Making Sense of Suburbia through Popular Culture Rupa Huq,2013-06-20 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com We all know what suburbia is indeed the majority of us live in it Yet despite this ubiquity with no formal definition of the concept the suburbs have developed in our collective imagination through representations in popular culture from Terry and June to Desperate Housewives Rupa Huq examines how suburbia has been depicted in novels cinema popular music and on television charting changing trends both in the suburbs and popular media consumption and production She looks at the differences in defining suburbia in the US and UK and how characteristics associated with it have shifted in meaning and form The 'desegregation' of English schools Olivier Esteves,2018-12-21 Dispersal or bussing was introduced in England in the early 1960s after white parents expressed concerns that the sudden influx of non Anglophone South Asian children was holding back their own children's education It consisted in sending busloads of mostly Asian children to predominantly white suburban schools in an effort to spread the burden and to promote linguistic and cultural integration Although seemingly well intentioned dispersal proved a failure it was based on racial identity rather than linguistic deficiency and ultimately led to an increase in segregation as bussed pupils were daily confronted with racial bullying in dispersal schools This is the first ever book on English bussing based on an in depth study of local and national archives alongside interviews with formerly bussed pupils decades later Migration, Mobility and Multiple Affiliations S. Irudaya Rajan,V. J. Varghese,Aswini Kumar Nanda,2016-03-14 This edited volume discusses how the Punjabi transnational experience has impacted Indian transnationalism and led to a diverse diaspora Militant and Migrant Radhika Chopra,2012-03-12 This book explores the links between militancy and migration two movements that transformed the socio political landscape of late 20th century Punjab Re analysing existing writings and drawing on fieldwork and local history archives it presents a different framework to analyse the politics and social history of Punjab Primary History ,2005 Built Environment ,2004 Southall and Hanwell Jonathan Oates,2002-09 Part of the Tempus History Guide series this book offers an in depth look at the suburbs of Southall and Hanwell in the west London borough of Ealing
