Southeast Asian Images Towards A Civil Society:

Southeast Asian Images Jan Anton Niels Mulder, 2001      Southeast Asian Images Niels Mulder, 2003 This unusual study discloses the public discourse among educated urban Southeast Asians in Thailand Indonesia and the Philippines and considers how these people conceive of their society and its problems and process It examines basic patterns of thought the interpretation of observed behavior the opinions of public intellectuals and the diatribes of novelists Together these provide the basis for evaluating whether or not an activist civil society can develop Because of the muddled situation prevailing in the countries under scrutiny the emergence of a public committed to seems to be a necessary condition for strengthening the society and civilizing the state Will it happen Niels Mulder an independent anthropologist has been actively engaged with life in Java Thailand and the Philippines for more than thirty years and is the author of a number of books      Civil Society Networks in China and Vietnam A. Wells-Dang, 2012-07-31 This book brings a fresh original approach to understand social action in China and Vietnam through the conceptual lens of informal environmental and health networks It shows how citizens in non democratic states actively create informal pathways for advocacy and the development of functioning civil societies      The Sociology of Southeast Asia Victor T. King, 2008 One of the main problems faced by teachers and students who have a scholarly interest in Southeast Asia is the lack of general user friendly texts in the social sciences The absence of an introduction to the sociology of Southeast Asia is especially unfortunate This volume attempts to meet these needs This is then the first sole authored introductory sociology text on Southeast Asia that focuses on change and development in the region provides an overview of the important sociological and political economy writings and considers the key concepts and themes in the field since 1945 Some multiauthored works do exist but these either are outdated or focus on specialized topics Aimed primarily at undergraduates up to the final year it will also be a useful reference work for post graduates and researchers who lack such a general work      Freunde, Gönner und Getreue Bernadette Descharmes, Eric Anton Heuser, Caroline Krüger, Thomas Loy, 2011 English summary Close relationships that go beyond family ties and kinships have become an interdisciplinary research subject that has received a lot of attention Variations of social ties such as friendship patronage and social networks ensue from different historical and cultural contexts and hence constitute a significant yet under represented subject of interdisciplinary research Questions such as the changing semantics of friendship historical intercultural and political practices of friendship patronage and loyalty were the focus of an international conference for a critical discussion and re assessment of values and norms that constitute such relationships in different cultures and epochs as well as the social circumstances that determine them Aspects of interest included the constitution and representation of the body and gender and the growth of trust and deceit as well as the culturally and historically different practices and semantics of friendship and patronage and the way they are perceived according to social status and social and historical contexts The results of the conference are presented in this volume German description

Nahbeziehungen die über familiäre und verwandtschaftliche Bindungen hinausgehen haben sich zu einem vielbeachteten Thema interdisziplinärer Forschung entwickelt. Beziehungen wie Freundschaft, Patronage und soziale Netzwerke als Variationen sozialer Bindungen sind das Ergebnis unterschiedlicher historischer wie kultureller Kontexte und stellen deshalb einen wesentlichen aber immer noch unterrepräsentierten Gegenstand interdisziplinären Forschens dar. Fragen nach sich ändernden Freundschaftssemantiken historischen und interkulturellen bzw. politischen Praktiken von Freundschaft, Patronage und Loyalität standen im Mittelpunkt einer internationalen Tagung die eine kritische Diskussion und Neubewertung von Werten und Normen die z. B. Freundschaft in verschiedenen Kulturen und historischen Epochen konstituieren sowie der sozialen Umstände die diese Nahbeziehungen bedingen vorgenommen hat. Aspekte wie Konstitution und Repräsentation von Körper und Gender und das Entstehen von Vertrauen und Betrug waren dabei ebenso von Interesse wie die kulturell und historisch unterschiedliche Praxis und Semantik von Freundschaft und Patronage sowie deren jeweilige Wahrnehmung in Abhängigkeit von ihrer gesellschaftlichen Situation in verschiedenen sozialen und historischen Kontexten. Die Ergebnisse dieser Tagung werden nun im vorliegenden Band präsentiert.

Southeast Asia and the Civil Society Gaze
 Gabi Waibel, Judith Ehlert, Hart N. Feuer, 2013-11-20
 As developing countries with recent histories of isolation and extreme poverty followed by restoration and reform both Cambodia and Vietnam have seen new opportunities and demands for non state actors to engage in and manage the effects of rapid socio economic transformation. This book examines how in both countries civil society actors and the state manage their relationship to one another in an environment that is continuously shaped and re constructed by changing legislation, collaboration and negotiation, advocacy and protest and social control. Further it explores the countries divergent experiences whilst also uncovering the underlying basis and drivers of civil society activity that are shared by Cambodia and Vietnam. Crucially this book engages with the contested nature of civil society and how it is socially constructed through research and development activities by looking at contemporary discourses and manifestations of civil society in the two countries including national and community level organisations, associations and networks that operate in a variety of sectors such as gender, the environment and health. Drawing on extensive fieldwork conducted in Cambodia and Vietnam this book will be of huge interest to students and scholars of Southeast Asian studies, Southeast Asian politics, development studies and civil society.

Agrarian Angst and Rural Resistance in Contemporary Southeast Asia

 The book examines the political economy of the states of Pacific Asia stretching from Japan to Burma since the end of WWII.

Working to Be Someone
 Beatrice Hungerland, Manfred Liebel, Anne Wihstutz, Brian Milne, 2007-02-15
 This book presents an overview of worldwide research on working children that considers children's own views of employment in favour of adult constructed arguments about child

work This is a key text for social work practitioners that encourages re evaluation of the notion of childhood and understands the complex phenomenon of working children

HIV/AIDS and the Social Consequences of Untamed Biomedicine

Graham Fordham,2014-11-13 Drawing on the case of HIV AIDS in Thailand this book examines how anthropological and other interpretative social science research has been utilized in modeling the AIDS epidemic and in the design and implementation of interventions It argues that much social science research has been complicit with the forces that generated the epidemic and with the social control agendas of the state and that as such it has increased the weight of structural violence bearing upon the afflicted The book also questions claims of Thai AIDS control success arguing that these can only be made at the cost of excluding categories such as intravenous drug users the incarcerated and homosexuals who continue to experience extraordinarily high levels of levels of HIV infection Considered deviant and undeserving these persons have deliberately been excluded from harm reduction programs Overall this work argues for the untapped potential of anthropological research in the health field a confident anthropology rooted in ethnography and a critical reflexivity Crucially it argues that in context of interdisciplinary collaborations anthropological research must refuse relegation to the status of an adjunct discipline and must be free epistemologically and methodologically from the universalizing assumptions and practices of biomedicine

Hermeneutics in Thai Education Iris G. Haapanen,2011-07-19 Critical Hermeneutics in Thai Education sparks the interest to explore Thai education policy and practice in K university level The book focuses on innovation in Thai education and how the educational system meets the challenges of the socio cultural identities and rapidly changing educational system As the economy improves the country s social structure may also assist in helping to dispel the great dichotomy between the rich and poor It provides an understanding of the ways in which a group of teachers from are working to develop sustainable learning community among themselves in relationships with others in The Land of Smiles It provides in depth interpretations of conversations with participants in both Thailand and United States of America The key lies in the remarkable changes that can occur when teachers interact and learn from each other which in turn forms a powerful force for ongoing improvement in the socioeconomic comeback as well as the continuing development of Thailand Critical hermeneutics integrates philosophy and social sciences within the work of Heidegger Georg Gadamer Jurgen Habermas and Paul Ricoeur in order to explore meaning in interactions engagement and conversations These research studies imply evidence of community learning for mastering achievement and success in the Thai educational practice Show More Show Less

Buddhism, Power and Political Order Ian Harris,2007-06-11 Weber s claim that Buddhism is an otherworldly religion is only partially true Early sources indicate that the Buddha was sometimes diverted from supramundane interests to dwell on a variety of politically related matters The significance of Asoka Maurya as a paradigm for later traditions of Buddhist kingship is also well attested However there has been little scholarly effort to integrate findings on the extent to which Buddhism interacted with the political order in the classical and modern states of Theravada Asia into a wider comparative study This volume brings together the brightest minds in the study of Buddhism in Southeast Asia Their contributions create a more coherent account of the relations between Buddhism and political order in the late pre modern and modern period by questioning the contested relationship between monastic and secular power In doing so they expand the very nature of what is known as the Theravada Buddhism Power and Political Order offers new insights for scholars of Buddhism and it will stimulate new debates

Indonesian Civil Society and Human Rights Advocacy in ASEAN Randy W. Nandyatama,2021-07-31 This book focuses on how Indonesian civil society organisations interact with ASEAN to shape human rights institutionalisation in the region Using Bourdieu inspired constructivist IR as an analytical lens the book argues that there are pre reflexive norms that dominate the field of interaction in the region that shape the way civil society organisations operate This has resulted in the diverging advocacy practices thus complicating human rights institutionalisation process in ASEAN

Civil Society Contributions to Policy Innovation in the PR China A. Fulda,2015-04-29 This book focuses on the question of whether and how civil society may contribute to policy innovation As the focus of civil society research is often more on the constraints on civil society by the state and less on the agency and effects of civil society organisations the authors provide a fresh and fruitful perspective

Civil Society Activism Under Authoritarian Rule Francesco Cavatorta,2013 This volume examines theoretical and comparative perspectives on civil society activism under authoritarian constraints to offer a better understanding of its relationship with regime change Rejecting a normative approach the authors focus on the whole range of civic activism under authoritarianism

Foreign Policies and Diplomacies in Asia Matthias Maass, 2025-10-01 The observation of a rising Asia and its rapidly growing economic powerhouses has become a truism These impressive economic development stories provide the backbone for the growing political assertiveness in the region Asia's economic prowess is rapidly being transferred onto the diplomatic stage In the light of these larger developments the authors of this timely volume investigate the regional and international implications of a rising Asia and problematise critical developments The first section focuses on the lack of a proper regional security community in Asia The second part analyses the usefulness of Asia as a catch all for very distinct sub regions While not denying the utility of the concept of Asia as one region the authors support the need to maintain in parallel a clear focus on issues approaches and characteristics that are unique to sub regions within the continent A third group of authors probe the regional foreign policies of key players in the region exploring the security strategies and diplomacies of major regional actors

Globalization, the City and Civil Society in Pacific Asia Mike Douglass, K.C. Ho, Giok Ling Ooi, 2007-10-29 Most research on globalization and civil society has focused on the West this is the first book to bring together a tight analysis of Pacific Asian countries It also theorizes and empirically explores the relationships between civil society and the production of urban spaces

Civil Society and World Regions Lorenzo Fioramonti, 2013-12-11 Supranational regionalism and regional integration have for a long time been top down processes led by the few and imposed on the many The role of citizens especially those active in civil society has been neglected by scholars students and commentators of regionalism In reaction to the prevalence of these top down models a new regionalism approach has proliferated in the past few years This book aims to further develop such a research agenda by providing an up to date overview of the contribution of civil society to world regionalism from Europe to Africa Asia and the Americas This is not only relevant as a research topic it is also of critical importance from a political standpoint As regions across the world experience prolonged governance crises it becomes paramount to understand the extent to which these new regional formations actually reflect the interests and needs of their people While old regionalism was accepted as a de facto elite driven byproduct of both the Cold War and neoliberal globalization the twenty first century regionalism if it is to survive will need to refocus its objectives through new forms of participation and inclusion Regions without citizens are unlikely to stand the test of time especially in times of crises
