important addition to any libraries with Jewish Studies or journalism collections A History of South African Literature Christopher Heywood, 2004-11-18 This book is a critical study of South African literature from colonial and pre colonial times onwards Christopher Heywood discusses selected poems plays and prose works in five literary traditions Khoisan Nguni Sotho Afrikaans English and Indian The discussion includes over 100 authors and selected works including poets from Mqhayi Marais and Campbell to Butler Serote and Krog theatre writers from Boniface and Black to Fugard and Mda and fiction writers from Schreiner and Plaatje to Bessie Head and the Nobel prizewinners Gordimer and Coetzee The literature is explored in the setting of crises leading to the formation of modern South Africa notably the rise and fall of the Emperor Shaka s Zulu kingdom the Colenso crisis industrialisation the colonial and post colonial wars of 1899 1914 and 1939 and the dissolution of apartheid society In Heywood s study South African literature emerges as among the great literatures of the modern world Speaking Jewish - Jewish Speak Shlomo Berger, 2003 As the world of Jewish studies continues to expand Studia Rosenthaliana enters a new phase with this 36th volume the first in a series of yearbooks In this edition an international panel of authors takes an innovative look at the theme of Jewish multilingualism from various multidisciplinary perspectives Several research projects on various aspects of Dutch Jewish history and culture are currently under way at academic institutions in Amsterdam and elsewhere while Dutch academics are regularly involved in extensive international research projects The research that resulted in the articles presented in this volume of Studia Rosenthaliana was carried out by the Menasseh ben Israel Institute and the University of Amsterdam in collaboration with the Solomon Ludwig Steinheim Institute in Duisburg and forms part of a larger programme on Yiddish in the Netherlands currently being conducted together with the Abteilung für Jiddische Sprache Kultur und Literatur at Heinrich Heine Universität Düsseldorf

Writing South Africa Derek Attridge, Rosemary Jolly, 1998-01-22 During the final years of the apartheid era and the subsequent transition to democracy South African literary writing caught the world's attention as never before Writers responded to the changing political situation and its daily impact on the country's inhabitants with works that recorded or satirised state enforced racism explored the possibilities of resistance and rebuilding and creatively addressed the vexed question of literature's relation to politics and ethics Writing South Africa offers a window on the literary activity of this extraordinary period that conveys its range going well beyond a handful of world renowned names and its significance for anyone interested in the impact of decolonisation and democratisation on the cultural sphere It brings together for the first time discussions by some of the most distinguished South African novelists poets and dramatists with those of leading commentators based in South Africa Britain and North America

Community and Conscience Gideon Shimoni, 2003 The first thorough account of South African Jewish religious political and educational institutions in relation to the apartheid regime

Resource Guide, Update 1986, 1987

Jewries at the Frontier Sander L. Gilman, Milton Shain, 1999 Traversing far flung Jewish communities in South Africa Australia Texas Brazil China New Zealand Quebec and elsewhere this wide ranging collection explores the notion of frontier in the Jewish experience as a historical geographical reality and a conceptual framework As a compelling alternative to viewing the periphery only as a locus of dispossession and exile from the homeland this work imagines a new Jewish history written as the history of the Jews at the frontier In this new history governed by the dynamics of change confrontation and accommodation marginalized experiences are brought to the center and all participants are given voice By articulating the tension between the center periphery model and the frontier model Jewries at the Frontier shows how the productive confrontation between and among cultures and peoples generates a new multivocal account of Jewish history

Unfinished Business Christo Thesnaar, Len Hansen, 2020-07-31 This publication takes one back to the Truth and Reconciliation Commission's TRC Faith Communities Hearings in 1997 and the re enactment of those hearings in 2014 Some communities revisit their support of those in power and their change of heart Others revisit their struggle against the regime and its ideology All also revisit promises made in 1997 to work together individually and collectively toward a new society post 1994 After twenty years the same faith communities and some additional ones and some prominent South Africans who played leading roles in the run up to and during the hearings ask what faith communities promised at the time and whether this has been achieved by 2014 Over two days together with local and international observers they again face the past but also the unfinished business in the present and future of a just reconciled and transformed South Africa so clearly envisioned by the TRC in 1997 Sh'ma ,1982 Language and Citizenship Tommaso M. Milani,2017-06-09 This volume offers fresh cutting edge perspectives on issues of language and citizenship by casting a critical light on a broad spectrum of geo political contexts Flanders Luxembourg Singapore South Africa the UK and discourse data policy documents newspaper articles ethnographic notes and interviews skits bodies in protests The main aims of the book are to investigate institutional discourses about the relationship between nationality and citizenship and relate such discourses to more ethnographically grounded interactions tease out the multiple and often conflicting meanings of citizenship and explore the different linguistic semiotic guises that citizenship might take on in different contexts The book argues that the linguistic discursive study of citizenship should not only include critical investigations of political proposals about language testing but should also encompass the diverse more or less mundane ways in which various social actors enact citizenship with the help of an array of multivocal material and affective semiotic resources Originally published as a special issue of Journal of Language and Politics 14 3 2015 Nazi Antisemitism and Jewish Legal Self-Defense David Fraser,2023-09-01 One of the first to provide a socio legal comparative history of under studied or ignored Jewish attempts in the 1930s Anglosphere to counter the rise in fascist and Nazi antisemitism this book examines the ways in which Jewish individuals and organized communal bodies in the mid to late 1930s sought to counter this increasing antisemitic violence physical and verbal by using the law against their fascist and Nazi attackers This is the first study to explore how Jews in these countries organized themselves brought their oppressors to court while seeking to convince their governments that an attack on Jews was a threat to the social order The book analyzes the networks of knowledge and the personal relationships between and among key actors and institutions of the Antisemitic International Nazi nationalists always participated in networks that transcended borders Case studies from Canada South Africa the United Kingdom and the United States illustrate the ways in which different mechanisms of Jewish resistance were deployed throughout the mid to late 1930s They embody significant concerns about the turn to law and the importance of litigation and legislation Grounded in original archival research on three continents the book examines the ways in which professional legal discourse about public order and democratic citizenship proffered by Jewish communities and individual Jews was countered by their Nazi opponents with legal and political arguments about truth persecution and Jewish perfidy The book will be of interest to students academics and researchers working in the areas of Legal History History Jewish Studies the study of Antisemitism and the History of the far right fascism and Nazism The Jewish Voice Pictorial ,1944 Nations Divided M. Feld,2014-07-24 The anti apartheid struggle remains one of the most fraught episodes in the history of modern Jewish identity Just as many American Jews proudly fought for principles of justice and liberation in the Civil Rights Movement so too did they give invaluable support to the movement for racial equality in South Africa Today however the memory of apartheid bedevils the debate over Israel and Palestine viewed by some as a cautionary tale for the Jewish state even as others decry the comparison as anti

Semitic This pioneering history chronicles American Jewish involvement in the battle against racial injustice in South Africa and more broadly the long historical encounter between American Jews and apartheid In the years following World War II and the Holocaust Jewish leaders across the world stressed the need for unity and shared purpose and while many American Jews saw the fight against apartheid as a natural extension of their Civil Rights activism others worried that such critiques would threaten Jewish solidarity and diminish Zionist loyalties Even as the immorality of apartheid grew to be universally accepted American Jews continued to struggle over persistent analogies between South African apartheid and Israel's Occupation As author Marjorie N Feld shows the confrontation with apartheid tested American Jews' commitments to principles of global justice and reflected conflicting definitions of Jewishness itself Two Covenants Eliza

McGraw, 2005-07-01 Jews have long occupied visible roles in the South Jewish families have owned establishments ranging from dry goods stores to Thomas Jefferson's Monticello and some of the region's most important writers and scholars have been Jewish Yet surveys of southern culture rarely assess the contributions of Jews while histories of Jews in America virtually exclude those living in the South Eliza R L McGraw's multifaceted study fills both gaps and in doing so expands how we define the South In Two Covenants McGraw mines eclectic representations of Southern Jewishness as varied as the Carolina Israelite newspaper the Mardi Gras Krewe du Jieuh southern Baptist conversion instruction pamphlets and the film Driving Miss Daisy She also considers literary representations of southern Jews in the works of both Jewish and non Jewish writers including Thomas Wolfe Robert Penn Warren Walker Percy Lillian Hellman David Cohn Louis Rubin Jr Eli Evans James Weldon Johnson Jean Toomer and Charles Chesnutt While concerned with established concepts such as ethnicity and region McGraw raises many questions that illustrate the complexity of southern Jewishness Can one individual straddle two identities How do race class and gender influence southern Jewishness What are the differences between southern Jews and other southerners or between southern Jews and other Jews Does anti-Semitism manifest itself differently or with unique effects in the South In suggesting answers to these and other questions McGraw ranges widely over the southern cultural landscape and reveals that although southern Jewishness remains a marginal identity due to the small size of its constituency it nevertheless inhabits and helps to form the South at large The very presence and vitality of southern Jewishness demonstrate that southern identity like national identity is a fluid cultural experience The Re-Emergence of the Single

State Solution in Palestine/Israel Cherine Hussein, 2015-02-11 Providing the first in depth intellectual and organizational mapping of the single state idea's recent resurgence in Palestine Israel this book enquires into its nature as a phenomenon of resistance as well as into its potential as a counterhegemonic force in the making against the processes of Zionism Reconstructing this moment of re-emergence through primary material and interviews with diverse influential intellectuals its analysis highlights their self-understandings worldviews strategies and perceptions of the phenomenon in which they are involved while questioning whether the single state idea has the potential to become a Gramscian inspired movement of resistance against Zionism In presenting this rare insight into a resistance movement in the making this book resurrects an empowering image of Antonio Gramsci infused with the writings of Edward Said This it does in an effort to both problematize the dominant interpretations of Gramsci s writings in International Relations and to decolonise the abstract way in which resistance and counter hegemony are often studied in the discipline Contributing a mapping of a silenced alternative and hopeful way forward in the context of escalating violence this book is essential reading for those studying the Arab Israeli conflict Middle East Politics and International Relations The Zionist ,1907 Challenging the Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions (BDS) Movement Ronnie Fraser,Lola Fraser,2023-02-13 Challenging the Boycott Divestment and Sanctions BDS Movement focuses on the efforts to oppose antisemitism the academic boycott and the BDS movement The State of Israel has faced many threats most of them military since it was established in 1948 but the threat posed by the NGO forum at the United Nations World Conference against Racism in Durban South Africa in August 2001 was different The forum unleashed the new antisemitism which targeted the State of Israel as well as a non violent civil society based campaign based on the South African anti apartheid campaign of the 1980s which was to form the basis of the international Boycott Divestment and Sanctions BDS movement directed at the State of Israel Featuring case studies from the United States Great Britain Israel and South Africa each chapter of this wide ranging volume discusses examples of opposition to the divisive BDS campaign and the proposed academic boycott of Israel over the last two decades including the fight for formal recognition of the new antisemitism by governments and international bodies and the use of a variety of legal measures The rise of antisemitism within academia and wider society is also examined This book will be vital reading for students scholars and activists with an interest in social movements Israel and Middle East politics and history Seeking Mandela Heribert Adam,Kogila Moodley,2005 Lessons from South Africa for the unresolved Israeli Palestinian conflict
