South Africa The Cordoned Heart:

South Africa Omar Badsha, 1986 On t p Prepared for the Second Carnegie Inquiry into Poverty and Development in Southern Africa 28 photographic essays with text Women and Photography in Apartheid South Africa Marie Meyerding, 2025-04-29 Tracing the lives and works of five women in four case studies author Marie Meyerding examines the representation of women in the field of photography in South Africa in the second half of the twentieth century All of them are critically understudied with no existing scholarship dedicated exclusively to their photographic contributions Focusing on the representation of women on two different levels as agents behind the camera and as subjects in photographs it showcases women photographers portraying their female contemporaries and analyses to what extent they adhered to or subverted common forms of gender representation In recuperating their forgotten archives the book argues that none of these women are marginal figures but rather that each of them played a leading role in the field of photography in their own time The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history history of photography gender studies intersectionality and African studies Art and the End of Apartheid John Pepper, 2009 Black South African artists have typically had their work labeled African art or township art qualifiers that when contrasted with simply modernist art have been used to marginalize their work both in South Africa and internationally This is the The first book to fully explore cosmopolitan modern art by black South Africans under apartheid South Africa Omar Badsha, Alex Harris, Margaret Sartor, Bruce Payne, International Center of Photography, 1986 Landscapes between Then and Now Nicola Brandt, 2020-09-08 In Landscapes Between Then and Now Nicola Brandt examines the increasingly compelling and diverse cross disciplinary work of photographers and artists made during the transition from apartheid to post apartheid and into the contemporary era By examining specific artworks made in South Africa Namibia and Angola Brandt sheds light on established and emerging themes related to aftermath landscapes embodied histories un belonging spirituality and memorialization She shows how landscape and identity are mutually constituted and profiles this process against the background of the legacy of the acutely racially divisive policies of the apartheid regime that are still reflected on the land As a signpost throughout the book Brandt draws on the work of the renowned South African photographer Santu Mofokeng and his critical thinking about landscape Landscapes Between Then and Now explores how practitioners who engage with identity and their physical environment as a social product might reveal something about the complex and fractured nature of postcolonial and contemporary societies Through diverse strategies and aesthetics they comment on inherent structures and epistemologies of power whilst also expressing new and radical forms of self determinism Brandt asks why these cross disciplinary works ranging from social documentary to experimental performance and embodied practices are critical now and what important possibilities for social and political reflection and engagement they suggest South Africa's Moment of Truth Edgar Lockwood, 1988

Apartheid Israel Sean Jacobs, Jon Soske, 2015-11-24 Eleven prominent South African scholars reflect on the analogy between apartheid South Africa and contemporary Israel      Photography, Truth and Reconciliation Melissa Miles, 2020-08-05 Photography Truth and Reconciliation charts the connections between photography and a crucial issue in contemporary social history The book examines the prevalence of photography in cultural responses to processes of truth and reconciliation and argues that photographs are a valuable means through which stories can be retold and historiography can be rethought Five compelling case studies from Argentina Canada Australia South Africa and Cambodia underscore the special role that this medium has played in facilitating processes of recovery and in reconstructing suppressed histories even when a documentary record of the events does not exist The diverse practices addressed in this book including artistic protest institutional archival legal and personal photography prompt a new consideration of photography's links to presence place time spectatorship and justice Collectively these practices attest to photography's key role in transitional justice and in shaping historical understanding internationally Important reading for students taking photography visual culture history and media studies courses Photography Truth and Reconciliation explores key historical and theoretical themes including photography and testimony international discourses on human rights and justice and problematic notions of public and collective memory The introduction and conclusion of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com>

Exploitation and Misrule in Colonial and Postcolonial Africa Kenneth Kalu, Toyin Falola, 2018-10-08 This book offers new perspectives on the history of exploitation in Africa by examining postcolonial misrule as a product of colonial exploitation Political independence has not produced inclusive institutions economic growth or social stability for most Africans it has merely transferred the benefits of exploitation from colonial Europe to a tiny African elite Contributors investigate representations of colonial and postcolonial exploitation in literature and rhetoric covering works from African writers such as Ngugi wa Thiong'o Kwame Nkrumah and Bessie Head It then moves to case studies drawing lines between colonial subjugation and present day challenges through essays on Mobutu's Zaire Nigerian politics the Italian colonial fascist system and more Together these essays look towards how African states may transform their institutions and rupture lingering colonial legacies      Selected Writings, Volume 2 Okwui Enwezor, 2025-08-05 Selected Writings is a landmark two volume set of writings by the transformational art curator Okwui Enwezor that demonstrates his tireless efforts to decolonize the global contemporary art world

African Novels in the Classroom Margaret Jean Hay, 2000 Many teachers of African studies have found novels to be effective assignments in courses In this guide teachers describe their favourite African novels drawn from all over the continent and share their experiences of using them in the classroom      Jazz And Its Discontents Francis Davis, 2004-03-17 A spirited collection of profiles reporting and commentary spanning the cultural scene by one of the finest essayists writing today      The Public Sphere From Outside the West Divya Dwivedi, Sanil V, 2015-09-24 The Public Sphere from Outside the West brings together established and emerging new voices from philosophy literature anthropology history migration studies and information technology to address the present reality of the public sphere In the age where everyone is in the public and everything is visible this volume creates a delay in which the internet of things mass surveillance and social media are asked What is not the Public The essays bring to attention the formation of geo politically and historically distinct public spheres from South Africa India America and Europe Such formations are found not only in the postcolonial histories of print photography cinema and caricature but also those underway in the digital era such as the Arab Spring Occupy movements and Anonymous Through critical engagement with philosophers such as Kant Heidegger Benjamin Habermas and Arendt the determining concepts of the Public Sphere privacy secrecy reason the people are shown to be undergoing epistemological and practical ruptures Demonstrating the necessity of these considerations to understand the world public that is rapidly transforming this concept in radical ways through technologies today this is the first collection on the subject to feature an impressive range of international thinkers Global and timely in outlook it breaks new ground and changes our way of looking at politics in the 21st century      Global Africans Toyin Falola,Cacee

Hoyer,2017-01-20 Black African African descendant and of African heritage are just some of the ways Africans and Africans in the diaspora both old and new describe themselves This volume examines concepts of race ethnicity and identity as they are ascribed to people of colour around the world examining different case studies of how the process of identity formation occurred and is changing Contributors to this volume selected from a wide range of academic and cultural backgrounds explore issues that encourage a deeper understanding of race ethnicity and identity As our notions about what it means to be black or of African heritage change as a result of globalization it is important to reassess how these issues are currently developing and the origins from which these issues developed Global Africans is an important and insightful book useful to a wide range of students and scholars particularly of African studies sociology diaspora studies and race and ethnic studies

The Failures of Public Art and Participation Cameron Cartiere,Anthony Schrag,2022-08-25 This collection of original essays takes a multi disciplinary approach to explore the theme of failure through the broad spectrum of public art and social practice The anthology brings together practicing artists curators activists art writers administrators planners and educators from around the world to offer differing perspectives on the many facets of failure in commissioning planning producing evaluating and engaging communities in the continually evolving field of art in the public realm As such this book offers a survey of currently unexplored and interconnected thinking and provides a much needed critical voice to the commissioning of public and participatory arts The volume includes case studies from the UK the US China Cuba and Denmark as well as discussions of digital public art collections The Failures of Public Art and Participation will be of interest for students and scholars of visual arts design and architecture interested in how art in the public realm fits within social and political contexts      Postcolonial Geographies Alison Blunt,Cheryl McEwan,2003-02-01 Postcolonialism and geography are intimately linked through the spatiality of colonial discourse as well as the material effects of colonialism and decolonization

Geographical ideas about space place landscape and location have helped to articulate different experiences of colonialism both in the past and present and the here and there At the same time while spatial images such as mobility margins and exile abound in postcolonial writings more material geographies have often been overlooked Postcolonial Geographies presents the first sustained geographical analysis of postcolonialism Exploring and developing the connections between postcolonialism and geography the essays in this book ranging across Europe Australia Asia Africa and North America investigate the geographies of postcolonialism and chart the contours of a postcolonial geography Contributors Morag Bell Claire Dwyer Haydie Gooder Jane M Jacobs M Satish Kumar Alan Lester Mark McGuinness Karen M Morin Richard Phillips Marcus Power Jenny Robinson James D Sidaway John Wylie      Gender and HIV in South Africa Courtenay Sprague, 2018-03-16 This book addresses the ongoing problem of HIV in black South African women as a health inequity Importantly it argues that this urgent problem of justice is changeable Sprague uses the capabilities approach to bring a theory of health justice together with multiple sources of evidence to investigate the complex problem of HIV and accompanying poor health outcomes in black South African women Motivated by a concern for application of knowledge this work discusses how to better conceptualise what health justice demands of state and society and how to mobilise available evidence on health inequities in ways that compel greater state action to address problems of gender and health HIV in women and possible responses are investigated on four distinct levels conceptual social structure health systems and law The analysis demonstrates that this problem is indeed modifiable with long term interventions and an enhanced state response targeted at multiple levels This book will be of interest to academics and students in the social health sciences gender and development studies and global health as well as HIV health activists government officials policy makers HIV clinicians and health providers interested in HIV      Truth & Reconciliation in South Africa Charles Villa-Vicencio, Fanie Du Toit, 2006 This series of articles by leading researchers activists and government officials describes the response of government and other agencies to the unfinished business of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission It also reflects on the role of the media art and cultural exponents who grappled with South Africa's past      Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Photography, 3-Volume Set Lynne Warren, 2005-11-15 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Photography explores the vast international scope of twentieth century photography and explains that history with a wide ranging interdisciplinary manner This unique approach covers the aesthetic history of photography as an evolving art and documentary form while also recognizing it as a developing technology and cultural force This Encyclopedia presents the important developments movements photographers photographic institutions and theoretical aspects of the field along with information about equipment techniques and practical applications of photography To bring this history alive for the reader the set is illustrated in black and white throughout and each volume contains a color plate section A useful glossary of terms is also included      West Africa, 1986
