Ethnic Relations and Nation-Building in Southeast Asia Leo Suryadinata, 2004 Ethnic racial relations have been a perennial theme in Southeast Asian studies Current events have highlighted the tensions among ethnic groups and the need to maintain ethnic racial harmony for national unity This book analyses ethnic race relations in Singapore Malaysia and Indonesia with special reference to the roles of ethnic Chinese in nation building It brings together a group of established Southeast Asian scholars to critically examine some of the important issues such as ethnic politics nation building state policies and conflict resolution These scholars of different ethnic origins present their own ethnic perspectives and hence make the book unique This is the most up to date book on ethnic racial relations with special reference to the ethnic Chinese in three Southeast Asian countries

Asian Firms Frank B. Tipton, 2008-01-01 This book appeals to a wide range of readers who might be interested in the historical development of Asian economies evolutionary trajectories of Asian firms institutional change and dynamics in Asia and management and organization of Asian firms For readers who are interested in specific Asian economies this book will also be useful because it provides a comparative perspective that examines different Asian economies and their forms in a single work Henry Wai chung Yeung National University of Singapore Tipton provides a fresh approach to understand how Asian firms differ from their western counterparts Paul Beamish University of Western Ontario Canada Frank Tipton s book is a comparative study of the management structures of Asian firms As Asian economies continue to expand the management of Asian firms becomes ever more important whether they are suppliers customers partners or rivals As the author argues Asian firms are very different from their Western counterparts and these differences reflect the variations in national history and institutions within which they operate Asian Firms compares Chinese Japanese Korean and Southeast Asian management structures and sets them in their historical and institutional context Based on a wide range of interviews and material drawn from a variety of disciplines the argument is framed by the sayings of the legendary strategist Sun Tzu and the renowned businessman Tao Zhu gong A series of case studies illustrate the strengths and weaknesses of the approaches of managers in each of the national traditions Asian Firms asks in each case what Western managers can learn from Asian firms and what Asian firms can learn from each other With a multidisciplinary approach and emphasis on practical lessons and tools the book will be of great use and interest for managers It will also appeal to students and researchers of international business postgraduate management students in courses with a comparative or Asian emphasis as well as academics and researchers of Asian studies

Islamic Modern Michael G. Peletz, 2018-06-05 How do Islamic courts work What sorts of cultural understandings inform judicial process and litigants strategies How do women s claims fare Do these courts promote social tolerance And how do states use them to consolidate power build nations and shape a modern citizenry These are among the questions addressed in this book which not only enhances our understanding of diversity among and within the world s Muslim communities but also provides ethnographic historical and transnational perspectives on contemporary Islam in the shifting landscape of a strategically important region of the world Focusing on Malaysia which has sustained more rapid development than probably any other Muslim nation Michael Peletz explores the culture political economy and history of Islamic courts He demonstrates that they are centrally involved in the creation and policing of new Malay Muslim identities such as middle class urban dwellers that the state sees as the basis for a national polity that will be highly competitive He also shows how and why Islamic courts are key sites in struggles involving ethnic and religious groups social classes political parties and others with a major stake in defining Islam s role with respect to the maintenance of sovereignty and the achievement of modernity and civil society in an age of globalization Peletz deepens our knowledge of Islamic political development in a country very much concerned with forging an Islamic modernity viewed by its leaders as a viable alternative to Western style modernization

Electronic Tigers of Southeast Asia Drew O. McDaniel,2002 The first book in the new International Topics in Media series This timely and important supplementary text investigates the fundamental changes in the political and economic landscape of Southeast Asia resulting from communication technologies developed in the last 20 years Technology changes in information media have gradually taken away political leaders ability to manage public opinion McDaniel a knowledgeable media scholar with experience in Asia relates how firmly entrenched leaders such as Marcos and Suharto lost public confidence and were replaced due in part to their loss of information control Electronic Tigers while focusing on the events and trends of Southeast Asia exemplifies how technological change impacts media and politics worldwide McDaniel insightfully traces Evolution in electronic media and its tight controls strict regulations and censorship in favor of political leaders of Southeast Asia Criticism of opposing political leaders and Western criticism of censorship and control Growth and impact of Internet cable broadcasting multimedia and related technologies As a supplemental text research tool or contemporary history Electronic Tigers of Southeast Asia provides rare insight into the increasingly politically and economically important part of the world Business International Money Report ,1997 □□□□□□□□□□□□□□□□ □□□ □,1996 Comparative Foreign Policy Steven W. Hook,2002 This volume is intended as a core text for courses in comparative foreign policy and a supplementary text for courses in introduction to world politics comparative politics and graduate seminars in foreign policy analysis The Political Economy of South-East Asia Garry Rodan,Kevin Hewison,Richard Robison,1997 This study examines the political foundations and implications of the industrial and economic transformation of south east Asia in the last 20 years Discusses changing political alignments and social organisation and identifies central theoretical issues focusing on Thailand the Philippines Indonesia Singapore Malaysia and Vietnam Includes a bibliography and an index A hardback edition is also available The contributors are academics in fields such as politics and economics Rodan is a senior research fellow and Robinson is director of the Asia Research Centre at Murdoch University and Hewison is professor of Asian languages and societies at the University of New England Dealing in Desire Kimberly Kay Hoang,2015-02-11 This fascinating ethnography examines one segment of Vietnam s diverse sex industry Between 2006 and 2010 author Kimberly Kay Hoang was employed at four exclusive Saigon hostess bars catering to high end clientele wealthy Asian businessmen Western expatriates and tourists local Vietnamese men and Viet Kieu ethnic Vietnamese living abroad Using participant observation and in depth interviews with the sex workers bar owners managers and mostly rich clients at all four locations Hoang argues that Vietnam s high end sex industry is much more than a byproduct of globalization it s an integral component of the country s free market capitalism including its emergence as a regional economic player Major business deals in Vietnam often occur within hostess bars which businessmen use to stage a display of power forge relationships and impress clients Hostesses facilitate these transactions by socializing with clients as well as fulfilling fantasies of the flesh and of the culture The author reveals how recent changes in the political economy have shaped the social structure of sex work in the country just as actors involved in the sex industry have actively shaped Vietnam s political economy Multiple constructions of gender are emerging across local national and global socio spaces from the bottom up and the top down Provided by publisher Japan in International Politics Thomas U. Berger,Mike Mochizuki,Jitsuo Tsuchiyama,2007 How have shifts in both the international environment and domestic politics affected the trajectory of

Japanese foreign policy Does it still make sense to depict Japan as passive and reactive or have the country's leaders become strategic and proactive This book presents a nuanced picture of Japanese foreign policy emphasizing the ways in which slow adaptive changes informed by pragmatic liberalism have served the national interest Kasarinlan, 2000 Konferensi Internasional Budaya Sunda (KIBS), 2006 History and development of Sundanese culture Economic Change in South-East Asia, C.1830-1980 Ian Brown, 1997 This book provides an introduction to the economic history of South East Asia from the early nineteenth century to the contemporary period It examines for example the strong commitment of agriculturists across the region to cultivation for export markets from the middle decades of the nineteenth century and the impact of agricultural specialization on their material welfare the economic role of the immigrant Chinese as traders moneylenders revenue farmers bankers and industrialists the impact of the inter war depression on the economies of South East Asia the implications of the Green Revolution in rice for rural inequalities and the causes and nature of South East Asia's modern industrialization On each topic it attempts to draw the reader into the specialist literature to emphasize divergent views and where appropriate to admit ignorance Above all it seeks to kindle curiosity and enthusiasm to encourage the reader to explore further The Political Economy of Southeast Asia Toby Carroll, Shahar Hameiri, Lee Jones, 2020-03-03 This is not only the best collection of essays on the political economy of Southeast Asia but also as a singular achievement of the Murdoch School one of the rarest of books that demonstrates how knowledge production travels across generations institutions and time periods thereby continually enriching itself No course on Southeast Asia can afford to miss it as its core text Professor Amitav Acharya American University USA This book the fourth in a path breaking series demonstrates why a critical political economy approach is more crucial than ever for understanding Southeast Asia's transformation Across a wide range of topics the book explains how capitalist development and globalisation are reshaping the societies economies and politics of a diverse group of countries casting light on the deep sources of economic and social power in the region This is a book that every student of Southeast Asia needs to read Professor Edward Aspinall Australian National University Australia This book does what a work on political economy should do challenge existing paradigms in order to gain a deeper understanding of the processes of social transformation This volume is distinctive in three ways First it eschews methodological nationalism and focuses on how the interaction of national regional and global forces are shaping and reshaping systems of governance mass politics economies labor capital relations migration and gender relations across the region Second it is a bold effort to show how the Murdoch School which focuses on the dynamic synergy of internal class relations and global capitalism provides a better explanatory framework for understanding social change in Southeast Asia than the rival developmental state and historical institutionalist approaches Third alongside established luminaries in the field it showcases the younger generation of political economists doing pathbreaking work on different dimensions of the political economy of the region Walden Bello State University of New York at Binghamton USA and Former Member of the Philippines House of Representatives This very timely fourth edition explores Southeast Asia's political economy within the context of hyperglobalisation and China's pronounced social structural impacts on international politics finance and economics over the past decade and a half The volume successfully adopts a cross cutting thematic approach while also conveying the diversity and divergences among the Southeast Asian states and economies This will be an important resource for scholars of International Relations and Comparative Politics who need to take an interest in a dynamic and increasingly significant part of Asia Professor Evelyn Goh Australian National University Australia This ambitious collection takes a consistent theoretical approach and applies it to a thematic comparative analysis across Southeast Asia The yield is impressive the social political and economic forces constituting the current conjuncture are not simply invoked they are thoroughly identified and explained By posing the deceptively simple questions of what is happening and why the authors demonstrate the reciprocal relation between theory building and empirical inquiry providing a model of engaged scholarship with global resonance Bravo Professor Tania Li University of Toronto Canada Counteracting the spaceless and flattened geography of much literature on uneven development this book delivers a forensic examination of the unevenness of geographical development in Southeast Asia and the relations of force shaping capital state nature and civil society This is the most compelling theoretical and empirical political economy book available on Southeast Asia Professor Adam David Morton University of Sydney Australia A vital book for all scholars students and practitioners concerned with political economy and development this volume combines cutting edge theory with rich and wide ranging empirical analysis It is terrific to see the continued success of this book with this fully revised fourth edition Professor Nicola Philips Kings College London UK The Political Economy of Southeast Asia has become a leading reference for students of the region With its breadth of geographic scope timely themes clarity of prose and rigour of analysis Carroll Hameiri and Jones have ensured that with this fourth edition the volume will continue its landmark status The book which brings together prominent experts in the field will not only be of immense interest to scholars studying Southeast Asia but also those seeking to understand the multifaceted nature of the political economy of uneven development in contemporary capitalism Professor Susanne Soederberg Queen's University Canada The Asia Research Centre at Murdoch University has long produced leading analyses of the social economic and political developments in Southeast Asia This volume carries on that wonderful tradition It brings together top class scholars to challenge our assumptions about one of the most dynamic parts of the world This collection is a crucial read for anyone interested in understanding trends in Southeast Asia's development today and into the future Professor Richard Stubbs McMaster University Canada This fourth volume in a distinguished series provides a welcome and timely update of the Murdoch School's distinctive approach to understanding the evolving political economy of Southeast Asia Its theoretical depth and wide empirical scope will be of great value to scholars students and practitioners seeking a systematic understanding of the political economy dynamics in the Asian region and more broadly of states and regions embedded in a complex unstable global political economy Professor Andrew Walter University of Melbourne This all new fourth edition of The Political Economy of Southeast Asia constitutes a state of the art comprehensive analysis of the political economic social and ecological development of one of the world s most dynamic regions With contributions from world leading experts the volume is unified by a single theoretical approach the Murdoch School of political economy which foregrounds struggles over power and resources and the evolving global context of hyperglobalisation Themes considered include gender populism the transformation of the state regional governance aid and the environment The volume will be of interest to scholars and students across multiple disciplines including political economy development studies international relations and area studies The findings of contributors will also be of value to civil society policymakers and anyone interested in Southeast Asia and its development Integrating South and East Asia Jayant Menon,T. N. Srinivasan,2018 Fueled by domestic economic reforms regional production networks and bilateral and regional level initiatives cooperation and integration between South and East Asia has been steadily growing since 1990s This book establishes that if such initiatives succeed they will have the potential to revive economic ties between the two sub regions helping them grow to dominate global trade
