Powell,Jon Hendricks,2009-06-10 In recent years major social forces such as ageing populations social trends migration patterns and the globalization of economies have reshaped social welfare policies and practices across the globe Multinational corporations NGOs and other international organizations have begun to influence social policy at a national and local level Among the many ramifications of these changes is that globalizing influences may hinder the ability of individual nation states to effect policies that are beneficial to them on a local level With contributions from thirteen countries worldwide this collected work represents the first major comparative analysis on the effect of globalization on the international welfare state The Welfare State in Post Industrial Society is divided into two major sections the first draws from a number of leading social welfare researchers from diverse countries who point to the nation state as case studies highlighting how it goes about establishing and revising social welfare provisions The second portion of the volume then moves to a more global perspective in its analysis and questioning of the impact of globalization on citizenship ageing and marketization The Welfare State in Post Industrial Society seeks to encourage debate about the implications of the most pressing social welfare issues in nation states and integrate analyses of policy and practice in particular countries struggling to provide social welfare support for their needy populations South Africa's Insurgent Citizens Doctor Julian

Brown,2015-07-15 Twenty years on from South Africa s first democratic election the post apartheid political order is more fractured and more fractious than ever before Police violence seems the order of the day whether in response to a protest in Ficksburg or a public meeting outside a mine in Marikana For many this has signalled the end of the South African dream Politics they declare is the preserve of the corrupt the self interested the incompetent and the violent They are wrong Julian Brown argues that a new kind of politics can be seen on the streets and in the courtrooms of the country This politics is made by a new kind of citizen one that is neither respectful nor passive but instead insurgent The collapse of the dream of a consensus politics is not a cause for despair South Africa s political order is fractured and in its cracks new forms of activity new leaders and new movements are emerging The World Trade Organization International Trade Law Center,Arthur
