J. Nieuwmeijer, National Research Programme on Conflict Management (South Africa), 1995 South Africa Pierre Louis van den Berghe, 1965 South Africa's Destabilisation of Zimbabwe, 1980-89 J. Dzimba, 1998-01-01 South Africa's Apartheid regime saw Zimbabwean independence and black majority rule in 1980 as a major threat to its interests security and regional hegemony John Dzimba explains how and why Pretoria sought to destabilise Zimbabwe and other front line states examining the successes and failures of destabilisation against Zimbabwe's economic and political vulnerabilities and attempted responses He shows why P W Botha's crisis ridden regime had to drop the policy in 1989 Creating a South African Sub-Regional Conflict Transformation Model Noluthando Phungula, 2024-01-11 This book contributes to the current academic debate and scholarly research on conflict transformation in the Southern African Development Community SADC sub region It will serve as a guide on how conflict recurrences can best be tackled in the sub region and seeks to improve the transformation process of conflict and peace building in the Kingdom in the Sky and in the sub region at large The book will shed light on the road ahead for the SADC and its role in transforming conflict into positive peace and peace building and will contribute to discussions on the necessity of a conflict transformation model as a key tool in efforts to transform the state of recurring intrastate conflict in Lesotho Thus this book will also enhance the literature and discourse on sub regional organisations and their path towards conflict transformation on the African continent Pursuing Justice and Peace in South Africa Hendrik W. van der Merwe, 2022-10-05 Originally published in 1989 and written by a long time peacemaker who commanded respect from most political camps in South Africa this book advocated constructive intervention in the South African conflict It showed the growing element of pragmatic flexibility in the white leadership and argued that this more rational approach combined with moral reform among the white population promised reasonable prospects for the constructive accommodation of conflict in South Africa In 1984 the author arranged the first meetings between government supporters and the ANC in exile in Lusaka breaking a 24 year deadlock and significantly influencing public opinion in South Africa

Conservation, Land Conflicts and Sustainable Tourism in Southern Africa Regis Musavengane, Llewellyn Leonard, 2022-05-11 This book examines the nexus between conservation land conflicts and sustainable tourism approaches in Southern Africa with a focus on equity access restitution and redistribution While Southern Africa is home to important biodiversity pristine woodlands and grasslands and is a habitat for important wildlife species it is also a land of contestations over its natural resources with a complex historical legacy and a wide variety of competing and conflicting issues surrounding race cultural and traditional practices and neoliberalism Drawing on insights from conservation environmental and tourism experts this volume presents the nexus between land conflicts and conservation in the region The chapters reveal the hegemony of humans on land and associated resources including wildlife and minerals By using social science approaches the book unites environmental scientific social and political issues as it is imperative we understand the holistic nature of land conflicts in nature based tourism Discussing the management theories and approaches to community based tourism in communities where there are or were land conflicts is critical to understanding the current state and future of tourism in African rural spaces This volume determines the extent to which land reform impacts community based tourism in Africa to develop resilient destination strategies and shares solutions to existing land conflicts to promote conservation and nature based tourism The book will be of great interest to students academics development experts and policymakers in the field of conservation tourism geography sociology development studies land use and environmental management and African studies

South Africa, a Study in Conflict, 1965 Conflict and Poverty in Africa Ebenezer Durojaye, Gladys Mirugi-Mukundi, John-Mark Iyi, Usang Maria Assim, 2025-02-17 The contributors to this book examine the conceptual issues relating to the link between conflict and poverty as well as presenting case studies of countries often regarded as hot spots for conflict in Africa They also explore the roles of regional and sub regional bodies and institutions in addressing the causes of poverty and mitigating the impacts of conflict on vulnerable and marginalized groups Africa is often regarded as the epicentre of conflicts worldwide Virtually every part of the continent is currently engulfed in one form of conflict or another Beyond the loss of life conflicts have brought untold hardship to millions and have derailed social and economic development on the continent Written by African academics this book is divided into three sections the first of which discusses the factors that fuel conflicts and the nature and impacts of conflicts on vulnerable groups The second section comprises case studies of South Sudan Central African Republic Nigeria Ethiopia South Africa Uganda and Cameroon These countries are representative of the sub regional dynamics of Africa west east central and south reflecting the diversity of the continent The final section examines the role of key institutions and bodies in Africa in mitigating the impact of conflict on the socioeconomic lives of the people in the region Bodies discussed include the African Union Economic Community of West African States Southern African Development Community and the East African Community The book will be an invaluable resource for researchers academics and policymakers working in the areas of law political science human rights peace studies development studies and African studies

Water Scarcity and Conflict in African River Basins Mahlakeng Khosi Mahlakeng,2023-03-31 The book presents a critical and comparative analysis of the hydropolitical landscape of African transboundary river basins which for much of the past century have been affected by water scarcity River and lake basins can become a source of tension and conflict due to a complicated mix of environmental demographic diplomatic historical and geopolitical factors This book however specifically focuses on the important and often under looked role played by scarcity in generating or exacerbating conflicts in shared river basins Asserting that transboundary river basins tie states into a web of interdependence this book raises awareness of how water scarcity or the depletion of water resources complicates this relationship as nations are forced to look beyond their own borders to meet the demand for water to satisfy multiple needs Taking a comparative approach it examines three shared basins the Orange Senqu the Nile and the Niger River basins While situated in different regions all three basins are marked by serious environmental challenges that are detrimental to combustible hydropolitics over such shared water resources and they provide fascinating insights into the links between climate variability and change water resources human security conflict adaptation and regime capacity Overall this book argues that conflict over transboundary resources can be prevented given the establishment of norms rules and the role of external actors that help regulate state behaviour and control their impacts This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of water resource management hydropolitics environmental conflict resource scarcity and international relations It will also be of interest to policymakers involved in transboundary water resource governance

Multinational Companies and Conflicts in Africa Rose Ngomba-Roth,2007 Nigeria Africa s most populated country is rich in ethnic diversity a reason why it suffers from many conflicts The country is one of the top five oil producers The recent resource crisis in the Niger Delta is caused by poor division of resources underdevelopment and mismanagement The failure of the young democracy would have a vehement effect in the country and in Africa as a whole The government has to consolidate its democracy uphold unity and sovereignty To secure democracy it will need support from the Nigerians themselves the multinational oil companies and the international world

The Russia-Ukraine Conflict and Development in Africa David Mhlanga,Emmanuel Ndhlovu,2024-09-02 This edited volume provides a comprehensive analysis of the intricate dynamics of the Russia Ukraine conflict particularly within the context of sustainable development in Africa The book explores the multifaceted consequences of the war drawing attention to its socioeconomic environmental and political implications It also emphasizes the significance of sustainable development on a global scale positioning itself at the intersection of conflict studies and sustainable development literature Chapters discuss the international response to the conflict including sanctions on Russia and disruptions in global supply chains which has had significant implications for countries in Africa that rely on Russia and Ukraine for essential commodities The history and root causes of the conflict are analyzed highlighting the contrasting narratives the pro Russian perspective and the pro Western viewpoint Underscoring the impact of the Russia Ukraine conflict on global peace sustainable development and the achievement of Sustainable Development Goals SDGs by the 2030 deadline this volume will be of interest to researchers and students focusing on development food systems peace and conflict security studies international relations and the SDGs

Contemporary Wars and Conflicts over Land and Water in Africa Carlson Anyangwe, 2022-08-08 Contemporary Wars and Conflicts over Land and Water in Africa highlights Africa's tragedy of endless conflicts Rich in case studies it examines violent conflicts and Africa's approaches to conflict resolution The case studies show that Africa continues to be a chronically unstable space tormented especially by frequent and devastating civil wars of which ethnicity religion and bad governance are some of the root causes These conflicts have occasioned massive human rights abuses arrested development reversed or slowed economic growth created a vicious circle of instability and hunger and exacerbated levels of poverty and disease in the continent In the final part of this book Carlson Anyangwe considers indigenous mechanisms for settling disputes post conflict transitional justice systems and the African Union conflict resolution mechanism that relies as it does on the United Nations peace and security framework and the peace and security functions of the African regional economic organizations
