South African Bibliography A Survey Of Bibliographies And Bibliographical Work:

South African Bibliography Reuben Musiker,1977 South African Bibliography Reuben Musiker,1996 A bibliography of South African bibliographies from early times to the mid 1990s The first part of the book describes the different bibliographical tools and related research materials such as national and subject bibliographies periodicals newspapers theses official publications archives and manuscripts The book s second part is a list of sources arranged alphabetically by author of the works cited in the first part South African Bibliography Reuben Musiker,1975 South African Bibliography Reuben Musiker,1970 South African Bibliography Reuben Musiker,1977 An Annotated Guide to Current National Bibliographies Barbara L. Bell,2013-02-07 No detailed description available for An Annotated Guide to Current National Bibliographies Colonialism in Africa 1870-1960: Volume 5, A Bibliographic Guide to Colonialism in Sub-Saharan Africa L. H. Gann,Peter Duignan,1969 A comprehensive study of recent African history examining the political social and economic effects of colonialism Historical Dictionary of South Africa Christopher Saunders,Peter Limb,2020-12-15 As the most influential and powerful country on the entire continent of Africa an understanding of South Africa s past and its present trends is crucial in appreciating where South Africans are going to and from where they have come South Africa changed dramatically in 1994 when apartheid was dismantled and it became a democratic state Since 2000 when the previous edition appeared further big changes occurred with the rise of new political leaders and of a new black middle class There were also serious problems in governance in public health and the economy but with a remarkable popular resilience too This third edition of Historical Dictionary of South Africa contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 600 cross referenced entries on important personalities as well as aspects of the country s politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about South Africa Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1993 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70 Encyclopedia of Library and Information Science Allen Kent,Harold Lancour,Jay E. Daily,1980-01-01 The Encyclopedia of Library and Information Science provides an outstanding resource in 33 published volumes with 2 helpful indexes This thorough reference set written by 1300 eminent international experts offers librarians information computer scientists bibliographers documentalists systems analysts and students convenient access to the techniques and tools of both library and information science Impeccably researched cross referenced alphabetized by subject and generously illustrated the Encyclopedia of Library and Information Science integrates the essential theoretical and practical information accumulating in this rapidly growing field

Bibliographic Control and Information Sources Shirley J. Behrens,1994 Three aspects of information work in libraries archives museums and community information services are covered the way in which information is controlled so that it can be retrieved the bibliographies which provide this control and the sources in which the information can be located

Bibliographies ranging from catalogues to national bibliographies and content sources ranging from encyclopaedias to patents are studied in all their forms printed microform and online databases including CD ROM The book is specifically attuned to southern Africa Although it is designed for students of information science and applied information science librarianship it also provides an effective guide to major South African and international reference and information sources

Subject Index of Modern Books Acquired British Library, 1902 Introduction To Library Research In

Anthropology John M. Weeks, 2019-04-11 This book is an introduction to library research in anthropology written primarily for the undergraduate student about to begin a research project It contains a summary description of the type of resource being discussed and its potential use in a research project The Cambridge History of Africa J. D. Fage, Roland Anthony Oliver, Michael Crowder, 1975 The eighth and final volume of The Cambridge History of Africa covers the period 1940-75 It begins with a discussion of the role of the Second World War in the political decolonisation of Africa Its terminal date of 1975 coincides with the retreat of Portugal the last European colonial power in Africa from its possessions and their accession to independence The fifteen chapters which make up this volume examine on both a continental and regional scale the extent to which formal transfer of political power by the European colonial rulers also involved economic social and cultural decolonisation A major theme of the volume is the way the African successors to the colonial rulers dealt with their inheritance and how far they benefited particular economic groups and disadvantaged others The contributors to this volume represent different disciplinary traditions and do not share a single theoretical perspective on the recent history of the continent a subject that is still the occasion for passionate debate Documentation Abstracts, 1984 A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse, 1990-01-01 This text is an introduction to the full range of standard reference tools in all branches of English studies More than 10 000 titles are included The Reference Guide covers all the areas traditionally defined as English studies and all the field of inquiry more recently associated with English studies British and Irish American and world literatures written in English are included Other fields covered are folklore film literary theory general and comparative literature language and linguistics rhetoric and composition bibliography and textual criticism and women's studies Periodicals of Queen Victoria's Empire Rosemary VanArsdel, Jerry Don Vann, Rosemary T. VanArsdel, 1996-01-01 Contemporary research in periodical literature has demonstrated conclusively that the nineteenth century in Britain was the age of the periodical It also has shown that in Victorian society the circulation of periodicals and newspapers was both larger and more influential than that of books The six essays in this volume investigate the extent to which this was equally true of Britain's colonies during the period up to 1900 In chapters devoted to periodical publishing in Australia Canada India New Zealand Southern Africa and the outposts of the Empire Ceylon Cyprus Hong Kong Malaya and Singapore Malta and the West Indies the contributors also consider the function and importance of periodicals in colonial life They identify and describe all locally produced publications that appeared at weekly or longer intervals and that contained for example local news poetry fiction criticism commentary on the arts news from home shipping information and commodities reports Each chapter presents an evaluation of the quantity and quality of guides available to periodical literature in each region from basic bibliographies of periodicals directories and finding aids to microfilm records and databases on the Internet Periodicals of Queen Victoria's Empire is an initial step towards understanding and analyzing what its editors regard as the unseen power of the periodical press in the British Empire of the nineteenth century Library & Information Science Abstracts, 2006 Africa: a Bibliographic Survey of Literature Army Library (U.S.), 1974

Writing and Africa Mpalive-Handson Msiska, Paul Hyland, 2017-07-28 This volume reflects one of the new areas of English Studies as it broadens to take in non western literatures and places more emphasis on the contexts and broader notions of writing In discussing writing from and about Africa this collection touches on studies in black writing colonialism and imperialism and cultural development in the third world It begins by providing a historical introduction to the main regional traditions and then builds on this to discuss major issues such as oral tradition the significance of literature as a western import representations of Africa in western writing African writing against colonialism and its themes and politics in a post colonial world popular writing and the representation of women
