Adelaida García Morales

South And Bene:

The South Adelaida García Morales, 1999-01-01 Two novellas by a Spanish writer In The South a girl returns to her hometown to learn the truth about her father's suicide while Bene is on a Gypsy woman accused of being possessed by the Devil

The Gothic Fiction of Adelaida García Morales Abigail Lee Six, 2006 By highlighting features common to the Gothic classics and the works of Adelaida García Morales this monograph aims to put the Gothic on the map in Hispanic Studies The Gothic as a literary mode extending well beyond its first proponents in eighteenth century England is well established in English studies but has been strangely under used by Hispanists Now Abigail Lee Six uses it as the paradigm through which to analyse the novels of Adelaida García Morales while not suggesting that every novel by this author is a classic Gothic text she reveals certain constants in the work that can be related to the Gothic even in novels which one might not classify as such Each of the novels studied is paired with an English language Gothic text such as Dracula Frankenstein and Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde and then read in the light of it The focus of each chapter ranges from psychological aspects such as fear of decay or otherness or the pressures linked to managing secrets to more concrete elements such as mountains and frightening buildings and to key figures such as vampires ghosts or monsters This approach sheds new light on how García Morales achieves probably the most distinguishing feature of her novels their harrowing atmosphere ABIGAIL LEE SIX is Professor of Hispanic Studies at Royal Holloway University of London
