South Melbourne Susan Priestley, 1995 The History of South Melbourne Charles Daley, 1940 A History of Australia Mark Peel, Christina Twomey, 2017-12-22 This vivid multi dimensional history considers the key cultural social political and economic events of Australia's history Deftly weaving these issues into the wider global context Mark Peel and Christina Twomey provide an engaging overview of the country's past from its first Indigenous people to the great migrations of recent centuries and to those living within the more anxiously controlled borders of the present day This engaging textbook is an ideal resource for undergraduate students and postgraduate students taking modules or courses on the History of Australia It will also appeal to general readers who are interested in obtaining a thorough overview of the entire history of Australia from the earliest times to the present in one concise volume A History of Victoria Geoffrey Blainey, 2013-07-10 A History of Victoria is a lively account of the people places and events that have shaped Victoria from the arrival of the first Aboriginal peoples through to the present day In his inimitable style Geoffrey Blainey considers Victoria's transformation from rural state to urban society He speculates on the contrasts between Melbourne and Sydney and describes formative events in Victoria's history including the exploits of Ned Kelly the rise of Australian Football and the Olympics of 1956 Melbourne's latest population boom sprawling suburbs and expanding ethnic communities are explored Blainey also casts light on Victoria's recent political history This edition features sections on the Black Saturday bushfires of 2009 the end of the drought and the controversy surrounding the Wonthaggi desalination plant New illustrations photographs and maps enrich the narrative Written by one of Australia's leading historians this book offers remarkable insight into Victoria's unique position within Australian history The Backroom Boys

Graeme Sligo,2013-10-05 The Backroom Boys is the remarkable but little known story of how a varied group of talented intellectuals drafted into the Australian Army in the dark days of 1942 provided high level policy advice to Australia's most senior soldier General Blamey and through him to the Government for the remainder of the war and beyond. This band of academics, lawyers and New Guinea patrol officers formed a unique military unit, the Directorate of Research and Civil Affairs, under the command of an eccentric and masterful string puller, Alf Conlon. The Directorate has been depicted as a haven for underemployed poets or meddling soldier politicians. Based on wide ranging research, this book reveals a fuller and more fascinating picture. The fierce conflicts in the wartime bureaucracy between public servants and soldiers in which the Directorate provided critical support to Blamey went to the heart of military command, accountability and the profession of arms. The Directorate was a pioneer in developing approaches to military government in areas liberated by the combat troops, as demonstrated by the Australian Army in New Guinea and Borneo in 1945-46. It is an issue of enduring importance. The Directorate established the Australian School of Pacific Administration and had an important role in founding the Australian National University. Its influence extended into post-war Australia. The Backroom Boys emphasises the personality of Colonel Alf Conlon as well as the talented men and women he recruited. Above all, this book shows how unexpectedly the Australian Army fostered a group of men and women who made a lasting contribution to the development of Australia in the decades after the war.

A History of Regional Commercial Television in Australia Michael Thurlow,2023-02-14 This book is the first history of commercial television in regional Australia where diverse communities are spread across vast distances and multiple time zones. The first station GLV Latrobe Valley began broadcasting in December 1961. By the late 1970s there were 35 independent commercial stations throughout regional Australia from Cairns in the far north east to Bunbury in the far south west. Based on fine grained archival research and extensive interviews, the book examines the key political, regulatory, economic, technological, industrial and social developments which have shaped the industry over the past 60 years. Regional television is often dismissed as a mere extension of or footnote to the development of Australia's three metropolitan commercial television networks. Michael Thurlow's study reveals an industry which at its peak was at the economic and social heart of regional communities, employing thousands of people and providing vital programming for viewers in provincial cities and small towns across Australia.

65,000 Years: A Short History of Australian Art Marcia Langton, Judith Ryan,2024-10-15 65,000 Years: A Short History of Australian Art stares into the dark heart of Australia's brutal colonial history and offers new insights into the first art of this country. Long before Britain's invasion of Australia in 1788, First Peoples' cultural and design traditions flourished for thousands of generations. Their art shaped the continent as we know it today, and the societies that thrived here, but these continuing artistic practices and new art forms were disregarded by the settlers and not considered to be fine art until the late 1980s. In this publication, twenty-five writers urge us to reconsider the art history that is unique to the Australian continent and to acknowledge its rise to prominence in modern times. Featuring new writing by leading thinkers across generations and disciplines it celebrates Indigenous Australian art across media time and language groups Today Indigenous art and artists are at the forefront of contemporary art practice In very real and tangible ways this publication reveals the artistic brilliance of Australia s First Peoples and stands as a testament to their resilience This book is published in association with a major exhibition at the University of Melbourne s revitalised Potter Museum of Art opening in 2025 Also titled 65 000 Years A Short History of Australian Art the exhibition curated by Professor Marcia Langton AO Ms Judith Ryan AM and Ms Shanyssa McConville features over 400 artworks that celebrate the longevity and brilliance of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander art despite a difficult history of colonialism and scientific racism A Subject Index to Current Literature Australian Public Affairs Information Service, Australian national bibliography ,1961

Bibliography of the History of Medicine ,1993 Eye for Eternity Mark McKenna,2020-11-03

Manning Clark was a complex demanding and brilliant man Mark McKenna s compelling biography of this giant of Australia s cultural landscape is informed by his reading of Clark s extensive private letters journals and diaries many that have never been read before An Eye for Eternity paints a sweeping portrait of the man who gave Australians the signature account of their own history It tells of his friendships with Patrick White and Sidney Nolan It details an urgent and dynamic marriage ripped apart at times by Clark s constant need for extramarital romantic love A son who wrote letters to his dead parents A historian who placed narrative ahead of facts A doubter who flirted with Catholicism A controversial public figure who marked slights and criticisms with deeply held grudges To understand Clark's life is to understand twentieth century Australia And it raises fundamental questions about the craft of biography When are letters too personal comments too hurtful and insights too private to publish Clark incessantly documented his life leaving notes to the biographers he knew would pursue his story He had a deep need to be remembered and this book means he will now be understood in an unforgettable way
