South Dakota 1900 1930 In Vintage Postcards Postcard History Series:

South Dakota, 1900-1930, in Vintage Postcards Richard L. Popp, 2001 Postcards provide an easy way to go back in time to the early days of South Dakota to see what the place looked like to catch a glimpse of how people saw themselves to begin to understand what has changed and what remains constant This is the first book to focus entirely on historical postcards from South Dakota including images from more than 50 counties and 100 different communities The book also explores how postcard images helped create and perpetuate myths about the Wild West and how South Dakotans accepted and adapted those myths Included are scenes of farming ranching industry and small town life from the early 1900s While postcards pictured busy streets town festivals and new civic improvements they also captured periodic disasters natural and man made Postcards show the development of important tourist sites from their earliest years including the Black Hills Badlands Corn Palace and Mount Rushmore Residents and tourists alike will enjoy seeing South Dakota before interstates and billboards took over

Black Hills and Badlands in Vintage Postcards Richard L. Popp, 2002 As soon as postcards appeared for sale in the early 1900s Black Hills residents and visitors began sending them to friends and family across the country The images and messages on these cards now form a historical record of the towns mines ranches and people that made up the Black Hills and Badlands region The postcard images chosen for this book show the development of the Black Hills and Badlands from the gold rush to modern times Long time residents will enjoy seeing what familiar places looked like in bygone days while newcomers can learn how today s tourist attractions developed over time including the Hot Springs mineral baths Wind Cave Custer State Park Badlands National Park Mount Rushmore and Crazy Horse Mountain Memorial

Yankton, South Dakota in Vintage Postcards Kathy K. Grow, Lois H. Varvel, 2004 Imagine spread before you every postcard you ever sent or received Not only do you see whatever is pictured but also those who sent and received each card Signatures addresses and even dates recall these friends and loved ones And the messages themselves both written and understood recall the who what and where that were significant to us at another time At so many levels picture postcards connect us to who we were and are This book is a gathering of the postcards of an entire community Every image within these pages carries a part of the fascinating story of our town Yankton South Dakota and the people who have made her what she is

Postcards from the State of Jefferson Gail L. Fiorini-Jenner,Bernita Tickner,2013 The State of Jefferson refers to the rugged and wilder portions of Southern Oregon and Northern California With majestic Mount Shasta at its heart and the Cascades as its backbone this area has been home to several Native American tribes for generations It became known as the northern mines during the famous Gold Rush of 1849 Today the area is famous for its wild rivers and forested mountainsides While mining logging and ranching were the state s first industries recreation and tourism now compete as major industries Throughout its history the desire to create a separate state has remained as strong as it was in the 1850s In 1941 citizens rallied to create a 49th state The would be Jeffersonites held a gubernatorial election and even created a state seal a gold pan etched with two Xs signifying the double cross by Salem and Sacramento politicians The seal can be seen on flags and other State of Jefferson memorabilia and those who reside here still manifest the independent spirit that has characterized the region      Greetings from Greenville, S.C. Richard D. Sawyer,1995 Contains reproductions of 77 postcards depicting scenes of Greenville including Furman University Reedy River Falls Camperdown Mill Main Street churches and others
